Make Believe A Book Of Poetry:

The Tragedies Aeschylus,1855 Twenty-four Sermons on Christian Doctrine and Practice, and on the Church ...
Selected [by Frederick George Blomfield] from sermons hitherto unpublished Charles James Blomfield,1859 Victorian Poetry and the Culture of the Heart Kirstie Blair,2006-04-27 This study considers why and how the heart became a vital image in Victorian poetry It argues that the intense focus on heart imagery in the period highlights anxieties about the ability of poetry to act upon its readers It covers key poems by authors such as Tennyson and the Brownings and contextualizes them with reference to lesser known works The Literary History of Saskatchewan David Carpenter,2014-02-01 Progressions presents another batch of erudite and entertaining essays on a variety of topics covering Saskatchewan's literary development as well as tributes to some of the major contributors to that history and a pictorial glimpse into the past Writers stopped using typewriters and even moved beyond the Kaypro computer box for their compositions The Saskatchewan School of the Arts was shut down ending the Fort San writing experience But the Sage Hill Writing Experience quickly rose to replace it Saskatchewan literary presses really found their feet and published important and lasting books A wave of new writers joined the founders of the province's literary tradition Responding to this growth in the community the Saskatchewan Book Awards and the Saskatchewan Festival of Words in Moose Jaw came into being The Saskatchewan writing community stormed out of the 20th Century in a frenzy of creativity and accomplishment Essay contributors to Volume 2 include Dave Margoshes Jeanette Lynes Aritha Van Herk Alison Calder and seven more The eleven essays include such topics as To House or House Not The New Saskatchewan Women Poets Contemporary Nature Writing in Saskatchewan Fort San Sage Hill and Brave and Foolish Nonconformists In addition literary tributes are offered for Caroline Heath Pat Krause Martha Blum and Max Braithwaite The interpretation of nature in English poetry from Beowulf to Shakespeare Frederic William Moorman,2018-02-05 No detailed description available for The interpretation of nature in English poetry from Beowulf to Shakespeare International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind Russell Meares,2016-03-17 How did the human mind evolve and how does it emerge again and again in individual lives In The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind Russell Meares presents a fascinating inquiry into the origin of mind He proposes that the way in which mind or self evolved may resemble the way it emerges in childhood play and that a poetic analogical style of thought is a biological necessity essential to bringing to fruition the achievement of the human mind Taking a fresh look at the language used in psychotherapy he shows how language and conversation in particular is central to the development and maintenance of self His theory incorporates the ideas from William James Hughlings Jackson Janet Hobson Gerald Edelman Wolf Singer Vygotsky and others It is illuminated by extracts from literary artists such as Wallace Stevens W S Merwin Virginia Woolf Joseph Conrad and Shakespeare Encompassing psychotherapy psychoanalysis evolution child development literary criticism philosophy studies of mind and consciousness The Poet's Voice in the Making of Mind is an engaging ground breaking and thought provoking work that will appeal to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as anyone interested in the emergence of mind and self

Arabic Poetics Lara Harb, 2020-05-14 What makes language beautiful Arabic Poetics offers an answer to what this pertinent question looked like at the height of the Islamic civilization In this novel argument Lara Harb suggests that literary quality depended on the ability of linguistic expression to produce an experience of discovery and wonder in the listener Analysing theories of how rhetorical figures simile metaphor and sentence construction are able to achieve this effect of wonder Harb shows how this aesthetic theory first articulated at the turn of the 11th century CE represented a major paradigm shift from earlier Arabic criticism which based its judgement on criteria of truthfulness and naturalness In doing so this study poses a major challenge to the misconception in modern scholarship that Arabic criticism was traditionalist or static exposing an elegant widespread conceptual framework of literary beauty in the post 10th century Islamicate world which is central to poetic criticism the interpretation of Aristotle's Poetics in Arabic philosophy and the rationale underlying discussions about the inimitability of the Quran

Browning, Victorian Poetics and the Romantic Legacy Dr Britta Martens, 2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning's poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning's own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning s detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet s highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference
