Teens Have Style! Sharon Snow, Yvonne Reed, 2013-03-18 Authors Sharon Snow and Yvonne Reed present fashion as a way to offer a fun and interesting program for teens in the library and not just for girls Today's fashion savvy teenaged guys are just as likely to be eager participants Teens Have Style Fashion Programs for Young Adults at the Library provides an easy to follow template for creating popular programs within the public or school library setting that will capture the attention of most teenaged girls In Teens Have Style librarians will find programs they can adapt to their individual style or specific age range of their younger patrons such as getting ready for the prom making jewelry decorating sneakers creating a green outfit from recycled materials and many more All of the ideas are flexible and can be matched to other educational programs or to fit the library's needs regardless of its size. For example, school librarians can partner with art teachers to orchestrate a Fashion as Art program which challenges students to identify a painting that they like and then to create an outfit that reflects the style and feel of that work of art.

Teen Makeup Linda Mason, 2004. Tweens and teens will love this fun, photo-packed guide to makeup from one of the industry's top professionals. Novice users get all the basics they need: tips on tools and application techniques, ways to use color, and steps for basic skin care. More than 35 looks are then grouped by expression to represent the many moods of teen girls: Classic, sweet, cool, sporty, retro, glamorous, and outrageous. Each mood is made up of five or more real girls with a variety of coloring and face shapes. As readers go through the book, they see each girl transformed with numerous looks. Teens also learn to express their astrological personality with a color palette and special look for each zodiac sign. Teen Makeup is not about covering up defects or hiding who you are, but about the empowering ways makeup can be used to express your true self. For girls ages 12 and up. A cast of real-life teens are transformed with numerous looks throughout the book. Author was head makeup artist for Helena Rubenstein and has worked with other top cosmetics companies including Lancôme. Includes tips showing how glasses and braces can be transformed with makeup. Between Femininities Marnina Gonick, 2012-02-01. Arguing for a recognition of the contradictory and ambivalent identifications that both attract and repel those who live the social category girl, Marnina Gonick analyzes the discourses and practices defining female sexuality, embodiment, relationship to self, and other material culture, use of social space, and cultural, political, agency, and power. Based on a school community project involving collaborative production of a video which tells the stories of several fictional girl characters, Gonick examines the contradictory and textured structure of the discourses available to girls through which their identities are negotiated. Woven throughout the book is the integral concern with the way in which ethnographic writing, as a discursive practice is also implicated in the production and signification of social identities for girls The Routledge Handbook of Magazine Research David Abrahamson, Marcia R.
