Making the Library Accessible for All Jane Vincent, 2024-03-12 Libraries hoping to make their services and programs fully accessible will want to check out this useful and thoughtful guide. Highly recommended. Library Journal. Libraries have an ethical and usually a legal obligation to make their services accessible to disabled patrons and employees. Making the Library Accessible for All is a single source guide that librarians can refer to when planning, remediating or evaluating accessibility. With a unique holistic approach, it emphasizes the perception of people with disabilities as partners in meeting a common goal rather than as a population to be served. Topics addressed and updated in this second edition include: Multiple interviews with librarians and other experts in the field about proven accessibility strategies for libraries; personal experiences and cutting edge innovations; Innovations in providing assistive digital technology, many of which are free or built into common programs; An overview of changes coming to accessibility guidelines for digital content; Up to date information on legislation that may affect some or all libraries; An evaluation of how the COVID pandemic has changed both library services and patron needs.
