The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Valentina Della Fina, Rachele Cera, Giuseppe Palmisano, 2017-01-20 This Commentary provides the first comprehensive legal article by article analysis of the provisions of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD The Convention is the key international human rights instrument exclusively devoted to persons with disabilities and the centerpiece of international efforts to address inequalities and barriers they encounter to the full enjoyment of human rights The book discusses the Convention's position within existing international human rights law and within the framework of the United Nations measures to protect the rights of people with disabilities Starting with the background of all the Convention's articles including the travaux pr paratoires this Commentary examines each provision's substance and interpretation and explores the significance of each right its legal scope and relationship with other international legal norms and principles A unique contribution also analyzes the Optional Protocol to the Convention In addition to enriching academic studies of international human rights law the book provides insights into the practical operation of the Convention's provisions by assessing the practice of the CRPD Committee the activities of relevant international and regional human rights bodies in enforcing the rights of persons with disabilities and the contracting parties implementation practices Relevant European Court of Human Rights the Court of Justice of the European Union and if appropriate other regional jurisdictions case law as well as the jurisprudence of domestic courts are taken into consideration Contributions from leading scholars and international experts make this book an indispensable resource for lawyers academics students journalists international organizations NGOs and other stakeholders wanting to better understand the rights of people with disabilities Furthermore it makes a valuable contribution to appraising the impact of the Convention in the legal orders of contracting parties and to charting the way forward in the protection of the rights of persons with disabilities Socio-Economic Human Rights in Essential Public Services Provision Marlies

Hesselman,Antenor Hallo de Wolf,Brigit Toebes,2016-11-10 There is a clear overlap between securing socio economic human rights for all persons and arranging adequate access to essential public services across society Both are necessary to realise thriving inclusive societies with adequate living standards for all based on human dignity This edited volume brings together the two topics for the first time In particular it identifies the common challenges for essential public services provision and socio economic human rights realisation and it explores how socio economic rights law can be harnessed to reinforce better access to services An important aim of this book is to understand how international socio economic human rights law and guideposts can be used and strengthened to improve access to services and assess socio economic legal and policy decisions The volume includes contributions from different continents on a range of different services and engages with the realities of different regulatory settings After an introduction that sets out the most important challenges for universal access to services including sufficient resources mobilisation private actor involvement and regulation or the need for improved checks and balances the book goes on to discuss current issues in services provision and socio economic rights as well as explores the place and role of private business actors in the provision of services In particular it assesses how the responsibility and accountability of such actors for human rights can be improved The final part of the book narrows in on the under explored human rights concepts of participation and accountability as essential prerequisites for better checks and balances Overall this volume presents a unique and powerful illustration of how socio economic human rights law supports improved access to essential public services for all The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Ilias Bantekas,Michael

Ashley Stein,Dimitris Anastasiou,2018-10-25 This treatise is a detailed article by article examination of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD Each article of the CRPD contains a methodical analysis of the preparatory works followed by an exhaustive examination of the contents of each article based on case law and concluding observations from the CRPD Committee judgments from national and international courts and tribunals pertinent UN and other reports the key literature on the article under review The volume features commentary from a broad range of scholars across a variety of disciplines in order to provide a comprehensive study of the legal psychological education sociological and other aspects of the CPRD This encyclopaedic commentary on the CRPD effectively covers all the issues arising from international disability law and practice and will be an ideal resource for all working in the field The Right to Inclusive Education in International Human Rights Law Gauthier de Beco,Shivaun Quinlivan,Janet E. Lord,2019-05-02 Education is a fundamental human right that is recognised as essential for the attainment of all civil political economic social and cultural rights It was not until 2006 on the adoption of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities CRPD that the right to inclusive education was codified This volume fills a major gap in the literature on the right of disabled people to education It examines the theoretical foundations and core content of the right to inclusive education in international human rights law and explores the various ways of implementing this right through an exploration of legal strategies and mechanisms With contributions by leaders in the field this volume advances scholarship on the core content of the right to inclusive education by examining the content and practice of the right at the national regional and international levels

Human Rights and 21st Century Challenges Dapo Akande,Jaakko Kuosmanen,Helen McDermott,Dominic Roser,2020-01-31 The world is faced with significant and interrelated challenges in the 21st century which threaten human rights in a number of ways This book examines three of the largest issues of the century armed conflict environment and poverty and examines how these may be addressed using a human rights framework It considers how these challenges threaten human rights and reassesses our understanding of human rights in the light of these issues This multidisciplinary text considers both foundational and applied questions such as the relationship between morality and the laws of war as well as the application of the International Human Rights Framework in cyber space Alongside analyses from some of the most prominent lawyers philosophers and political theorists in the debate each section includes contributions by those who have served as Special Rapporteurs within the United Nations Human Rights System on the challenges facing international human rights laws today

An Introduction to Disability Inclusive Disaster Risk Reduction Shaun Grech,Jörg Weber,2025-03-20 This first of its kind volume introduces Disability Inclusive Disaster Risk Reduction DIDRR in unprecedented critical and interdisciplinary ways covering the complex conceptual theoretical and practice terrain Established and emerging scholars and practitioners introduce and probe key discourses theory policy and practice at the intersections of disability disasters and disaster risk reduction navigating compound and dynamic areas including climate change governance wars and conflict forced migration disability representation geopolitics gender and ethnicity This edited book lays out and questions established policies discourses and practices in mainstream areas including Disaster Risk Reduction Disaster Risk Management and Humanitarian Action opening an effective critical debate to understand challenge and shift dominant paradigms By developing new theory on DIDRR it will serve as an important tool for academics researchers and practitioners working in multiple fields including disability studies disaster management global health humanitarian studies international studies and geography among others

Ableism at Work Paul David Harpur,2019-12-19 The UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities promotes ability equality but this is not experienced in national laws Australia Canada Ireland the UK and the US all have one thing in common regulatory frameworks which treat workers with psychosocial disabilities less favorably than workers with either physical or sensory disabilities Ableism at Work is a comprehensive and comparative legal practical and theoretical analysis of workplace inequalities experienced by workers with psychosocial disabilities Whether it be denying anti discrimination protection to people with episodic disabilities addictions or other psychological impairments failing to make reasonable accommodations adjustments for workers with psychosocial disabilities or denying them workers compensation or occupational health and safety protections regulatory interventions imbed inequalities Ableism sanism and prejudice are expressly stated in laws reflected in judgments and perpetuated by workplace practices and this book enables advocates policy makers and lawmakers to understand the wider context in which systems discriminate workers with psychosocial disabilities
