Carson McCullers in the Twenty-First Century Alison Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Café 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others

All Religion Is Inter-Religion Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, Paul Robertson, 2019-07-11 All Religion Is Inter Religion analyses the ways inter religious relations have contributed both historically and philosophically to the constructions of the category of religion as a distinct subject of study Regarded as contemporary classics Steven M Wasserstrom's Religion after Religion 1999 and Between Muslim and Jew 1995 provided a theoretical reorientation for the study of religion away from hierophanies and ultimacy and toward lived history and deep pluralism This book distills and systematizes this reorientation into nine theses on the study of religion Drawing on these theses and Wasserstrom's opus more generally a distinguished group of his colleagues and former students demonstrate that religions can and must be understood through encounters in real time and space through the complex relations they create and maintain between people and between people and their pasts The book also features an afterword by Wasserstrom himself which poses nine riddles to students of religion based on his personal experiences working on religion at the turn of the twenty first century

Teaching Olaudah Equiano's Narrative Eric D. Lamore, 2012-11-30 The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano or Gustavus Vassa the African Written by Himself 1789 is one of the most frequently and heatedly discussed texts in the canon of eighteenth century transatlantic literature written in English Equiano's Narrative contains an engrossing account of the author's experiences in Africa the Americas and Europe as he sought freedom from bondage and became a leading figure in the abolitionist movement While scholars have approached this sophisticated work from diverse critical and historical biographical perspectives there has been until now little written about the ways in which it can be successfully taught in the twenty first century classroom In this collection of essays most of them never before published sixteen teacher scholars focus explicitly on the various classroom contexts in which the Narrative can be assigned and various pedagogical strategies that can be used to help students understand the text and its complex cultural intellectual literary and historical implications The contributors explore topics ranging from the religious dimensions of Equiano's rhetoric and controversies about his origins specifically whether he was actually born in Africa and endured the Middle Passage to considerations of the Narrative's place in American Literature survey courses and how it can be productively compared to other texts including captivity narratives and modern works of fiction They not only suggest an array of innovative teaching models but also offer new readings of the work that have been overlooked in Equiano studies and Slavery studies With these two dimensions this volume will help ensure that conversations over Equiano's eighteenth century autobiography remain relevant and engaging to today's students ERIC D LAMORE is an assistant professor of English at the University of Puerto Rico at Mayagüez A contributor to The Greenwood Encyclopedia of American Poets and Poetry he is also the coeditor with John C Shields of New Essays on Phillis Wheatley The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience
