Reference and Identity in Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Scriptures D. E. Buckner, 2020-07-08 In Reference and Identity in Jewish Christian and Muslim Scriptures The Same God D E Buckner argues that all reference is story relative We cannot tell which historical individual a person is talking or writing about or addressing in prayer without familiarity with the narrative oral or written which introduces that individual to us so we cannot understand reference to God nor to his prophets nor to any other character mentioned in the Jewish Christian or Muslim scriptures without reference to those very scriptures In this context we must understand God as the person who walked in the garden in the cool of the day Gen 3 8 and who is continuously referred to in the books of the Hebrew Bible and New Testament as well as the Quran Further developing ideas presented by the late Fred Sommers in his seminal The Logic of Natural Language Buckner argues that singular reference and singular conception is empty outside such a context
