another worldview This book focuses on biblical texts concerning exclusivity and apostasy studying different interpretations of such texts It starts with the Jewish and Christian tradition of the Hebrew Bible continues with texts from the New Testament and explores diverse social studies to find ways of understanding the relationship between exclusion and inclusion today Part of this exploration is the interaction with Jewish and Islamic voices The collection ends with a systematic and missiological reflection on the issues Christian churches and other religious communities must address today

Christology, Hermeneutics, and Hebrews Jon C. Laansma, Daniel J. Treier, 2012-03-01 This book discusses the history of the interpretation of the Letter to the Hebrews across the last two millennia Beginning with the Patristic period essays go on to examine the responses of Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther John Calvin as well as more recent figures such as Karl Barth and contemporary global interpreters The premise behind the work is to move study of Hebrews away from the perennial arguments about its authorship and provenance and to instead engage with it from a theological perspective focusing upon the text's reception history Consequently the issue of the Christological message in Hebrews is at the forefront and is considered both in terms of the interpreter's context and historical setting At the end of the book the investigations are summarised and responded to by leading scholars Harold Attridge Donald A Hagner and Kathryn Greene McCreight providing a fitting conclusion to a radical academic project

A Christoscopic Reading of Scripture: Johannes Oecolampadius on Hebrews Jeff Fisher, 2016-02-15 The focus of this study is on Oecolampadius's 1534 commentary on the biblical book of Hebrews which derived from his theology lectures at the University of Basel in 1529-1530 Jeff Fisher compares his exegesis with more than twenty-five of the most relevant interpreters from the early church to the Reformation He shows that by recovering and adapting an Alexandrian interpretive notion of Christ as the goal of Scripture

Oecolampadius's Christoscopic reading of Scripture served as an essential step in the shift toward Reformed interpretative approaches such as that of John Calvin

Psalm 110 and the Logic of Hebrews Jared Compton, 2015-08-27 A neglected area of study of the letter to the Hebrews is the function of the Old Testament in the letter's logic Compton addresses this neglect by looking at two other ideas that have themselves received too little attention namely 1 the unique and fundamental semantic contribution of Hebrews exposition vis-à-vis its exhortation and 2 the prominence of Ps 110 in the author's exposition The conclusion becomes clear that Hebrews exposition its theological argument turns in large part on successive inferences drawn from Ps 110 1 and 4 Compton observes that the author uses the text in the first part of his exposition to 1 interpret Jesus resurrection as his messianic enthronement 2 connect Jesus enthronement with his fulfillment of Ps 8's vision for humanity and thus 3 begin to explain why Jesus was enthroned through suffering In the second and third parts of his exposition the author uses the text to corroborate the narrative initially sketched Thus he uses the text to 1 show that messiah was expected to be a superior priest and moreover 2 show that this messianic priest was expected to solve the human problem through death

Commentaries on Romans, 1-2 Corinthians, and Hebrews Cyril, 2022-03-08 For the first time in English this ACT volume translates Cyril of Alexandria's surviving New Testament commentaries Abounding with insights from one of the most significant figures of the early church these commentaries explore themes such as the triune nature of God Christ's sacrificial death and justification and are essential tools for understanding Cyril's reading of Holy Scripture

Theology of the Hebrew Bible, Volume 1 Marvin A. Sweeney, 2019-06-24 Diverse approaches to biblical theology This volume presents a collection of studies on the methodology for conceiving the theological interpretation of the Hebrew Bible among Jews and Christians as well as the treatment of key issues such as creation the land of Israel and divine absence Contributors include Georg Fischer SJ David Frankel Benjamin J M Johnson Soo J Kim Wonil Kim Jacqueline E Lapsley Julia M O'Brien Dalit Rom Shiloni Marvin A Sweeney and Andrea L Weiss Features Examination of metaphor repentance and shame in the presence of God Ten essays addressing the nature of biblical theology from a Jewish Christian or critical perspective Discussion of the changes that have taken place in the field of biblical theology since World War II

Towards Baptist Catholicity Steven R. Harmon, 2006-08-01 Towards Baptist Catholicity Essays on Tradition and the Baptist Vision contends that the reconstruction of the Baptist vision in the wake of modernity's dissolution requires a retrieval of the ancient ecumenical tradition that forms Christian identity through liturgical rehearsal and ecclesial practice Themes explored include catholic identity as an emerging trend in Baptist theology tradition as a theological category in Baptist perspective the relationship between Baptist confessions of faith and the patristic tradition the importance of Trinitarian catholicity for Baptist faith and practice catholicity in biblical interpretation Karl Barth as a paradigm for a Baptist and evangelical retrieval of the patristic theological tradition worship as a principal bearer of tradition and the role of Baptist higher education in shaping the Christian vision This book submits that the proposed movement towards catholicity is neither a betrayal of cherished Baptist principles nor the introduction of alien elements into the Baptist tradition Rather the envisioned retrieval of catholicity in the liturgy theology and catechesis of Baptist churches is rooted in a recovery of the surprisingly catholic ecclesial outlook of the earliest Baptists an outlook that has become obscured by more recent modern reinterpretations of the Baptist vision and that provides Baptist precedent of a more intentional movement towards Baptist catholicity today

The Greening of Hebrews? Jeffrey S. Lamp, 2012-07-11 Applying an ecological hermeneutic developed in the Consultation on Ecological Hermeneutics of the Society of Biblical Literature and in conjunction with intertextual and theological hermeneutics Jeffrey Lamp creatively reads the Letter to the Hebrews from the perspective of Earth The author of Hebrews engages in an extended argument that reinterprets features of the old covenant in terms of the Son in order to demonstrate that the new covenant instituted by the Son is superior to the old In such an argument the voice of Earth is understandably absent The author of the letter is frequently understood as denigrating the temporal order of which the old covenant is a part while praising the eternal order of which the new covenant is a part An ecological reading of Hebrews demonstrates that despite the rhetorical concerns of the author embedded in the argument are textual clues derived primarily from the christological affirmations of the argumentation connecting Hebrews with the larger biblical concern for the integrity and care of the created order

Purifying the Consciousness in Hebrews Joshua D. A. Bloor, 2023-02-23 Joshua D A Bloor argues that the purification of the consciousness of sin via Jesus perpetual heavenly blood offering is a vital motif for understanding Hebrews sacrificial argumentation and vice versa Jesus objective earthly achievements are many yet only his subjective heavenly blood offering purges the heavenly tabernacle and subsequently the consciousness of sin Bloor views the Levitical cult as having a positive role in Hebrews with Levitical guilt foreshadowing and informing Hebrews notion of the consciousness of sin Levitical sacrifices could purge the consciousness but only Jesus heavenly blood can offer complete perpetual purgation This blood is a qualitative type of purgation which continually speaks in heaven offering eternal assurance for the recipients regarding their consciousness of sin Bloor begins with the defiled consciousness and situates the world of Hebrews within cultic defilement enabling the consciousness of sin and its cosmic implications to be properly understood From here the solution to a defiled consciousness is explored by examining Hebrews cultic argumentation Bloor highlights the distinctive purposes inherent in both Jesus earthly and heavenly achievements with the latter concerned particularly with Yom Kippur imagery and the purgation of the consciousness Bloor concludes by differentiating between Jesus session present heavenly activity and perpetual heavenly blood offering Throughout this volume Bloor engages critiques and advances current discourse concerning the nature and timing of Jesus offering in Hebrews

The Narration of Creation R.E. Franzen M.Div. BCC, 2025-01-26 Imagine sitting at the feet of Jesus with Him telling you His very own story of how He created you Who better to tell God s story about you than God Himself How do we hear the purity of that story The Narration of Creation shares a progression through God s revelation of the Genesis creation in a fresh inspirational way It describes two lenses in which we interpret through and the contrast between the two God intended His story to unfold from His perspective a top down perspective rather than from the usual ground up

Companion to the New Testament James Crossley, 2024-08-30 The Companion to the New Testament offers intelligent enrichment for encounters with the New Testament Covering both historical critical approaches and the history of interpretation it provides a launchpad for students wrestling with some of the complex debates and concerns presented by the canon Contributors include James Crossley Rodolfo Galvan Estrada III Michelle Fletcher Michael Scott Robertson Kelsie Rodenbiker Sarah E Rollens Isaac T Soon and Wei Hsien Wan Israel, Covenant, Law Kim Papaioannou, 2017-10-27 Pauline studies are in a conundrum The Reformation perspectives championed by great men like Martin Luther and John Calvin have been challenged recently by the rise of the new perspective on Paul The main point of contention seems to be the place of biblical law in salvation While the Reformation perspectives based in part on Paul's apparent attacks on law assert that salvation is a free gift unmerited by human works the new perspective suggests the law is an integral part of the work of salvation It holds that Paul's attacks on the law were focused only on specific aspects of law the so called boundary markers This book while having points of contact with both outlooks takes a different view on Paul and the law Building on Paul's self identification as a Christian and Christian views on the covenant it endeavors to give biblical law its due place in the plan of salvation and the life of the believer
