Men and Women in Qing China Edwards, 2021-09-13 Men and Women in Qing China is an analysis of Chinese prescriptions of gender as represented in Cao Xueqin's famous eighteenth century Chinese novel of manners The Red Chamber Dream or The Story of the Stone. Drawing on feminist literary critical methods it examines Qing notions of masculinity and femininity including themes such as bisexuality motherhood virginity and purity and gender and power. Its central aim is to challenge the common assumption that the novel represents some form of early Chinese feminism by examining the text in conjunction with historical data. The book will be especially important to those interested in issues of gender in China the history of Chinese literary criticism and the application of feminist theory to the Asian text.

Philosophies of Appropriated Religions Soraj Hongladarom, Jeremiah Joven Joaquin, Frank J. Hoffman, 2023-12-21 This book brings together different intercultural philosophical points of view discussing the philosophical impact of what we call the appropriated religions of Southeast Asia. Southeast Asia is home to most of the world religions. Buddhism is predominantly practiced in Thailand Vietnam Myanmar Singapore Laos and Cambodia. Islam in Malaysia Indonesia and Brunei and Christianity in the Philippines and Timor Leste. Historical data show however that these world religions are imported cultural products and have been reimagined assimilated and appropriated by the culture that embraced them. In this collection we see that these appropriated religions imply a culturally nuanced worldview which in turn impacts how the traditional problems in the philosophy of religion are framed and answered in particular questions about the existence and nature of the divine the problem of evil and the nature of life after death. Themes explored include religious belief and digital transition Theravada Buddhist philosophy religious diversity Buddhism and omniscience indigenous belief systems divine apology and unmerited human suffering dialecticism and the problem of evil Buddhist philosophy and Spinoza's views on death and immortality belief and everyday realities in the Philippines comparative religious philosophy gendering the Hindu concept of dharma Christian devotion and salvation during the Spanish colonial period in the Philippines through the writings of Jose Rizal indigenous Islamic practices in the Philippines practiced traditions in contemporary Filipino celebrations of Christmas role of place aspects in the appropriation of religions in Southeast Asia and fate and divine omniscience. This book is of interest to scholars and researchers of philosophy of religion sociology of religion anthropology of religion cultural studies comparative religion religious studies and Asian studies. Transnational Associations, 1998 Knowledge Production and Epistemic Decolonization at the End of Pax Americana Naoki Sakai, Jon Solomon, Peter Button, 2023-07-21 This book critically analyzes the global hegemony of the United States a hegemony whose innovative aspect consists in articulating postcoloniality to imperial control in relation to knowledge and knowledge production. Through targeted case studies on the historical relationship between regional areas and the United States the authors explore possibilities and obstacles to epistemic decolonization. By highlighting the connection between the control of work and the control of communication that has been at the core of the colonial regimes of accumulation classic colonialism they present an entirely new form of disciplinary practice not based on the equation of evolution and knowledge An extensive introduction outlines the historical genealogy of Pax Americana epistemic hegemony while individual chapters examine the implications for different regions of the world and different domains of activity including visual culture economy migration the arts and translation This interdisciplinary collection will appeal to students and scholars in many fields including Asian studies American studies postcolonialism and political theory     Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2003     Bibliographic Guide to Government Publications New York Public Library.
