Arms and the Man, The Devil's Disciple, and Caesar and Cleopatra George Bernard Shaw, 2021 The three plays in this volume are some of George Bernard Shaw's most popular and frequently performed works They demonstrate the development of Shawian comedy and contain early formulations of his idea of the Superman an extraordinary individual who catalyzes the evolution of mankind Arms and the Man 1894 was Shaw's first commercial success and the first public confirmation that he could make playwriting his profession It is the first of what Shaw called his pleasant plays comedies that critique idealism in general rather than specific social problems as his earlier plays did Specifically Shaw undermines the romance of wartime courage reckless heroism and nationalist pride among British spectators while using the Serbo Bulgarian War of 1886 as an exotic veneer Shaw wrote The Devil's Disciple 1897 for William Terriss an actor known for his swashbuckling roles who had requested a play that would contain every surefire melodramatic situation mistaken identities terrifying adventures and last second escapes and frequent emotional outpourings Caesar and Cleopatra 1898 is Shaw's revision of Shakespeare's Julius Caesar and Antony and Cleopatra as well as a fusion of the pragmatism and unconventionality of the heroes of Arms and the Man and The Devil's Disciple into a portrait of jocular morally serious leadership
