The Hemingway Log Brewster Chamberlin, 2015-03-20 Few if any writers have made a mark as broad and deep as Ernest Hemingway whose life and work and even image continue to permeate American culture more than a half century after his death in 1961 And never has there been a chronology of the writer's life and times as comprehensive detailed and useful as The Hemingway Log For more than a dozen years Brewster Chamberlin has been compiling and wonderfully annotating and continuously updating what amounts to almost a daybook calendar of Hemingway's life as author Paul Hendrickson noted in his acclaimed Hemingway's Boat Everything He Loved in Life and Lost At long last available to readers and scholars this chronology extends from the birth of Mark Twain whose Huckleberry Finn Hemingway said was the source of all modern American literature to the 2013 publication of the second volume of a projected seventeen of the Hemingway letters Throughout the events and dates that had any influence whatsoever on the writer are detailed day by day Who won the Nobel Prize in literature each year for instance or the Pulitzer What works of poetry fiction or drama were published What was happening in the world and in the country and how did it relate to Hemingway Within this clarifying context the chronological facts of the writer's own life and work unfold literary production and publishing travels and households activities and relevant occurrences relations with family friends lovers and enemies Drawing on biographies memoirs and various Hemingway collections and websites as well as the full range of original sources such as letters fishing logs notebooks and manuscripts The Hemingway Log presents the most extensive and accurate chronology of Hemingway's life and times and in the process clears up many of the inconsistencies and factual errors that riddle accounts of the writer's life and work Any future scholar of Hemingway will find the book not just invaluable but absolutely necessary and any serious reader of Hemingway will find it irresistible

Light all written late in his life and as close to autobiography as he came Hemingway's Havana Robert Wheeler,2018-03-20 Ernest Hemingway lived in Cuba for more than two decades longer than anywhere else He bought a home naming it the Finca Vigia with his third wife Martha Gellhorn and wrote his masterpiece The Old Man and the Sea there In Cuba Papa Hemingway found a sense of serenity and enrichment that he couldn't find anywhere else Now through more than a hundred color photographs and accompanying text Robert Wheeler takes us through the streets and near the water's edge of Havana and closer to the relationship Hemingway shared with the Cuban people their landscape their politics and their culture Wheeler has followed Hemingway's path across continents from La Closerie des Lilas Caf in Paris to Sloppy Joe's Bar in Key West to El Floridita in Havana seeking to capture through photography and the written word the essence of one of the greatest writers in the English language In Hemingway's Havana he reveals the beauty and the allure of Cuba an island nation whose deep connection with the sea came to fascinate and inspire the writer The book includes a foreword by Am rica Fuentes who is the granddaughter of the late Gregorio Fuentes the captain of Hemingway's boat Pilar and his loyal and close friend Autumn in Venice Andrea Di Robilant,2019-05-14 The illuminating story of writer and muse which also examines the cost to a young woman of her association with a larger than life literary celebrity Autumn in Venice is an intimate look at Hemingway's final years In the fall of 1948 Ernest Hemingway and his fourth wife traveled for the first time to Venice which Hemingway called absolutely god-damned wonderful A year shy of his fiftieth birthday Hemingway hadn't published a novel in nearly a decade when he met and fell in love with Adriana Ivancich a striking Venetian girl just out of finishing school Here Andrea di Robilant re-creates with sparkling clarity this surprising years-long relationship during which Adriana inspired a man thirty years her senior to complete his great final work Hemingway used Adriana as the model for Renata in Across the River and into the Trees and continued to visit Venice to see her when the Ivanciches traveled to Cuba Adriana was there as he wrote The Old Man and the Sea The Man Who Wasn't There Richard Bradford,2020-09-03 A ground-breaking and intensely revealing examination of the life of the 20th century's most iconic writer Ernest Hemingway was an involuntary chameleon who would shift seamlessly from a self-cultivated image of heroic aesthetic radical and existential non-conformist to a figure made up at various points of selfishness hypocrisy self-delusion narcissism and arbitrary vindictiveness Richard Bradford shows that Hemingway's work is by parts erratic and unique because it was tied into these unpredictable bizarre features of his personality Impressionism and subjectivity always play some part in the making of literary works Some authors try to subdue them while others treat them as the essentials of creativity but they endure as a ubiquitous element of all literature They are the writer's private signature their authorial fingerprint In this new biography which includes previously unpublished letters from the Hemingway archives Richard Bradford reveals how Hemingway all but erased his own existence through a lifetime of invention and delusion and provides the reader with a completely new understanding of the Hemingway oeuvre The Anthology of Babel Ed Simon,2020-01-21 Why should there only be literary scholarship about authors who actually lived and texts which exist Where are the articles on Enoch Campion Linus Withold Redondo Panza Darshan Singh or Heidi B Morton That none of these are real authors should be no impediment to interpreting their invented writings In the first collection of its kind The Anthology of Babel publishes academic articles by scholars on authors books and movements that are completely invented Blurring the lines between scholarship and creative writing The Anthology of Babel inaugurates a completely new literary genre perfectly attuned to the era we live in a project evocative of Jorge Louis Borges Umberto Eco and Italo Calvino

The Critics and Hemingway, 1924-2014 Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2015 Traces Hemingway's critical fortunes over the ninety years of his prominence telling us something about what we value in literature and why scholarly reputations rise and fall Hemingway burst on the literary scene in the 1920s with spare penetrating short stories and brilliant novels Soon he was held as a standard for modern writers Meanwhile he used his celebrity to create a persona like the stoic macho heroes of his fiction After a decline during the 1930s and 1940s he came roaring back with The Old Man and the Sea in 1952 Two years later he received the Nobel Prize While his popularity waxed and waned during his lifetime Hemingway's reputation among scholars remained strong as long as traditional scholarship dominated New approaches beginning in the 1960s brought a sea change however finding grave fault with his work and making him a figure ripe for vilification Yet during this time scholarship on him continued to appear His works still sell well and several are staples on high school and college syllabi A new scholarly edition of his letters is drawing prominent attention and there is a resurgence in scholarly attention to and approbation for his work Tracing Hemingway's critical fortunes tells us something about what we value in literature and why reputations rise and fall as scholars find new ways to examine and interpret creative work Laurence W Mazzeno is President Emeritus of Alvernia University Among other books he has written volumes on Austen Dickens Tennyson Updike and Matthew Arnold for Camden House's Literary Criticism in Perspective series
