Hendrick Laurensz Spieghel:

Hendrick Laurensz. Spieghel Albert Verwey, Henrik SPIEGEL, 1919      Sparks of Reason Ruben Buys, 2015

Throughout the late Middle Ages and the early modern period the Low Countries were home to a vibrant tradition of lay philosophy in Dutch. Sparks of Reason takes a detailed look at this philosophical tradition with a special focus on the sixteenth century. During this turbulent century several authors such as Dirck Volkertsz Coornhert 1522-1590 and Hendrik Laurensz Spiegel 1549-1612 developed an ethics which was founded on rationality and self-motivation. This vernacular rationalism was a dynamic melting pot of classical philosophy, vernacular humanism, intellectual spiritualism and popular piety. As this book shows, vernacular rationalism was rooted in an age-old Netherlandish tradition and was to become one of the breeding grounds for the early Enlightenment in the seventeenth-century Dutch Republic. Its point of departure was the inherent goodness of humankind and the possibility of moral growth through rational knowledge. Its goal was perfect happiness.

Dawn of the Golden Age Wouter T. Kloek, Rijksmuseum (Amsterdam, Pays-Bas), Rijksmuseum (Netherlands), J.

Bruyn, Hessel Miedema, Christian Schuckman, 1993-01-01. Designed as a catalogue for an exhibition at the Rijksmuseum in 1994, this offers a survey of the paintings, drawings, prints, sculpture and applied art produced 1580-1620. The book contains five essays followed by a catalogue which reproduces work from the era along with data on the artists.      Montaigne and the Low Countries (1580-1700), 2007-04-30. Montaigne 1533-1592 is known as the inventor of the essay. His relativism, his craving for self-knowledge and his taste for freedom and tolerance have had a long-lasting influence in Europe. It is therefore surprising that until present no substantial study has been devoted to the multiple relationships between Montaigne and the Low Countries. This volume aims to fill this gap. It studies the Netherlandish presence in Montaigne's Essays represented by Erasmus and Lipsius and by contemporary history: the Dutch Revolt against Spain. It also deals with Montaigne's translations and editions in the Dutch Golden Age as well as his readership which included humanists such as Scaliger and Vulcanius, the poets Hooft and Cats and a painter Pieter van Veen who illustrated the Essays. Contributors include Frans R. E. Blom, Warren Boutcher, Jeanine De Landtsheer, Philippe Desan, Karl A. E. Enenkel, Ton Harmsen, Jeroen Jansen, Johan Koppenol, Anton van der Lem, Michel Magnien, Kees Meerhoff, Olivier Millet, Alicia C. Montoya, Marringje Rikken and Paul J. Smith.      Early Modern Dutch Prints of Africa Elizabeth A. Sutton, 2017-07-05. Using Pieter de Marees' Description and Historical Account of the Gold Kingdom of Guinea 1602 as her main source material, author Elizabeth Sutton brings to bear approaches from the disciplines of art history and book history to explore the context in which De Marees' account was created. Since variations of the images and text were repeated in other European travel collections and decorated maps, Sutton is able to trace how the framing of text and image shaped the formation of knowledge that continued to be repeated and distilled in later European depictions of Africans. She reads the engravings in De Marees' account as a demonstration of the intertwining domains of the Dutch pictorial tradition, intellectual inquiry and Dutch mercantilism. At the same time, by analyzing the marketing tactics of the publisher Cornelis Claesz this study illuminates how early modern epistemological processes were influenced by the commodification of knowledge Sutton examines the book's construction and marketing to shed new light on the social milieu that shared interests in ethnography trade and travel Exploring how the images and text function together Sutton suggests that Dutch visual and intellectual traditions informed readers' choices for translating De Marees text visually Through the examination of early modern Dutch print culture Early Modern Dutch Prints of Africa expands the boundaries of our understanding of the European imperial enterprise

Rembrandt Egbert Haverkamp-Begemann, 2024-01-09 A landmark book that casts critical light on one of Rembrandt's most iconic paintings In The Nightwatch Rembrandt turns his portrayal of eighteen prominent Amsterdam citizens as members of a militia company into one of the world's most fascinating works of art one that evokes censure as well as praise The painting however was not an eccentric vision but a thoughtful reworking of a longstanding tradition of militia portraiture In this classic book Egbert Haverkamp-Begemann shows how Rembrandt chose motifs colors actions and setting to emphasize the historic role of the militia in Amsterdam and the social standing of the men portrayed and how contemporary viewers associated costumes and actions with events of the past and familiar circumstances of the period when the painting was made Meticulously reconstructing the artist's intentions and the viewer's response Haverkamp-Begemann sheds critical light on the startling young woman in gold and other visual elements of this remarkable work

The Embarrassment of Riches Simon Schama, 1988 In a brilliantly inventive work bestselling author Simon Schama explores the enigma of 17th century Holland a nation that attained an unprecedented level of affluence yet lived in constant dread of being corrupted by prosperity Drawing on a vast array of period documents and sumptuously reproduced art THE EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES throbs with life on every page 314 photos illustrations Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

The Nobility of Holland Henk F. K. van Nierop, 1993-03-25 This is the first full scale analysis of the social and political transformation of the nobility of Holland during the revolt against Spain in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries In the age of Rembrandt nobles seemed to have been obliterated by the rising bourgeois merchants However in this study of the impact of the Dutch revolt the author finds that Dutch nobles were extremely successful in maintaining their positions within the supposedly bourgeois Republic forming the elite in administrative political and economic systems This is a revised edition of van Nierop's widely acclaimed Dutch publication

The Golden Mean of Languages Alisa van de Haar, 2019-09-02 In The Golden Mean of Languages Alisa van de Haar sheds new light on the debates regarding the form and status of the vernacular in the early modern Low Countries where both Dutch and French were local tongues The fascination with the history grammar spelling and vocabulary of Dutch and French has been studied mainly from monolingual perspectives tracing the development towards modern Dutch or French Van de Haar shows that the discussions on these languages were rooted in multilingual environments in particular in French schools Calvinist churches printing houses and chambers of rhetoric The proposals that were formulated there to forge Dutch and French into useful forms were not directed solely at uniformization but were much more diverse      Cornelis Corneliszoon van Haarlem (1562-1638) Julie L. McGee,2025-01-27 The book presents the first discussion of all the known prints executed after Cornelis designs and considers the following topics in relationship to the prints the engravers and publishers the print market the Latinists who provided the text for the prints and the Latin verses themselves      Emblem and Fable Books Printed in the Low Countries, 1542-1813 John Landwehr,2024-05-21 A bibliography of emblem and fable books printed in the Low Countries between 1542 1813 With 10 portraits      Painting and Publishing as Cultural Industries Claartje Rasterhoff,2025-10-01 The Dutch Republic was a cultural powerhouse in the modern era producing lasting masterpieces in painting and publishing and in the process transforming those fields from modest trades to booming industries This book asks the question of how such a small nation could become such a major player in those fields Claartje Rasterhoff shows how industrial organisations played a role in shaping patterns of growth and innovations As early modern Dutch cultural industries were concentrated geographically highly networked and institutionally embedded they were able to reduce uncertainty in the marketplace and stimulate the commercial and creative potential of painters and publishers though those successes eventually came up against the limits of a saturated domestic market and an aversion to risk on the part of producers that ultimately brought an end to the boom      The 'Small Landscape' Prints in Early Modern Netherlands Alexandra Onuf,2017-01-02 In 1559 and 1561 the Antwerp print publisher Hieronymus Cock issued an unprecedented series of landscape prints known today simply as the Small Landscapes The forty four prints included in the series offer views of the local countryside surrounding Antwerp in simple unembellished compositions At a time when vast panoramic and allegorical landscapes dominated the art market the Small Landscapes represent a striking innovation This book offers the first comprehensive analysis of the significance of the Small Landscapes in early modern print culture It charts a diachronic history of the series over the century it was in active circulation from 1559 to the middle of the seventeenth century Adopting the lifespan of the prints as the framework of the study Alexandra Onuf analyzes the successive states of the plates and the changes to the series as a whole in order to reveal the shifting artistic and contextual valences of the images at their different moments and places of publication This unique case study allows for a new perspective on the trajectory of print publishing over the course of the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries across multiple publishing houses highlighting the seminal importance of print publishers in the creation and dissemination of visual imagery and cultural ideas Looking at other visual materials and contemporary sources including texts as diverse as humanist poetry and plays agricultural manuals polemical broadsheets and peasant songs Onuf situates the Small Landscapes within the larger cultural discourse on rural land and the meaning of the local in the turbulent early modern Netherlands The study focuses new attention on the active and reciprocal intersections between printed pictures and broader cultural economic and political phenomena      Christian Mission in Seventeenth-Century Taiwan Christopher Joby,2025-02-03 This is the first book length study of the reception of Christianity and the epistemic outcomes of contact between Protestant and Catholic missionaries and Indigenous Austronesians in the contact zone of seventeenth century colonial Taiwan In the Age of European Expansion Dutch Reformed and Spanish Catholic missionaries attempted to win the souls of Indigenous Austronesian people in Taiwan Christopher Joby examines the strategies that the missionaries employed to overcome the gap between their own cultures and languages and those of the Indigenous Austronesians or Formosans in the contact zone of seventeenth century Taiwan and evaluates the success of these strategies As such this book is a reception history of the texts beliefs and practices that Reformed Protestant and Catholic missionaries introduced to convert the Formosans to their mode of Christianity Using many linguistic and non linguistic examples this approach allows for a complementary colour perspective by comparing the epistemic outcomes of the Dutch Reformed and Spanish Catholic missions Christian Humanism A. Alasdair A. MacDonald, Zweder R. W. M. von Martels, Jan Riepke Veenstra, 2009 It is a misconception that Christianity and Humanism are in any way in conflict with each other The present book shows that through many centuries and especially in the Renaissance the two stood in a relation that was mutually complementary The contributions in this volume treat aspects and manifestations of this cultural symbiosis and they throw new light on authors and texts both more and less familiar The subject areas discussed include religion history philosophy literature and education The age of Renaissance and Reformation is the central focus but earlier and later periods are also featured The contributions comprise a Festschrift for Professor Arjo Vanderjagt whose work deals centrally with both Christianity and Humanism Contributors are Fokke Akkerman István P. Art in History/History in Art David Freedberg, Jan de Vries, 1996-07-11 Historians and art historians provide a critique of existing methodologies and an interdisciplinary inquiry into seventeenth century Dutch art and culture Ethics Dirk Volkertszoon Coornhert, 2015 Ethics published anonymously by Coornhert in 1586 is a remarkable publication for a number of reasons it is the first work on ethics written in a European vernacular it is a mature work appearing four years before Coornhert's death and summarizes a lifetime of writing and thinking about the good life it is considered to be fundamentally pagan because of the absence in Zedekunst of biblical references or any direct mention of Christ Asked why he did not write about such things as the future establishment of God's kingdom on earth Coornhert answered Because I have a greater desire to learn how to live well than to learn how to know much This is the first English translation of this important work It will enhance our insight into the ethical outlook of this prominent freethinker and controversialist of the early Dutch Republic Also available in E book ISBN 9789087045586 The Subject Index to Periodicals, 1920 Gabelentz and the Science of

Language James McElvenny, 2025-10-01 The German sinologist and general linguist Georg von der Gabelentz 1840 1893 occupies a crucial place in linguistic scholarship around the end of the nineteenth century As professor at the University of Leipzig and then at the University of Berlin Gabelentz was present at the main centers of linguistics of the time He was however generally critical of the narrow technical focus of mainstream historical comparative linguistics as practiced by the Neogrammarians and instead emphasized approaches to language inspired by a line of researchers stemming from Wilhelm von Humboldt Gabelentz alternative conception of linguistics led him to several pioneering insights into language that anticipated elements of the structuralist revolution of the early twentieth century Gabelentz and the Science of Language brings together four essays that explore Gabelentz contributions to linguistics from a historical perspective In addition it makes one of his key theoretical texts Content and Form of Speech available to an English speaking audience for the first time
