sneering observation of the unworthy giver of the royal accolade No gentleman ever bore a face like that Framed in long thin gray curls which fell upon his shoulders after the fashion of the time it was as cruel as evil as sensuous as ruthless as powerful an old face as had ever looked over a bulwark at a sinking ship or viewed with indifference the ravaging of a devoted town Courage there was capacity in large measure but not one trace of human kindness Thin lean hawk like ruthless cunning weather beaten it was sadly out of place in its brave attire in that vaulted chamber It was the face of a man who ruled by terror who commanded by might It was the face of an adventurer too one never sure of his position but always ready to fight for it and able to fight well There was a watchful alert inquiring look in the fierce blue eyes an intent expectant expression in the craggy countenance that told of the uncertainties of his assumptions yet the lack of assurance was compensated for by the firm resolute line of the mouth under the trifling upturned mustache with its lips at the same time thin and sensual To be fat and sensual is to appear to mitigate the latter evil with at least a pretense at good humor to be thin and sensual is to be a devil This man was evil not with the grossness of a debauchee but with the thinness of the devotee And he was an old man too Sixty odd years of vicious life glossed over in the last two decades by an assumption of respectability had swept over the gray hairs which evoked no reverence
