Her Story Women In Christian Tradition 2nd Edition:

Her Story Barbara J. MacHaffie, 2006 The Bible has been written translated and interpreted for centuries by men in cultures that were patriarchal In patriarchy women are subordinated within the gradations of a hierarchical society Material on women therefore has often been misinterpreted or overlooked In some instances generic nouns and pronouns in the original languages have been translated into English as masculine words A careful textual study must be made using all the available tools of biblical scholarship An accurate understanding of the meaning of words must be sought Also readers must try to discern the intentions of the author and try to gain a knowledge of the historical and social background of the biblical material The demands of God must be distinguished from the demands of a particular culture The bible as a whole makes it clear that God's people are to bring justice and wholeness to all human beings the injunctions that degrade women do not provide principles valid for every age of Christianity but instead reflect cultural situations in which men related to women through dominance The standard for the Christian community today should be the glimmers of female dignity and leadership that shine through the pages of the Bible

Readings in Her Story Barbara J. MacHaffie, A unique anthology Barbara MacHaffie has collected into one volume 74 of the most important Christian documents and passages by and about women Ranging from Genesis to now these primary sources put the reader directly in touch with the most significant and influential events personalities and issues of women's religious history Often lamentably and sometimes gloriously these voices ancient and modern female and male Roman Catholic and Protestant feminist and patriarchal bear decisively on women's identities today

This Is Our Story Janet Wootton, 2013-01-07 The story of women's ministry is longer and far more varied than most people imagine This book tells the story of women's ministry in the Free Churches and looks at its impact on the ways we worship and live out our Christian lives Women have ministered in garrets and gutters at home and on the mission field Today women are fully engaged in ministry within our multicultural society bringing a diversity of voices to match the diversity of the world in which we live Six well known contributors who are themselves involved in the story of women's ministry explore issues of leadership and authority preaching and worship global perspectives the relation to feminist theology and the ecumenical setting Their contributions are complemented by the voice of experience Women from varied backgrounds tell their own stories of being called to a ministry that sometimes doesn't fit of wrestling with the traditions that have nurtured their faith and that can put obstacles in their way Here we see something of the variety and of the rich texture of women's ministries in the contemporary church Some of the women represented here have found their journey to ministry uncomplicated Others have traveled long and painful roads meeting opposition and hostility Many have moved from trying to be one of the boys to the recognition that their gender can have an influence on their ministry The stories interact with the articles bringing many lively and dramatic voices to the telling of our story

Dazzling Darkness James Harpur, 2025-04-10. At the core of the Christian faith lies the spiritual journey to the heart of ultimate reality or God, described by some mystics as a dazzling darkness. For over 2,000 years, certain women and men have experienced various degrees of direct communion with God, from mild illuminations to a union in which the will of the mystic has been consumed. This book explores such spiritual figures, lives and teachings alongside their personal and historical backgrounds, from early Christendom to modern mystics such as Simone Weil and Thomas Merton. It reveals that the English anchoress Julian of Norwich grew up while the Black Death was devastating Europe; that the beguine Marguerite Porete lived at a time when the Church was particularly primed to burn heretics; a fate she suffered; and that Pierre Teilhard de Chardin developed his idea of spiritual evolution with Charles Darwin's theories in the air. Comprehensive, deeply researched and highly engaging, Dazzling Darkness tells the stories of towering figures like Hildegard of Bingen, Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross. Its pages also highlight many lesser known mystics, including Mary of Egypt, Seraphim of Sarov and Charles de Foucauld, allowing their voices to sing out to future generations.

Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15. This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times, ordinary women, especially Christian women, need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others. More specifically, social science shows that the person-centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture
