800 CARTOONS AND POLITICAL OPINIONS OF 1967
BY HERBERT BLOCK

Herblocks Here And Now

Arthur Power Dudden

Herblocks Here And Now:

Herblock's Here and Now Herbert Block, 1955 A collection of political cartoons that originally appeared in the Washington Post and Times Herald and were distributed by the Hall syndicate New York Accompanied by the artist's sardonic but astute commentary on the political scene of the mid 1950s Herblock's Here and Now Herbert Block, 1965

Revel with a Cause Stephen E. Kercher, 2010-06-15 We live in a time much like the postwar era A time of arch political conservatism and vast social conformity A time in which our nation's leaders question and challenge the patriotism of those who oppose their policies But before there was Jon Stewart Al Franken or Bill Maher there were Mort Sahl Stan Freberg and Lenny Bruce liberal satirists who through their wry and scabrous comedic routines waged war against the political ironies contradictions and hypocrisies of their times Revel with a Cause is their story Stephen Kercher here provides the first comprehensive look at the satiric humor that flourished in the United States during the 1950s and early 1960s Focusing on an impressive range of comedy not just standup comedians of the day but also satirical publications like MAD magazine improvisational theater groups such as Second City the motion picture Dr Strangelove and TV shows like That Was the Week That Was Kercher reminds us that the postwar era saw varieties of comic expression that were more challenging and nonconformist than we commonly remember His history of these comedic luminaries shows that for a sizeable audience of educated middle class Americans who shared such liberal views the period's satire was a crucial mode of cultural dissent For such individuals satire was a vehicle through which concerns over the suppression of civil liberties Cold War foreign policies blind social conformity and our heated racial crisis could be productively addressed A vibrant and probing look at some of the most influential comedy of mid twentieth century America Revel with a Cause belongs on the short list of essential books for anyone interested in the relationship between American politics and popular culture American Humor Arthur Power Dudden, 1989 Originally appearing as an issue of American Quarterly these essays take a close look at American humor from revolutionary times to the present day focusing in particular on the neglected trends of the past fifty years Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Journalists William H. Taft, 2015-07-16 Originally published in 1986 This book is a unique compilation of biographical sketches which covers editors publishers photographers bureau chiefs columnists commentators cartoonists and artists Alphabetical entries provide overviews of the lives and personalities of a good cross section of important people There is also a short essay on awards and prize winners Everything is efficiently indexed This is a supremely useful reference tool for those in mass media and popular culture fields Perilous Times Geoffrey R. Stone, 2004 Geoffrey Stone's Perilous Times incisively investigates how the First Amendment and other civil liberties have been compromised in America during wartime Stone delineates the consistent suppression of free speech in six historical periods from the Sedition Act of 1798 to the Vietnam War and ends with a coda that examines the state of civil liberties in the Bush era Full of fresh legal and historical insight Perilous Times magisterially presents a dramatic cast of characters who influenced the course of history over a two hundred year period from the presidents Adams Lincoln Wilson Roosevelt and Nixon to the Supreme Court justices Taney Holmes Brandeis Black and Warren to the resisters Clement Vallandigham Emma Goldman Fred Korematsu and David Dellinger Filled with dozens of rare photographs posters and historical illustrations Perilous Times is resonant in its call for a new approach in our response to grave crises Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1977-09 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world
