Herders Theologischer Kommentar Neuen Testament:

New Directions in Biblical Theology Sigfred Pedersen, 1994 The papers collected in this volume address a series of fundamental issues within the current debate on Biblical Theology They deal with such topics as the biblical concept of revelation the theology of creation and the interpretation of the Old Testament in New Testament writings Theology of the New Testament Udo Schnelle, 2009-11 For a few decades jet packs seemed to be everywhere on Gilligan's Island Lost in Space Thunderball and even the opening ceremony of the 1984 Olympics Inventors promised we'd all be flying with them now enabling us to zoom around effortlessly in the sky and getting us to work without traffic jams and trains What happened to the jet pack In The Great American Jet Pack Steve Lehto gives us the definitive history of this and related devices explaining how the technology arose how it works and why we don't have them in our garages today These individual lift devices as they were blandly labeled by the government men who financed much of their development answered man's desire to simply step outside and take flight No runways no wings no pilot's license were required Soaring through the air with the wind in your face and landing anywhere there was room to stand could this be done Yes it could be and it was But the jet pack was perhaps the most overpromised technology of all time From the rocket belt to the jet belt to the flying platform and all the way to Yves Rossy's 21st century free flights using a jet powered wing this book profiles the inventors and pilots the hucksters and cheats the businessmen and soldiers who were involved with these machines And it finally tells a great American story of a technology whose promise may one day yet come to fruition Early Christian Literature and Intertextuality Craig A. Evans, H. Daniel Zacharias, 2009-06-25 Scholarly interest in intertextuality remains as keen as ever Armed with new questions interpreters seek to improve their understanding of the function of older scripture in later scripture The essays assembled in the present collection address these questions These essays treat pre-Christian texts as well as Christian texts that make use of older sacred tradition They analyze the respective uses of scripture in diverse Jewish and Christian traditions Some of these studies are concerned with discrete bodies of writings such as the Dead Sea Scrolls while others are concerned with versions of scriptures such as the Hebrew or Old Greek and text critical issues Other studies are concerned with how scripture is interpreted as part of apocalyptic and eschatology Early Christian Literature and Intertextuality includes essays that explore the use of Old Testament scripture in the Gospels and Acts Other studies examine the Apostle Paul's interpretation of scripture in his letters while other studies look at non-Pauline writings and their utilization of scripture Some of the studies in this collection show how older scripture clarifies important points of teaching or resolves social conflict law conversion anthropology paradise and Messianism are among the themes treated in these studies themes rooted in important ways in older sacred tradition The collection concludes with studies on two important Christian interpreters Syriac speaking Aphrahat in the east and Latin speaking Augustine in the west Paul and the Stoics Troels Engberg-Pedersen, 2000-01-01 Dr Engberg-Pedersen shows how a range of problems encountered in twentieth century interpretation of three major Pauline letters Philippians Galatians Romans may be overcome by reading the epistles in the light of ancient Stoic ethics He discusses literary conceptual and theological issues for example the unity and purpose of the letters the relationship in the letters between theology and ethics the logical character and shape of Pauline exhortation the relationship in Paul between cognition and participation the meaning of righteousness from faith Paul's handling of the Jewish law The author illuminates the central core of Paul's thought by applying the Stoic perspective and argues that scholars must move beyond the traditional Judaism Hellenism divide to reach a comprehensive and accurate reading of Paul's letters P 4 of cover

Abraham's Faith in Romans 4 Benjamin Schliesser, 2007 The concept of faith is at the core of Paul's theology and the classic passage for his understanding of pistis is Genesis 15 6 After discussing the history of scholarship on the Pauline concept of faith Benjamin Schliesser explores the literary tradition historical and structural questions of Genesis 15 and offers a detailed exegesis of verse 6 with its fundamental terms count righteousness and believe He then points to the theological significance of this testimony on Abraham for the Jewish identity it comes into sight in a multifaceted and nuanced process of reception from later Old Testament texts Psalm 106 Nehemiah 9 to a broad array of literature from Second Temple Judaism Septuagint Sirach 44 Jubilees 14 4QPseudo Jubilees 4QMMT 1 Maccabees Philo In the final and most substantial step he asks about Paul's hermeneutics of faith How does Paul in his exegesis of the Genesis quote in Romans 4 come to view Abraham as the father of all believers What is the concept of faith that he develops on the basis of Genesis 15 6 Taking into account the manifold textual and thematic links between Romans 4 Romans 3 21 31 and Romans 1 16 17 a unique twofold structure of faith discloses itself Pistis designates first a divinely established sphere of power i.e. a new christologically determined salvation historical reality and second human participation in this reality i.e. individual believing in the community of believers Particularly the first aspect is generally overlooked in modern scholarship

Human Experience and the Triune God Bernhard Nausner, 2008 The overarching aim of this work is to develop a new account of the doctrine of the Trinity The author proposes that such an approach is overdue because contemporary trinitarian theology pays insufficient attention to the fact that theology as linguistic discourse is inescapably embedded in human experience Hence the critical analysis of existing trinitarian constructions Gunton LaCugna Moltmann is impressively sharp In response Nausner develops an interstitial methodology working between experience and revelation refusing both revelational and experiential positivisms In dialogue with contemporary novels the human sciences Frankl Weizsäcker philosophy Levinas and biblical narratives he offers an imaginative original and contemporary way of conceiving the doctrine of the Trinity in relation to human life

Luke, Judaism, and the Scholars Joseph B. Tyson, 1999 This survey of the history of critical scholarship on the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles draws particular attention to the interpretation of Luke's treatment of Jews and Judaism It notes that the Holocaust was a major turning point in the history of New Testament scholarship

audience impressions of Mark's Jesus in light of ancient rhetoric and modern cognitive science. Commonly understood as neither divine nor Davidic, Mark's Jesus appears here as the functional equivalent to both Israel's god and her Davidic king. The dynamics of ancient performance and the implicit rhetoric of the narrative combine to subtly alter listeners' perspectives of Jesus. Previous approaches have routinely viewed Mark's Jesus as neither divine nor Davidic largely on the basis of a lack of explicit affirmations. Drawing our attention to the mechanics of inference generation and narrative persuasion, Whitenton shows us that ancient listeners probably inferred much about Mark's Jesus that is not made explicit in the narrative. The Process of Authority Jan Dušek, 2016-09-26 The authority of canonical texts especially of the Bible is often described in static definitions. However, the authority of these texts was acquired as well as exercised in a dynamic process of transmission and reception. This book analyzes selected aspects of this historical process. Attention is paid to biblical master texts and to other texts related to the biblical worlds in various historical periods and contexts. The studies examine particular texts, textual variants, translations, paraphrases, and other elements in the process of textual transmission. The range covered spans from the Iron Age through the Old Testament texts, their manuscripts, and other texts from Qumran, the Septuagint, down to the New Testament, Apocrypha, Coptic texts, Patristics, and even modern translations of the Bible. The book is particularly intended for those interested in the history of reception and transmission of biblical texts and in the textual criticism. As

It Was in the Beginning Mark D Owens, 2016-05-26 The meaning of Paul's comments about the new creation in 2 Corinthians 5:17 and Galatians 6:15 has long been obscured. Debate has raged for years with some arguing that the phrase "new creation" solely refers to the inward transformation believers have experienced through faith in Jesus Christ, and others that this phrase should be understood cosmologically and linked with Isaiah's new heavens and new earth. Still more advocate an ecclesiological interpretation of this phrase that centres Paul in the new community formed around Jesus Christ. In As It Was in the Beginning, Mark Owens argues that the concept of new creation should be understood within the realm of Paul's anthropology, cosmology, and ecclesiology. Paul's understanding of new creation belongs within an Urzeit/Endzeit typological framework, especially within 2 Corinthians 5:6 and Ephesians 1:2. Owens's reading of new creation gives due weight to the use of Isaianic traditions in Paul's letters and to demonstrate that the vision of new creation in 2 Corinthians and Galatians is in striking harmony with that of Ephesians. Congress Volume Stellenbosch 2016, 2017-12-19 This volume presents the main lectures of the 22nd Congress of the International Organization for the Study of the Old Testament (IOSOT) held in Stellenbosch, South Africa, in September 2016. Sixteen internationally distinguished scholars present their current research on the Hebrew Bible, including the literary history of the Hebrew text, its Greek translation, and history of interpretation. Some focus on archaeological and iconographic sources and the reconstruction of ancient Israelite religion, while others discuss the formation of the biblical text and its impact for cultural memory. The volume gives readers a representative view of the most recent developments in the study of the Old Testament. The Theology of the Gospel of

Matthew Ulrich Luz,1995-05-04 This book first published in 1995 introduces retells and analyses the Gospel of Matthew

The End of the Psalter Alma Brodersen,2017-06-26 Psalms 146 150 sometimes called Final Hallel or Minor Hallel are often argued to have been written as a literary end of the Psalter However if sources other than the Hebrew Masoretic Text are taken into account such an original unit of Psalms 146 150 has to be questioned The End of the Psalter presents new interpretations of Psalms 146 150 based on the oldest extant evidence the Hebrew Masoretic Text the Hebrew Dead Sea Scrolls and the Greek Septuagint Each Psalm is analysed separately in all three sources complete with a translation and detailed comments on form intertextuality content genre and date Comparisons of the individual Psalms and their intertextual references in the ancient sources highlight substantial differences between the transmitted texts The book concludes that Psalms 146 150 were at first separate texts which only in the Masoretic Text form the end of the Psalter It thus stresses the importance of Psalms Exegesis before Psalter Exegesis and argues for the inclusion of ancient sources beyond to the Masoretic Text to further our understanding of the Psalms Exploring the Gospel of John Dwight Moody

Smith,R. Alan Culpepper,Carl Clifton Black,1996-01-01 Every aspect of the study of John is represented in this book including the historical origins of the Johannine community the religious traditions in the gospel within and beyond early Christianity the Fourth Gospel s literary dimensions and theological concerns and the distinctive challenges presented by the Gospel s interpretation Lukan Theology in the Light of the Gospel's Literary Structure Douglas S. McComiskey,2007-01-01

Numerous scholars have noted various elements of literary structure in the Gospel of Luke many of them patterned such as chiasm Several of these scholars have rigorously explored the significance of such structure A common conclusion is that if Luke is consistent with other ancient writers then the observation of some elements of patterned structure e g what has already been discovered in the Gospel suggests that there is probably considerably more This book offers a comprehensive literary structure for the Gospel of Luke thoroughly and critically evaluates it and ultimately focuses on theology that may be derived from this structure As groundwork the Introduction provides rigorous tests for assessing the intentionality behind proposals of parallelism The first chapter then employs the tests in an evaluation of Robert C Tannehill s work on Luke Acts which is representative of studies on correspondences that are not strictly structural in nature His contribution enables us to grasp how Luke encourages the reader to read passages in the light of other passages within the Gospel and accordingly provides an interpretive aid for our study The second chapter applies the tests to the Lukan correspondences suggested by Charles H Talbert which are inherently structural His analysis of Luke Acts and other Greco Roman literature provides a strong theoretical foundation for our own proposal Chapter three surveys OT Greco Roman and NT texts that bear a similar patterned structure to what we discover in Luke The structure of Luke is presented and carefully evaluated in chapter four and the theological implications of that structure are developed in chapter five shedding much fresh light on Lukan theology

The Scriptures of Israel in Jewish and Christian Tradition Bart J. Koet,Steve Moyise,Joseph Verheyden,2013-03-22

The Scriptures of Israel in Jewish and Christian Tradition is a collection of studies in honour of Professor Maarten J J Menken Tilburg and addresses questions of textual form Jewish and Christian hermeneutics and notions of authority and inspiration

Divine Initiative and the Christology of the Damascus Road Encounter Timothy W. R. Churchill, 2010-04-28 The Damascus road encounter between Jesus and Paul is foundational to understanding the early development of Christology and indeed Christianity since it is the first appearance of the post ascension Jesus contained in the earliest Christian literature This study examines the encounter as it is described in Paul s epistles and the book of Acts Since Paul interprets his experience within the Jewish tradition this study begins with a survey of epiphany texts in the Old Testament and other ancient Jewish literature This reveals two new categories for appearances of God angels and other heavenly beings Divine initiative and Divine Response This survey also finds two distinct patterns of characterization for God and other heavenly beings These findings are then applied to Paul s accounts of his Damascus road encounter Paul depicts the encounter as a Divine initiative epiphany This conclusion is significant since it argues against the current view that the encounter was a merkabah vision Paul s Christology in the Damascus road encounter is also significant since Jesus is characterized as divine Such divine characterization is not typical for heavenly beings in first century CE epiphany texts Thus a high Pauline Christology appears to be present at a very early point The three accounts of the Damascus road encounter in Acts also fit the pattern of Divine Initiative not merkabah and exhibit the high Christology of Paul s accounts In fact the three accounts in Acts are shown to form an intentionally increasing sequence culminating in the revelation that Paul was called to be an apostle by Jesus himself on the Damascus road Publisher info Christ-faith and Abraham in Galatians 3-4 Johnathan F. Harris, 2023-09-25 On what basis are Gentile Christians justified and full inheriting members of Abraham s family By being circumcised and keeping the Torah Paul answers by reinterpreting the Abraham narrative in light of the Christ event as a story of two siblings True Abrahamic children are those whose Spirit wrought life arises as God promised Abraham from the event of Christ faith Like Isaac they receive the life giving power of the Spirit that is tethered to God s promise and the event of eschatological faith By contrast those who like Ishmael are related to Abraham only by means of the flesh are slaves and not heirs The Fiery Holy Spirit Jonathan Kienzler, 2020-01-29 The baptism with the Spirit and fire has been a major area of study by theologians and has been pursued by the historical church seeking God s holiness and power yet its relationship to judgment has often been ignored This book explores the Holy Spirit s relationship with judgment in Luke Acts through seven texts Luke 3 16 17 12 8 10 Acts 5 1 11 7 51 8 18 23 13 9 11 28 25 28 In these texts the Holy Spirit is connected with fire unforgiveness deception resistance greed blindness or condemnation In each instance Luke s presentation is examined to determine the Spirit s role in the process of judgment Through the Spirit Jesus judges cleanses purges and divides his people from the world Luke portrays the Spirit as the executive power of Jesus reign as judge exposing opposing and condemning those who reject the gospel The Gospel of John: More Light from Philo, Paul and Archaeology Peder Borgen, 2014-03-06

To Paul the traditions from and about Jesus had authority similar to that of the Scriptures a logion or story served as text for paraphrastic expositions Such expositions are also seen in John s Gospel It is insufficient to discuss John and the Synoptics A better scope is John within early gospel traditions Paul and Philo maintain a cosmic understanding of Jesus and the Jewish people respectively Correspondingly Jesus is seen in cosmological perspective in John s Prologue Philo illuminates the role of God s logos relative to creation and revelation Archaeology testifies to the reliability of John s topographical references Both John and Philo can combine theological and ideological elaborations with specific geographical references historical events and religious feasts The study has brought in material and perspectives which strengthen the view that the Gospel of John was independent of the other three written gospels
