Here Is The News The Bbc And The Second World War:

Here is the News Richard Havers, 2007-01-01 Before the outbreak of the Second World War there were no news bulletins on the BBC until 6pm during the day the news was reserved for the newspapers Everything changed in September 1939 it would be the first and the last time that the wireless was the pre eminent source of news during a major conflict The BBC created a blueprint for news reporting as the war unfolded one that has been followed ever since Encyclopedia of Journalism Christopher H. Sterling, 2009-09-23 Written in a clear and accessible style that would suit the needs of journalists and scholars alike this encyclopedia is highly recommended for large news organizations and all schools of journalism Starred Review Library Journal Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways we've long taken for granted Whether we listen to National Public Radio in the morning view the lead story on the Today show read the morning newspaper headlines stay up to the minute with Internet news browse grocery store tabloids receive Time magazine in our mailbox or watch the nightly news on television journalism pervades our daily activities The six volume Encyclopedia of Journalism covers all significant dimensions of journalism including print broadcast and Internet journalism U S and international perspectives history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics The set contains more than 350 signed entries under the direction of leading journalism scholar Christopher H Sterling of The George Washington University In the A to Z volumes 1 through 4 both scholars and journalists contribute articles that span the field's wide spectrum of topics from design editing advertising and marketing to libel censorship First Amendment rights and bias to digital manipulation media hoaxes political cartoonists and secrecy and leaks Also covered are recently emerging media such as podcasting blogs and chat rooms The last two volumes contain a thorough listing of journalism awards and prizes a lengthy section on journalism freedom around the world an annotated bibliography and key documents The latter edited by Glenn Lewis of CUNY Graduate School of Journalism and York College CUNY comprises dozens of primary documents involving codes of ethics media and the law and future changes in store for journalism education Key Themes Consumers and Audiences Criticism and Education Economics Ethnic and Minority Journalism Issues and Controversies Journalist Organizations Journalists Law and Policy Magazine Types Motion Pictures Networks News Agencies and Services News Categories News Media U S News Media World Newspaper Types News Program Types Online Journalism Political Communications Processes and Routines of Journalism Radio and Television Technology Shooting the Messenger Paul Moorcraft, 2011-10-31 Wars have dominated politics since history began In the modern era most of what the media reports on foreign conflicts comes from a small band of war correspondents As the furore over the Iraq Afghan and now the Libyan wars demonstrates Western governments and militaries often collude to keep their voters in the dark about the causes and the conduct of wars waged in their name In this entertaining and unspun account of modern war reporting the authors ask whether the media itself drives democracies to war Or does it serve to constrain evil ignorant and messianic leaders Are the heirs of William Howard Russell the first modern war reporter watchdogs or lapdogs In the age of Wikileaks and corrupt media empires what is the political impact of war correspondents Are they the heroes or harlots of their profession Public Issue Radio H. Chignell,2011-09-02 Based on original and previously unseen written and sound archives and interviews with former and current radio producers and presenters Public Issue Radio addresses the controversial question of the political leanings of current affairs programmes and asks if Analysis became an early platform for both Thatcherite and Blairite ideas

The War Against the BBC Patrick Barwise,Peter York,2020-11-19 There s a war on against the BBC It is under threat as never before And if we lose it we won t get it back The BBC is our most important cultural institution our best value entertainment provider and the global face of Britain It s our most trusted news source in a world of divisive disinformation But it is facing relentless attacks by powerful commercial and political enemies including deep funding cuts much deeper than most people realise with imminent further cuts threatened This book busts the myths about the BBC and shows us how we can save it before it s too late

Allied Communication to the Public During the Second World War Simon Eliot,Marc Wiggam,2019-11-14 In the Second World War the home fronts of many countries became as important as the battle fronts As governments tried to win and hold the trust of domestic and international audiences communication became central to their efforts This volume offers cutting edge research by leading and emerging scholars on how information was used distributed and received during the war With a transnational approach encompassing Germany Iberia the Arab world and India it demonstrates that the Second World War was as much a war of ideas and influence as one of machines and battles Simon Eliot Marc Wiggam and the contributors address the main communication problems faced by Allied governments including how to balance the free exchange of information with the demands of national security and wartime alliances how to frame war aims differently for belligerent neutral and imperial audiences and how to represent effectively a variety of communities in wartime propaganda In doing so they reveal the contested and transnational character of the ways in which information was conveyed during the Second World War Allied Communication during the Second World War offers innovative and nuanced perspectives on the thin border between information and propaganda during this global war and will be vital reading for World War II and media historians alike

The History of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom: Volume V: Competition Asa Briggs,1995-03-23 Part of a five volume history of the rise and development of broadcasting in the United Kingdom Autobiography Patrick C. James,2013-01-07 The world is indeed small and for many of us a world view is lacking so that smallness is not necessarily a good thing My friend Patrick James was born in relative prosperity on the small outrageously beautiful Caribbean island of Dominica where opportunities for travel for a rewarding career and for a satisfying life can be a dream followed by reality witness the twice as many Dominicans as those living in Dominica who are living working or comfortably retired in such far flung countries as the U S A the United Kingdom and Canada During his growing up years however and as a result of circumstance Patrick experienced wild swings of fortune but because he was fortunate enough to be blessed with great intelligence and sensitivity he grasped education as his means for personal fulfillment as well as his ticket off the island and into the greater world To do so meant severing family ties that sustain us in difficult times including a short separation from his beloved grandfather who sent him back to his parents for petty thieving and so that he might learn a lesson the hard way become repentant ask for forgiveness and gleefully be accepted back into his beloved grandfather's household At that time 1938 Patrick's parents lived in Antigua approximately 90 miles away from Dominica and to Patrick Antigua did not feel like home Prior to Patrick's temporary banishment and from time to time all too sympathetic Patrick eight year old Patrick would steal a few pennies from his grandfather's shop drawer to feed his less fortunate and very hungry friends Finally Patrick was caught and sent away as a form of punishment for wrong doing While Patrick lived in Dominica with his grandfather he had to cope with the absence of his father who would have provided guidance and taught him to be self reliant Patrick grew up being all thumbs Later he taught himself self reliance Patrick overcame all obstacles and his travels would take him to several other islands in the Caribbean area including Guyana and Venezuela in South America both of which do have Caribbean sea fronts the Canary Islands off the west coast of North Africa Barcelona on Spain's Mediterranean coast line Genoa in Italy Nice and Paris in France Brussels Belgium Amsterdam the Netherlands the United Kingdom Johannesburg and Cape Town in South Africa Singapore Perth Western Australia and finally Florida U S A Patrick would see his love of education allowing him to teach into his eighties affecting the lives of thousands of human beings in many countries To meet Patrick is to meet an African American and a world citizen a cultured man with a beautiful English accent and a Caribbean lilt to his voice whose qualities of hard work empathy intelligence and respect are instantly apparent in the first moments of making his acquaintance and whose knowledge of world affairs literature and history and his unwavering religious faith make him a lodestone to his friends and acquaintances a leader by example to others and to children a guiding North Star to fulfilling their own hopes and dreams
