century who is learning her power as a carrier a person who can harness the power of meaningful objects to carry her through time Sifting through the detritus of a fallen city known as the Brook she discovers a talisman that will mysteriously connect her with a series of characters from the past two centuries a French sculptor a woman of the American underworld a dictator's daughter an accused murderer and a squad of laborers at work on a national monument Through intricately braided storylines Laisv must dodge enforcement raids and find her way to the present day and then finally to the early days of her imperfect country to forge a connection that might save their lives and their shared dream of freedom A dazzling novel of body spirit and survival Thrust will leave no reader unchanged

Reading the Waves Lidia Yuknavitch, 2025-02-04 The frank and revealing memoir of a writer who draws from her own creativity to heal I believe our bodies are carriers of experience Lidia Yuknavitch writes in her provocative memoir Reading the Waves I mean to ask if there is a way to read my own past differently using what I have learned from literature how stories repeat and reverberate and release us from the tyranny of our mistakes our traumas and our confusions Drawing on her background her father's abuse her complicated dynamic with her disabled mother the death of her child her sexual relationships with men and women and her creative life as an author and teacher Yuknavitch has come to understand that by using the power of literature and storytelling to reframe her memories she can loosen the bonds that have enslaved her emotional growth Armed with this insight she allows herself to look with the eye of an artist at the wounds she suffered and come to understand the transformational power this has to restore her soul By turns candid and lyrical stoic and forgiving blunt and evocative Reading the Waves reframes memory to show how crucial this process can be to gaining a deeper understanding of ourselves

Verge Lidia Yuknavitch, 2021-02-02 LONGLISTED FOR THE STORY PRIZE Named one of the Best Books of the Year by Bustle and Lit Hub A fiercely empathetic group portrait of the marginalized and outcast in moments of crisis from one of the most galvanizing voices in American fiction Lidia Yuknavitch is a writer of rare insight into the jagged boundaries between pain and survival Her characters are scarred by the unchecked hungers of others and themselves yet determined to find salvation within lives that can feel beyond their control In novels such as The Small Backs of Children and The Book of Joan she has captivated readers with stories of visceral power Now in Verge she offers a shard sharp mosaic portrait of human resilience on the margins The landscape of Verge is peopled with characters who are innocent and imperfect wise and endangered an eight year old black market medical courier a restless lover haunted by memories of his mother a teenage girl gazing out her attic window at a nearby prison all of them wounded but grasping toward transcendence Clear eyed yet inspiring Verge challenges us with moments of uncomfortable truth even as it urges us to place our faith not in the flimsy guardrails of society but in the memories held and told by our own individual bodies

Imperfect Lee Kofman, 2019-01-08 By the time she was eleven and living in the Soviet Union Lee Kofman had undergone several major operations on both a defective heart and injuries sustained in a bus accident Her body harbours a constellation of disfiguring scars that have shaped her sense of self and her view of the world But it wasn't until she moved to Israel and later to Australia that she came to think these markings weren't badges of honour to flaunt but were in fact imperfections that needed to be hidden away In a captivating mix of memoir and cultural critique Kofman casts a questioning eye on the myths surrounding our conception of physical perfection and what it's like to live in a body that deviates from the norm She reveals the subtle ways we are all influenced by the bodies we inhabit whether our differences are pronounced or noticeable only to ourselves She talks to people of all shapes sizes and configurations and takes a hard look at the way media and culture tell us how bodies should and shouldn't be Illuminating confronting and deeply personal Imperfect challenges us all to consider how we exist in the world and how our bodies shape the people we become

Liberty's Excess Lidia Yuknavitch, 2000 In interconnected and mutually enfolding texts protagonists face off with some deformation of being psychological sexual political philosophical Plots play out across the body as if formed deformed reformed by culture Drugs violence and sex inscribe the literal flesh of figures standing in for what formerly passed for character In these fictions a woman is more likely to appear with a needle in her arm than a baby Sometimes a woman cannot be distinguished from a man at all Cutting from subject to object severing the eye I from skin these fictions bring America back to its body In Liberty's Excess capitalism and individualism lose their cover stories releasing desire all over culture's deadening hum Yuknavitch is both master and mistress of this disformed beauty creating a landscape neither Waste Land nor Kansas nor Pomo Glitter

My Fling with Betty Page Yellow #10 Michael A. Hemmingson, Trevor Dodge, 2003 MY FLING WITH BETTY PAGE Imagine a world where the Japanese retaliate in the 1940s by dropping their own twin A bombs on Los Angeles and San Diego Welcome to The Bubble a self-contained universe created by that blast known as Los Diegos where everything is five minutes away no one ages and no one dies Imagine you're a private eye hired to find the rare Betty Page stamp but stumbling on the truth of reality and the interdimensional aliens who wish to destroy it A response to Alfred Jarry's final and unpublished novel of pataphysics My Fling With Betty Page asks the question Do you ever feel that somewhere somehow a duck is secretly watching you and even gives the answer YELLOW 10 Meet twin sisters Susan and Sharon extracted straight out of Disney's The Parent Trap itself extracted from German children's author Erich Kastner's Das Doppelte Lottchen Unlike Disney's series of self-congratulatingly uproarious sequels starring Hayley Mills Yellow 10 catches those rascally Baby Boomer twins full in the throes of a 1990s style adolescent identity crisis where anti-depressants' confessional poetry cry for help suicides and the constipated rhythms of pre-teen sex are set to the sticky sweet backbeat of pre-millennial pop music Another Chicago Magazine, 2000

Heroines, new edition Kate Zambreno, 2024-03-05 A manifesto reclaiming the wives and mistresses of literary modernism that inspired a generation of writers and scholars reissued after more than a decade I am beginning to realize that taking the self out of our essays is a form of repression Taking the self out feels like obeying a gag order pretending an objectivity where there is nothing objective about the experience of confronting and engaging with and swooning over literature On the last day of December 2009 Kate Zambreno then an unpublished writer began a blog called Frances Farmer Is My Sister arising from her obsession with literary modernism and her recent transplantation to Akron Ohio where her partner held a university job Widely reposted Zambreno's blog became an outlet for her highly informed and passionate rants and melancholy portraits of the fates of the modernist wives and mistresses reclaiming the traditionally pathologized biographies of Vivienne Eliot Jane Bowles Jean Rhys and Zelda Fitzgerald writers and artists themselves who served as male writers' muses only to end their lives silenced erased and institutionalized Over the course of two years Frances Farmer Is My Sister helped create a community of writers and devised a new feminist discourse of writing in the margins and developing an alternative canon In Heroines Zambreno extends the polemic begun on her blog into a dazzling original work of literary scholarship Combining theories that have dictated what literature should be and who is allowed to write it she traces the genesis of a cultural template that consistently exiles feminine experience to the realm of the minor and diagnoses women for transgressing social bounds ANXIETY When she experiences it it's pathological writes Zambreno When he does it's existential With Heroines Zambreno provided a model for a newly subjectivized criticism prefiguring many group biographies and forms of autotheory and hybrid memoirs that were to come in the years to follow A book that has become its own canon Heroines was named one of the 50 Books that define the past 5 Years in Literature by Flavorwire an Essential Feminist Manifesto by Dazed and one of the 50 Greatest Books by Women in BuzzFeed Terror(isms), 1998
