

The background of the entire image is a dark, atmospheric landscape. In the foreground, several strands of barbed wire stretch across the frame from left to right. Below the wire, a body of water is visible, with a small, dark ship or boat in the distance. A vibrant rainbow arches across the middle ground, its colors reflecting on the water. In the background, a bright light source, possibly the sun or moon, is partially obscured by dark, jagged rock formations or cliffs. The overall mood is somber yet hopeful, with the rainbow providing a point of light in the darkness.

Masonic Standard ,1899      The Chatham School Affair Thomas H. Cook,2010-03-10 Attorney Henry Griswald has a secret the truth behind the tragic events the world knew as the Chatham School Affair the controversial tragedy that destroyed five lives shattered a quiet community and forever scarred the young boy Layer by layer in The Chatham School Affair Cook paints a stunning portrait of a woman a school and a town in which passionate violence seems impossible and inevitable Thomas Cook s night visions seen through a lens darkly are haunting raved the New York Times Book Review and The Chatham School Affair will cement this superb writer s position as one of crime fiction s most prodigious talents a master of the unexpected ending      Forest and Stream ,1900      Kipling's Japan Hugh Cortazzi,George Webb,2013-12-17 Kipling visited Japan in 1889 and 1892 No other leading English literary figure of his day spent so long in that country or wrote so fully about it Kipling s newspaper dispatches from Japan were described by the great Japanologist Basil Han Chamberlain as the most graphic even penned by a globetrotter These vivid pen pictures together with Kipling s other writings about Japan are now collected by Sir Hugh Cortazzi and George Webb carefully edited with an introduction and Notes First published in 1988 this title is part of the Bloomsbury Academic Collections series      The Jungle Law Victoria Vinton,2010-08-20 A story of the explosive and redemptive powers of the imagination set during the year Rudyard Kipling lived in Vermont and wrote The Jungle Books In 1892 at the age of twenty six Rudyard Kipling arrived in Vermont virtually penniless with a newly pregnant wife and the germ of a story about a feral child who was raised by a pack of wolves Having fled the literary high life in London he hoped to find a quiet corner in which to raise a family and work where he might build a sanctuary that could offer him refuge from the scrutiny incurred by his burgeoning fame and the wounds of his own troubled past From this literary footnote Victoria Vinton brings to life Kipling s early years in Bombay where he lived as the pampered son of a well connected British family and explores the repercussions of the abandonment he felt when at age six he was severed from his family and sent to live in a foster home in England that he later dubbed The House of Desolation She shows how those experiences formed the basis of his art how from this cauldron of comfort and pain he wrote The Jungle Books and created his most enduring character Mowgli Mixing fact and invention Vinton parallels Kipling s story with that of his neighbors the Connollys who are forced to question the decisions they have made in the wake of Kipling s presence in their lives There is eleven year old Joe Connolly who finds himself drawn to Kipling and his stories seeing in the adventures of Mowgli a template for his own escape There is Jack his father who views Kipling s influence over his son as a challenge to his very sense of self And there is Addie Jack s wife who must embrace and assimilate these changes in order to hold on to her family confronted by the unsettling power of the imagination      The Greatest Sea Adventure Books Of All Time Joseph Conrad,Herman Melville,Jack London,R.
