Puffin by Design Phil Baines, 2010 Late in 1939 a chance meeting between Penguin founder Allen Lane and natural history publisher Noel Carrington changed the future of children's publishing with the formation of a series called Puffin Picture Books. The first four titles appeared in 1940 and the series quickly established a reputation for presenting children's non-fiction in a unique blend of editing and design. Puffin Story Books soon followed with the publication of Worzel Gummidge in 1941 and like the original launch of Penguin itself, these story books appeared in the three horizontal stripe design. Looking back at seventy years of Puffin paperbacks, Phil Baines charts the development of Puffin and the role of illustrators and designers in creating and defining the identity of the Puffin list from the very first picture book through to modern day. Rich with stunning cover and inside illustrations and filled with detail of individual titles, Phil discusses the changes in typography, illustration and printing techniques over Puffin's spectacular 70-year history. An extraordinary and beautiful book, this is a perfect companion to Penguin By Design. The Losers Club Andrew Clements, 2018-07-10. The beloved New York Times bestselling author of the modern classic Frindle celebrates books and the joy of reading with a new school story to love. Sixth grader Alec can't put a good book down. So when Principal Vance lays down the law, pay attention in class or else, Alec takes action. He can't lose all his reading time, so he starts a club. A club he intends to be the only member of. After all, reading isn't a team sport and no one would want to join something called the Losers Club, right? But as more and more kids find their way to Alec's club, including his ex-friend turned bully and the girl Alec is maybe starting to like, Alec notices something. Real life might be messier than his favorite books, but it's just as interesting. With The Losers Club, Andrew Clements brings us a new school story that's a love letter to books and to reading, and that reminds us that sometimes the best stories are the ones that happen off the page. Our own Winner of the Rhode Island Children's Book Award 2019, Winner of the International Reading Association and Children's Book Council Children's Choices List 2018, Winner of the Garden State Children's Book Award 2020/2021, Grand Canyon Reader Award Nominee, A Kansas William White Master List Selection 2018/2019, An Arkansas Charlie May Simon Children's Book Award Nominee 2019, A California Young Reader Medal Nominee 2019, A Nebraska Golden Sower Award Nominee 2019, A Virginia Young Readers Program Award Nominee 2019, A Minnesota Maud Hart Lovelace Award Nominee 2019, A Missouri Mark Twain Award Nominee 2019, An Oregon Reader's Choice Award Nominee 2019. Praise for The Losers Club: Clements's latest is engaging and funny. A laugh-out-loud first purchase for all middle grade collections and a solid read-aloud choice for classrooms. School Library Journal, Starred Review. Clements is out to celebrate reading in all its obsessiveness and tosses in shout-outs to a passel of other writers. The Losers Club gives fried bookworms everywhere the satisfaction of knowing that friends may desert them if only temporarily, but books never will. The New York Times. Praise for Andrew Clements: Clements is a genius. The New York Times. We have never read an Andrew Clements book that we haven't loved. The Washington Post.

Children's Literature and the Posthuman Zoe Jaques, 2015-02-11 An investigation of identity formation in children's literature, this book brings together children's literature and recent critical concerns with posthuman identity to argue that children's fiction offers sophisticated interventions into debates about what it means to be human and, in particular, about humanity's relationship to animals and the natural world. In complicating questions of human identity, ecology, gender, and technology, Jaques engages with a multifaceted posthumanism to understand how philosophy can emerge from children's fantasy, disclosing how such fantasy can build upon earlier traditions to represent complex issues of humanness to younger audiences. Interrogating the place of the human through the non-human, whether animal or mechanical, leads this book to have interpretations that radically depart from the critical tradition which, in its concerns with the socialization and representation of the child, has ignored larger epistemologies of humanness. The book considers canonical texts of children's literature alongside recent bestsellers and films, locating texts such as Gulliver's Travels (1726), Pinocchio (1883), and the Alice books (1865-1871) as important works in the evolution of posthuman ideas. This study provides radical new readings of children's literature and demonstrates that the genre offers sophisticated interventions into the nature, boundaries, and dominion of humanity.
