in China Sean Macdonald,2015-11-06 By the turn of the 21st century animation production has grown to thousands of hours a year in the People s Republic of China PRC Despite this and unlike American blockbuster productions and the diverse genres of Japanese anime much animation from the PRC remains relatively unknown This book is an historical and theoretical study of animation in the PRC Although the Wan Brothers produced the first feature length animated film in 1941 the industry as we know it today truly began in the 1950s at the Shanghai Animation Film Studio SAFS which remained the sole animation studio until the 1980s Considering animation in China as a convergence of the institutions of education fine arts literature popular culture and film the book takes comparative approaches that link SAFS animation to contemporary cultural production including American and Japanese animation Pop Art and mass media theory Through readings of classic films such as Princess Iron Fan Uproar in Heaven Princess Peacock and Nezha Conquers the Dragon King this study represents a revisionist history of animation in the PRC as a form of postmodernism with Chinese characteristics As a theoretical exploration of animation in the People s Republic of China this book will appeal greatly to students and scholars of animation film studies Chinese studies cultural studies political and cultural theory Global Animation Theory Franziska Bruckner,Holger Lang,Nikica Gilic,Daniel Šuljic,Hrvoje Turkovic,2018-11-01 This book is open access and available on www bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Scanning historical and current trends in animation through different perspectives including art history film media and cultural studies is a prominent facet of today's theoretical and historical approaches in this rapidly evolving field Global Animation Theory offers detailed and diverse insights into the methodologies of contemporary animation studies as well as the topics relevant for today's study of animation The contact between practical and theoretical approaches to animation at Animafest Scanner is closely connected to host of this event the World Festival of Animated Film Animafest Zagreb It has given way to academic writing that is very open to practical aspects of animation with several contributors being established not only as animation scholars but also as artists This anthology presents alongside an introduction by the editors and a preface by well known animation scholar Giannalberto Bendazzi 15 selected essays from the first three Animafest Scanner editions They explore various significant aspects of animation studies some of them still unknown to the English speaking communities     Arthurian Animation Michael N. Salda, 2013-07-31 This is an exploration of the potent blend of Arthurian legend cartoon animation and cultural and artistic trends from 1933 to the present In more than 170 theatrical and televised short cartoons televised series and specials and feature length films from The Sword in the Stone to Shrek the Third all covered in this book animators have repeatedly brought the Round Table to life Although these productions differ greatly in tone and intent spanning spectra from comic to sober fantastic to realistic and entertaining to edifying they share in the proof of Camelot's continuing relevance in the modern world     Animation Chris Pallant, 2021-01-01 Animation Critical and Primary Sources is a major multi volume work of reference that brings together seminal writings on animation studies Gathering historical and contemporary texts from a wide ranging number of sources the volumes provide a key resource in understanding and studying the past and future directions of animation studies The four volumes thematically trace animation studies from its many definitions or a lack thereof to the institutional nature of animation production to establishing greater space within animation discourse for the consideration of broadcast and interactive animation and finally giving greater contextual understanding of the field of animation studies by focusing on Authorship Genre Identity Politics and Spectatorship thus enabling readers to engage more deeply with the ideas discussed in the final volume Ordering the collection in this way avoids imposing an overly simplistic chronological framework thereby allowing debates that have developed over years and even decades to stand side by side Each volume is separately introduced and the essays structured into coherent sections on specific themes     The Teachers' Animation Toolkit Britta Pollmüller, Martin Sercombe, 2011-09-01 Including animation in your classroom can improve literacy and numeracy develop critical thinking communication and problem solving skills enhance teamwork and negotiation encourage creativity This toolkit together with an extensive companion website will give you the confidence to use animation in your classroom From teaching basic flip book animation right through to producing an animated film there are drawing templates for the less confident artists and tried and tested schemes of work plus advice on how to use animation equipment and what technology and software is available This practical cross curricular resource is particularly suitable for use with students aged 11 16 although many of the activities can be adapted for older or younger students It can be used in Art Media Studies ICT and many other subjects to engage learners of all styles and abilities     On the Animation Trail Nancy

Denney-Phelps,2024-12-20 This book charts the history of more than 20 years of animation festivals From Annecy the oldest animation festival in the world to Beirut or the founding of the festival in Peja Kosovo Nancy Denney Phelps has recorded not just the films screened but also the people and what makes each festival unique What is it like to travel to China Beirut or Kosovo for an animation festival Spend a week on a boat with 200 animators from around the world or be thrown off a train in Belarus All of this and much much more has happened to Nancy Denney Phelps in her many years as an animation journalist Documenting more than 20 years of travels this book will appeal to all those with an interest in animation If you are a young animator and want to know what festival life is like this is the book for you If you are a seasoned veteran and want to bring back some memories of festivals past this book should bring some smiles to your face     Enchanted Lights of
