Lavery Gerard Dillon and Paul Henry The book is organized alphabetically by writer and each text is illustrated with the chosen work in color Edited with preface by Janet McLean Curator of European Art 1850 1950 at the NGI Seamus Heaney and the Classics Stephen Harrison, Fiona Macintosh, Helen Eastman, 2019-09-19 Seamus Heaney the great Irish poet made a significant contribution to classical reception in modern poetry though occasional essays have appeared in the past this volume is the first to be wholly dedicated to this perspective on his work Comprising literary criticism by scholars of both classical reception and contemporary literature in English it includes contributions from critics who are also poets as well as from theatre practitioners on their interpretations and productions of Heaney's versions of Greek drama well known names are joined by early career contributors and friends and collaborators of Heaney sit alongside those who admired him from afar The papers focus on two main areas Heaney's fascination with Greek drama and myth shown primarily in his two Sophoclean versions but also in his engagement in other poems with Hesiod with Aeschylus Agamemnon and with myths such as that of Antaeus and his interest in Latin poetry primarily that of Virgil but also that of Horace a version of an Horatian ode was famously the vehicle for Heaney's comment on the events of 11 September 2001 in Anything Can Happen District and Circle 2006 Although a number of the contributions cover similar material they do so from distinctively different angles for example Heaney's interest in Virgil is linked with the traditions of Irish poetry his capacity as a translator and his annotations in his own text of a standard translation as well as being investigated in its long development over his poetic career while his Greek dramas are considered as verbal poetry as comments on Irish politics and as stage plays with concomitant issues of production and interpretation Heaney's posthumous translation of Virgil's Aeneid VI 2016 comes in for considerable attention and this will be the first volume to study this major work from several angles The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, Stephen Butler, James Ward, Kevin De Ornellas, 2020-09-03 THE WILEY BLACKWELL COMPANION TO CONTEMPORARY BRITISH AND IRISH LITERATURE An insightful guide to the exploration of modern British and Irish literature The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature is a must have guide for anyone hoping to navigate the world of new British and Irish writing Including modern authors and poets from the 1960s through to the 21st century the Companion provides a thorough overview of contemporary poetry fiction and drama by some of the most prominent and noteworthy writers Seventy three comprehensive chapters focus on individual authors as well as such topics as Englishness and identity contemporary Science Fiction Black writing in Britain crime fiction and the influence of globalization on British and Irish Literature Written in four parts The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature includes comprehensive examinations of individual authors as well as a variety of themes that have come to define the contemporary period ethnicity gender nationality and more A thorough guide to the main figures and concepts in contemporary literature from Britain and Ireland this two volume set Includes studies of notable figures such as Seamus Heaney and Angela Carter as well as more recently influential writers such as Zadie Smith and Sarah Waters Covers topics such as LGBT fiction androgyny in contemporary British Literature and post Troubles Northern Irish Fiction Features a broad range of writers and topics covered by distinguished academics Includes an analysis of the interplay between individual authors and the major themes of the day and whether an examination of the latter enables us to appreciate the former The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature provides essential reading for students as well as academics seeking to learn more about the history and future direction of contemporary British and Irish Literature Rhythms of Writing Helena

Wulff, 2020-05-15 This is the first anthropological study of writers writing and contemporary literary culture Drawing on the flourishing literary scene in Ireland as the basis for her research Helena Wulff explores the social world of contemporary Irish writers examining fiction novels short stories as well as journalism Discussing writers such as John Banville Roddy Doyle Colm Tóibín Frank McCourt Anne Enright Deirdre Madden and Seamus Heaney Colum McCann David Park and Joseph O'Connor Wulff reveals how the making of a writer's career is built on the rhythms of writing long hours of writing in solitude alternate with public events such as book readings and media appearances Destined to launch a new field of enquiry Rhythms of Writing is essential reading for students and scholars in anthropology literary studies creative writing cultural studies and Irish studies

Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction Paul Delaney, 2025-03-28 This original new study explores the recent flowering of short fiction in Ireland analysing the production dissemination and reception of the short form in the twenty first century and reading contemporary short stories in their many configurations and guises This volume covers twenty five years of Irish writing beginning in late 1997 with the establishment of the innovative literary periodical The Stinging Fly and concludes in 2022 The book is structured in five parts with each part focusing on a particular mode of publication periodicals single author volumes short story cycles edited anthologies and small or independent presses Each part includes a series of case studies while also engaging with a diverse range of short story criticism and theory both comparative and Irish centered Anthologisation and Irish Short Fiction brings different writers at distinct stages of their careers into conversation and This volume aims to illuminate the contemporaneous value of this body of work its innovative and varied use and the diversity of its practice Particular attention is also shown to the fluidity of the short form to its capacity to disrupt and arrest and to its progressive writerly potential One Thousand Things Worth Knowing Paul

Muldoon, 2015-01-13 Another wild expansive collection from the eternally surprising Pulitzer Prize winning poet Smuggling Diesel Ben Hur the movie yes but also Lew Wallace's original book and Seosamh Mac Grianna's Gaelic translation a real trip to Havana an imaginary trip to the Chateau d'If Paul Muldoon's newest collection of poems his twelfth is exceptionally wide ranging in its subject matter as we've come to expect from this master of self reinvention He can be somber or quick witted often within the same poem The mournful refrain of Cuthbert and the Otters is I cannot thole the thought of Seamus Heaney dead but that doesn't stop Muldoon from quipping that the ancient Danes are already dyeing everything beige In anticipation

perhaps of the carpet and mustard factories If this masterful multifarious collection does have a theme it is watchfulness War is to wealth as performance is to appraisal he warns in Recalculating And Source is to leak as Ireland is to debt Heedful hard won head turning heartfelt these poems attempt to bring scrutiny to bear on everything including scrutiny itself One Thousand Things Worth Knowing confirms Nick Laird's assessment in The New York Review of Books that Muldoon is the most formally ambitious and technically innovative of modern poets an experimenter and craftsman who writes poems like no one else Seamus Heaney and American Poetry Christopher Lavery, 2022-05-09 This book examines the influence of American poetry on Seamus Heaney's achievement by close attention to the themes style and resonances of his poetry at different stages of his career including his appointments in Berkeley and Harvard Beginning with an examination of Heaney's education at Queen's University this study presents comparative close readings which explore the influence of five American poets he read during this period Robert Frost John Crowe Ransom Theodore Roethke Robert Lowell and Elizabeth Bishop Lavery demonstrates how Heaney returned to several of these poets in response to difficulty and to consolidate later aesthetic developments Heaney's ambivalent critical treatment of Sylvia Plath is investigated as is his partial misreading of Bishop who is understood today more sensitively than in her lifetime This study also probes the reasons for his elision of other prominent American writers making this the first comprehensive assessment of American influence on Heaney's poetry

A Slanting of the Sun Donal Ryan, 2015-09-29 Winner of the European Prize for Literature An Indie Next Selection Short stories that capture the brutal beauty of the human heart in all its failings hopes and quiet triumphs from one of the most exciting voices in contemporary Irish fiction The Sunday Independent Donal Ryan's short stories pick up where his acclaimed novels The Spinning Heart and The Thing About December left off dealing with dramas set in motion by loneliness and displacement and revealing stories of passion and desire where less astute observers might fail to detect the humanity that roils beneath the surface Sometimes these dramas are found in ordinary mundane situations sometimes they are triggered by a fateful encounter or a tragic decision At the heart of these stories crucially is how people are drawn to each other and cling to love when and where it can be found In a number of the these stories emotional bonds are forged by traumatic events caused by one of the characters between an old man and the frightened young burglar left to guard him while his brother is beaten between another young man and the mother of a girl whose death he caused when he crashed his car between a lonely middle aged shopkeeper and her assistant Disconnection and new discoveries pervade stories involving emigration an Irish priest in war torn Syria or immigration an African refugee in Ireland Some of the stories are set in the same small town in rural Ireland as the novels with names that will be familiar to Ryan's readers W.B.
