recreating or addressing the past recent or distant actual or imagined have been a mainstay of British cinema since the silent era From Elizabeth to Carry On Up The Khyber and from the heritage film debate to issues of authenticity and questions of genre British Historical Cinema explores the ways in which British films have represented the past on screen the issues they raise and the debates they have provoked Discussing films from biopics to literary adaptations and from depictions of Britain's colonial past to the reimagining of recent decades in retro films such as Velvet Goldmine a range of contributors ask whose history is being represented from whose perspective and why Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2002-02 Invincible Green Suburbs, Brave New Towns Mark Clapson, 1998 Explores the phenomenon of the mass movement of people away from town and city centres to live in new estates and towns built since World War II Using sociology town planning materials oral history and other sources this book examines the making of modern suburbia Romancing the Market Stephen

Brown, Bill Clarke, Anne Marie Doherty, 2003-09-02 Romancing the Market is a radical rethinking of marketing understanding. Marketing and consumer research are dominated by the neo classical ideals of the Enlightenment such as rigour, dispassion and the search for scientific truth. In a series of provocative essays the contributors challenge these assumptions with reference to the individuality, innovation and imagination of the Romantic movement. The book contains essays by an international selection of the most creative contemporary marketing scholars including Elizabeth Hirschman, Russell Belk, Craig Thompson and Robin Wensley. Illuminating, controversial and cutting edge, this is an essential work for all those interested in new directions in marketing and consumer research.

The Films of Victor Mature James McKay, 2013-01-11
 With his rugged features and earthy sex appeal, Victor Mature ushered in a new breed of postwar Hollywood actor far removed from the debonair matinee idols of the 1930s. Following success as an upbeat leading man in the early 1940s Fox musicals opposite the likes of Betty Grable and Rita Hayworth, he went on to deliver two of his most powerful performances in My Darling Clementine (1946) and Kiss of Death (1947). But it was in the biblical epics such as Samson and Delilah (1949), The Robe (1953) and Demetrius and the Gladiators (1954) that his heartfelt acting and statuesque, larger-than-life screen presence finally secured his place as a Hollywood icon. Beginning with a concise biography, this work covers Mature's film career in its entirety, featuring synopses, anecdotes from cast and crew, and review commentary.

"A" Western Filmmakers Henryk Hoffmann, 2024-10-16
 From High Noon to Unforgiven, the A Western represents the pinnacle of Western filmmaking. More intellectually ambitious and time-consuming than the readily produced B or serial Westerns, these films rely on hundreds of talented artists. This comprehensive reference work provides biographies and Western filmographies for nearly 1,000 men and women who have contributed to at least three A Westerns. These contributors are arranged by their role in film production: cinematographers, composers, actors, actresses, and directors receive complete biographical treatment; writers whose work was used in at least two Westerns are also featured. An appendix lists well-known actors who have appeared in either one or two A Westerns as specified.

Adaptations Deborah Cartmell, Imelda Whelehan, 2013-06-17
Adaptations considers the theoretical and practical difficulties surrounding the translation of a text into film and the reverse process: the novelisation of films. Through three sets of case studies, the contributors examine the key debates surrounding adaptations: whether screen versions of literary classics can be faithful to the text; if something as encapsulated as Jane Austen's irony can even be captured on film; whether costume dramas always of their own time; and do adaptations remake their parent text to reflect contemporary ideas and concerns. Tracing the complex alterations which texts experience between different media, Adaptations is a unique exploration of the relationship between text and film.

Steinbeck, 1998
World War II on the Big Screen Doris Milberg, 2010-03-10
 World War II has been an endlessly fertile film subject since the late 1930s, even before the United States entered combat. This sweeping study of Hollywood's depictions of the war and of the motion picture industry during wartime describes more than 450 films in roughly chronological order while providing a historical perspective on the times and the events depicted Included are such pictures as Casablanca The Battle of Midway Der Fuhrer s Face and Letters from Iwo Jima Alastair Sim Mark Simpson,2011-10-24 Alastair Sim was an enigmatic character both on and off the screen His idiosyncratic style of acting in films such as The Belles of St Trinian s endeared him to a cinema going audience desperate to escape the day to day dreariness of an invasive bureaucratic post war Britain In private he was a curiously contradictory character prejudiced and yet tolerant thoughtful but sometimes inconsiderate To examine the life of this extraordinary man this biography contains original contributions from around thirty actors and actresses including Sir Ian McKellen and Ronnie Corbett It is supported by extensive research including interviews with the playwright Christopher Fry the television producer John Howard Davies and actors who appeared on stage with Alastair as far back as the 1940s This book also explores Alastair s life outside of films including his marriage to Naomi Sim whom he first met when she was twelve his career as an elocution teacher his extensive work on stage including his theatrical endeavours with James Bridie his championship of youth and his stalwart refusal to sign autographs Alastair Sim offers a rare and fascinating insight into the life of one of Britain s most respected and best loved actors Simulacrum America Elisabeth Kraus,Carolyn Auer,2000 A collection of articles that analyses the role of the media in America from a deconstructionist viewpoint This collection of original essays is a response to the paradigm shift that has taken place in cultural studies in the wake of postmodernism and poststructuralism Such concepts as truth or reality have been increasingly called into question since the realization that our experience of the real is always mediated through an empire of signs as Roland Barthes put it After a predominantly optimistic evaluation of the effects of the media in the 1960s by Marshall McLuhan Hans Magnus Enzensberger and others a growing awareness of the total manipulation of society by mass media imagery has emerged The very concept of representation has become problematic witness the influential essay The Precession of Simulacra by the French sociologist Jean Baudrillard in which he defines simulation as the generation by models of a real without origin or reality a hyperreal the current boom in realityTV comes to mind In the seventeen years since the publication of Baudrillard s Simulacra and Simulation ever more sophisticated technologies based on the computer as the simulacrum machine par excellence have offered us powerful new means of manipulating data and consequently means of manipulating editing and inventing reality The aim of this study is to unmask false representations showing history personal and cultural identity especially gender and racial identities the simulacrum of speed and American reality itself to be constructs
