Scheherazade's Facade Michael M. Jones, 2012 For starters honey I don't believe in Hell that's just some old man's way of telling me reasons why I can't be me Like biology is destiny means I have to be a boy Lady Marmalade's Special Place in Hell by David Sklar There have always been stories of those willing to blur or transcend the traditional gender roles Some do it out of necessity others are merely embracing their true selves Sometimes it's for fun other times survival Every culture has their gender benders their cross dressers their rule breakers From Bugs Bunny to Mulan Alanna of Trebond to Klinger our folk heroes and cultural icons push boundaries and challenge expectations In Scheherazade's Faade twelve of today's most intriguing authors spin tales of magic mystery self discovery and adventure each with a twist In these pages you'll find shape shifting dragons triumphant drag queens tragic selkies lost princes and would be warriors You'll find star crossed lovers and mysterious travelers cross dressers and gender bending heroes of all sorts Featuring all new fantasy and urban fantasy from Tanith Lee Sarah Rees Brennan Tiffany Trent Aliette de Bodard Alma Alexander David Sklar Melissa Mead C S MacCath Paolo Chikiamco Sunny Moraine Lyn C A Gardner and Shanna Germain Pathologies of Love in Classical Literature Dimitrios Kanellakis, 2021-08-02 Do you believe in love at first sight The Greeks and the Romans certainly did But far from enjoying this romantic moment carefree they saw it as a cruel experience and an infection Then what are the symptoms of falling in love Are there any remedies Any form of immunity This book explores the conception of love er's as a physical emotional and mental disease a social ethical disorder and a literary unorthodoxy in Greek and Latin literature Through illustrative case studies the contributors to this volume examine two distinct yet historically and poetically interrelated traditions of pathological love lovesickness as similar to disease and deviant sexuality described in nosologic terms The chapters represent a wide range of genres lyric poetry philosophy oratory comedy tragedy elegy satire novel and of course medical literature and a fascinating synthesis of methodologies and approaches including textual criticism comparative philology narratology performance theory and social history The book closes with an anthology of Greek and Latin passages on pathological er's While primarily aimed at an academic readership the book is accessible to anyone interested in Classics and or the theme of love Oaths and Vows Adam B. Mail and Female Sara H. Lindheim, 2003-12-01 In the Heroides the Roman poet Ovid wittily plucks fifteen abandoned heroines from ancient myth and literature and creates the fiction that each woman writes a letter to the hero who left her behind But in giving voice to these heroines is Ovid writing like a woman or writing Woman like a man Using feminist and psychoanalytic approaches to examine the female voice in the Heroides Sara H Lindheim closely reads these fictive letters in which the women seemingly tell their own stories She points out that in Ovid's verse epistles all the women represent themselves in a strikingly similar and disjointed fashion Lindheim turns to Lacanian theory of desire to explain these curious and hauntingly repetitive representations of the heroines in the female voice Lindheim's approach illuminates what these poems reveal about both masculine and feminine constructions of the feminine Welcome to Painterland Anastasia

Aukeman, 2016-08-09 The Rat Bastard Protective Association was an inflammatory close knit community of artists who lived and worked in a building they dubbed Painterland in the Fillmore neighborhood of midcentury San Francisco The artists who counted themselves among the Rat Bastards which included Joan Brown Bruce Conner Jay DeFeo Wally Hedrick Michael McClure and Manuel Neri exhibited a unique fusion of radicalism provocation and community Geographically isolated from a viable art market and refusing to conform to institutional expectations they animated broader social and artistic discussions through their work and became a transformative part of American culture over time Anastasia Aukeman presents new and little known archival material in this authorized account of these artists and their circle a colorful cultural milieu that intersected with the broader Beat scene Recovering the Word Brian Swann, Arnold Krupat, 1987-01-01 These essays by linguists folklorists anthropologists literary theorists and poets bring to a new level of sophistication the structural analysis of Native American literary expression Their common concern is for the appreciation and elucidation of Native American song and story and for a historical philosophical psychoanalytic and linguistic kind of commentary The essays address the overlapping issues of presentation and interpretation of Native American literature How to present in writing an art that is primarily oral dramatic and performative How to interpret that art both in its traditional forms and in its later written forms ISBN 0 520 05790 2 60 00

Chaucer's Miller's, Reeve's, and Cook's Tales David Biggs, 1997-01-01 An annotated bibliography describing editing and critical works on three of Chaucer's tales The authors make extensive use of the standard bibliographies of English literature medieval studies and Chaucerian studies Everyday Writing Center Anne Ellen

Geller, Michele Eodice, Frankie Condon, Meg Carroll, Elizabeth H. Boquet, 2007-04-01 The Everyday Writing Center challenges some of the most comfortable traditions in its field and it does so with a commitment and persuasiveness that one seldom sees in scholarly discussion The book at its core is an argument for a new writing center consciousness one that makes the most of the writing center's unique and uniquely fluid identity Writing center specialists live with a liminality that has been acknowledged but not fully explored in the literature Their disciplinary identity is with the English department but their mission is cross disciplinary their research is pedagogical but they often report to central administration Their education is in humanities but their administrative role demands constant number crunching This fluid identity explains why Trickster an icon of spontaneity shape shifting and the creative potential of chaos has come to be a favorite cultural figure for the authors of this book Adapting Lewis Hyde and others these authors use Trickster to develop a theme of ordinary disruptions the everyday as a source of provocative learning moments that can liberate both student writers and writing center staff At the same time the authors parlay Etienne Wenger s concept of community of practice into an ethos for a dynamic learner centered pedagogy that is especially well suited to the peculiar teaching situation of the writing center Through Trickster they question not only accepted approaches to writing center pedagogy but conventional approaches to race time leadership and collaboration as well They encourage their field to exploit the creative potential in ordinary events that are normally seen as disruptive or defeating and they challenge traditions in the field that tend to isolate a writing center director from the department and campus Yet all is not random for the authors anchor this high risk high yield approach in their commitment to a version of Wenger s community of practice Conceiving of themselves their colleagues student writers and student tutors as co learners engaged together in a dynamic life of learning the authors find a way to ground the excess and randomness of the everyday while advancing an ethic of mutual respect and self challenge Committed to testing a region beyond the edge of convention the authors of The Everyday Writing Center constantly push themselves and their field toward deeper more significant research and more reflective dynamic teaching TLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1993
