Linguistics and the Teaching of Reading Carl A. Lefevre, 1964 Teaching and Researching Reading William Grabe, Fredricka L. Stoller, 2002 Written for language professionals who have a special interest in reading this volume helps teachers understand the complex nature of reading and provides basic research inquiry to their expertise as teachers

Critical Reading in Language Education C. Wallace, 2003-11-25 Addressed to researchers in Applied Linguistics and to professional teachers working in or studying teaching and learning processes in multilingual classrooms Critical Reading in Language Education offers a distinctive contribution to the question of how foreign language learners can be helped to acquire effective literacy in English At the heart of the book is first hand classroom research by the author as both teacher and researcher demonstrating an innovative research methodology and empirical evidence to support a critical reading pedagogy

What's Different about Teaching Reading to Students Learning English? Dorothy Kauffman, Center for Applied Linguistics, 2007 Whats Different About Teaching Reading to Students Learning English is revised for 2007 and designed to provide teacher trainers with a curriculum that will guide the professional development of classroom and ESL teachers who teach reading in classes where some or all of the students are English language learners

Let's Read Leonard Bloomfield, Clarence Lewis Barnhart, 1961 Let's Read is a simple and systematic way to teach basic reading Developed by noted linguist Leonard Bloomfield the book is based on the alphabetic spelling patterns of English Bloomfield offered an antidote to the idea that English is a difficult language to learn to read by teaching the learner to decode the phonemic sound letter correlations of the language in a sequential logical progression of lessons based on its spelling patterns The learner is first introduced to the most consistent alphabetic vocabulary and then to increasingly less alphabetic and less frequent spelling patterns within a vocabulary of about 5 000 words
