Empty Contract Promises Will Be Without Guarantee In Heaven Michael Meade, Skills of the Unskilled Jacqueline Hagan, Ruben Hernandez-Leon, Jean-Luc Demonsant, 2015-03-17 Most labor and migration studies classify migrants with limited formal education or credentials as unskilled. Despite the value of their work experiences and the substantial technical and interpersonal skills developed throughout their lives, their labor market contributions are often overlooked and their mobility pathways poorly understood. Skills of the Unskilled reports the findings of a five year study that draws on binational research including interviews with 320 Mexican migrants and return migrants in North Carolina and Guanajuato, Mexico. The authors uncover their lifelong human capital and identify mobility pathways associated with the acquisition and transfer of skills across the migratory circuit including reskilling, occupational mobility, job jumping and entrepreneurship.
