Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew Levering, 2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God's faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God's new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way Unofficial Guide

Moore, 2019-10-07 The story of the twentieth century Liturgical Movement is more than anything else about the rediscovery and renewed understanding of the fundamental reality of the Paschal Mystery and of the Paschal identity of the Church This identity is expressed and celebrated whenever the Body of Christ every member welcomes new members in the waters of baptism and feasts with them in the Eucharist especially as these are celebrated during Holy Week This book explores this rediscovery first in the Roman Catholic Church and then in the Episcopal Church and other Churches of the Anglican Communion and looks in particular at how both grassroots and official work played a role in renewing and restoring the liturgical celebrations of Holy Week

Making Market Women Jill DeTemple, 2020-03-30 Making Market Women tells of the initial success and failure of a liberationist Catholic women s cooperative in central Ecuador Jill DeTemple argues that when gender and religious identities are capitalized they are made vulnerable Using archival and ethnographic methods she shares the story of the women involved in the cooperative producing cheese and knitted goods for local markets and places their stories in the larger context of both the cooperative and the community DeTemple explores the impact of gender roles the perception of women the growing middle class and the changing mode of Catholicism in their community Although the initial success of the cooperative may have been due to the group s cohesion and Catholic identity the ultimate failure of the enterprise left many women less secure in these ties They keep their Catholic identity but blame the institutional church in some ways for the failure and are less confident in their ability as women to compete successfully in market economies Because DeTemple examines not only the effects of gender and religion on development but also the effects of development successful or unsuccessful on the identities of those involved this book will interest scholars of international development religious studies Latin American studies anthropology and women s studies
