Daniel M. Harrison

Home Of The Blues 35 Years Of The Double Door Inn:

Home of the Blues Debby Wallace, Daniel Coston, 2009 This is the story of a small music venue in Charlotte NC that has presented a large number of famous musicians on their stage Willie Dixon Delbert McClinton Eric Clapton and many others have performed on the stage located in the old house that dates from 1911 In the House of Rising Sounds Stephen Copeland, 2023-05-15 Ancient Celts saw thin places where heaven and earth came strangely close to touching Stephen Copeland experienced something similar when his mentor took him to the Double Door Inn an historic hole in the wall blues venue in Charlotte North Carolina This unassuming place invited Copeland further into a spiritual journey that calls out to each of us to open our senses and tune our ears to thin places all around to become aware of sacred spaces in everyday places When Copeland learned the half century old Double Door Inn would be tragically closing he made the old white house of sound his home during its final year What do thin places teach us about ourselves What do they teach us about reality itself And what do we do when they re gone Copeland s soul searching journey with the Double Door as his guide will help readers become more present and attentive to the thinness of reality as we walk with our feet on the ground and our soul in the stars
