From 110 Degrees in the Shade to 10 Degrees Below Zero in the Sun Shakuntala Rajagopal,2019-04-09 My memoir named Transplanted from 110 F in the Shade to 10 F in the Sun recounts my experiences as a young doctor of 23 years old who left the South Indian tropical town Thiruvananthapuram and got dropped into a ten degrees frigid Chicago winter forty eight hours later Despite the strange foods I had to adjust to the strange clothes that I needed to survive the cold and even the strangeness of the English language which I had hitherto believed I was well versed in I was able to mold my life and likes and establish myself as a successful pathologist a dedicated wife strong yet kind and loving mother and grandmother and now a Matriarch to an extended family of fifty two in Chicagoland I can do it attitude an open mind and willingness to grow and the vigor with which I faced my challenges made me successful in accepting and assimilating the American heritage for my own How I contributed to the melting pot of America while becoming part of it is itself a story worth reading Anybody displaced from a place of comfort whether 100 miles or 10 000 miles anyone seeking guidance to overcome adversities and anyone interested in the Immigrant story will find my book helpful to survive adversity and prosper in a strange land or a strange town

Writing in-Between Nandita Dinesh,2023-11-14 Writing in Between lies at intersections between theory and praxis between fiction and non fiction between author and reader between the personal and the political Beginning with a conceptual glossary that prepares readers for their journey through the book Dinesh offers two central texts to invite readers to become co creators The first F for ____ is written as an academic novella and culminates with an interactive section that is composed of guided invitations for the reader co creator The second text July's takes the form of a dramatic memoir and intersperses invitations for readers co creators between each of its chapters Dinesh brings these threads together in an entirely interactive concluding chapter where her hopes for collaborative meaning making take centre stage In all of its unique invitations to engage Dinesh's readers co creators can either choose to craft their creations in personal notebooks or blank spaces in this work's physical copy or to engage more publicly via virtual forums that can be accessed via QR codes and accompanying links that are scattered throughout the book Guided by questions about writing can do questions that have shaped Dinesh's work as an artist scholar and educator for almost two decades Writing in Between embodies one central tenet that the significance of performative writing might be most powerfully experienced through a collaborative process of meaning making between a text's author and its readers turned co creators
