Homemade Fabric Softener Dallas Statham, 2015-12-18 Go Green Reduce Toxins and Increase The Size Of Your Wallet. There are some tasks in daily routine that seem inseparable, and laundry is surely one of them. Whether you like doing laundry or not, you have to do it. For most people, it sits on top of their to-do list for every weekend. Laundry as a process can be dated back to historic times, though forms and ways of doing it have changed. Introduction of machines for laundry completely revolutionized the process and made it faster and easier. With the consumer market developing, new and new products are entering the market, and the laundry department is not untouched by these introductions. A visit to the laundry section of any supermarket is sufficient to reveal how companies are trying to compete and attract more consumers towards their products. From varieties of laundry soaps to fabric conditioners, there are so many products that should be a part of your laundry room.
