Homiletic Moves And Structures:

Homiletic David G. Buttrick, 1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics Homiletic David Buttrick, 1987-01-01 homiletics is an odd discipline You cannot talk of sermon design without some glimmer of what sermons are made of and you cannot comprehend the internal parts of a sermon without a grasp of sermon design from back cover The Renewed Homiletic O. Wesley Allen, 2010-04-21 The major shift in the study and practice of preaching in the 1970s and 1980s labeled the New Homiletic turned toward the hearer The purpose of preaching focused less on persuasion and more on transformation less on asserting religious truths and more on offering an experience of the gospel Instead of viewing language as referential its creative evocative nature began to be emphasized Thus homiletical strategies utilizing induction celebration story narrative structures and moves replaced a deductive propositional approach to preaching Now three and a half decades after this shift began preachers recognize that the homiletical landscape has continued to evolve in ways that influence how preaching ought to be done for example the rise of postmodernity the decline of the mainline church cultural pluralism and biblical and theological illiteracy Those considered to be the pillars of the New Homiletic David Buttrick Fred Craddock Eugene Lowry Henry Mitchell and Charles Rice discuss how to change their homiletical approach for a new day Each of these distinguished scholars offers a lecture describing how his mind has changed preaches a sermon reflecting these changes and participates in a panel discussion with younger respondents Publisher description The Homiletical Question William F. Brosend II, 2017-11-09 The Homiletical Question offers preachers from beginning students to the most experienced a concise introduction to lectionary based preaching in liturgical contexts familiar to Anglicans Roman Catholics Lutherans Methodists and others The book demonstrates how by answering a single simple question each time a sermon is prepared preachers can respond fully and faithfully to the biblical text the needs and issues of the audience and the challenges of a changing world Chapters explore the practice of homiletical exegesis creation and illustration of the moves that shape the sermon crafting introductions and conclusions and preaching baptisms weddings funerals and other special occasions As Thomas G Long writes in the foreword That the homiletical question should yield answers that are beyond the reach of the preacher answers that manifest preaching as an event of surplus and abundance answers that point toward the mystery that is the Holy Spirit answers that take us to our knees in prayer before they take us into the pulpit would come as no surprise to Brosend That very mystery that very abundance is at the heart of Brosend s theology of preaching and therefore at the heart of this book Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure s Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today s preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching Christ-Centered Preaching Bryan Chapell, 2018-05-15 In this complete guide to expository preaching Bryan Chapell teaches the basics of preparation organization and delivery the trademarks of great preaching This new edition of a bestselling resource now updated and revised throughout shows how Chapell's case for expository preaching reaches twenty first century readers Effective Preaching Rev. Michael E. Connors, CSC, 2021-01-25 Effective Preaching Bringing People into an Encounter with God is a practical collection of essays featuring leading preachers homilists and homily instructors Compiled by Michael E Connors CSC the Director of the John Marten Program in Homiletics and Liturgics at the University of Notre Dame this imaginative book focuses entirely on the practical side of Catholic preaching It will provide imaginative hands on tested advice to help homilists develop preaching effectiveness using techniques that will turn satisfactory preaching into exceptional preaching This practical resource will be essential for priests permanent deacons seminarians in homiletics classes retreat leaders RCIA catechists all who preach Toward a Homiletical Theology of Promise David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2018-04-17 Promise has a long pedigree in the history of Christian understandings of the gospel This volume gathers together leading homileticians to consider the breadth of its understanding today in light of the struggle to reconcile God's grace with God's justice Assuming that promise is a core sense of the gospel how does this relate to the variety of contexts in which homiletical theology is done In this final volume in the series six homileticians from a variety of contexts and perspectives try to move specifically toward a homiletical theology of promise as a way to articulate the central theological gift and task that is preaching the gospel today Southern Baptist and Expository Preaching Brenton Cross, 2021-12-15 This project addresses the influence and role of the Southern Baptist SB expository preaching methodology by examining the role of expository preaching its innate characteristics and its espousal by SB pastors and theologians in the twentieth century for influencing personal and social values and politics in the twenty first century

When God Speaks through Change Craig A. Satterlee, 2005-03-01 At times a congregational transition looms so large in a sermon that it becomes the lens through which scripture is interpreted the congregation is addressed the preacher is heard and God is experienced Homiletics professor and parish pastor Craig Satterlee reflects in this accessible provocative volume about on how to integrate such significant events in a congregation's life into the preaching ministry of the church Rather than offering a blueprint for preaching however he walks along pastors seminarians and other congregational leaders who want to make sure the Gospel not an agenda is preached Illustrating Well Jim L. Wilson, 2022-05-18 Communicate well by illustrating well Preachers face all kinds of obstacles on Sunday mornings A sermon that employs interesting and appropriate illustrations can help break through barriers and convey truth in a fresh way In Illustrating Well Jim L Wilson provides pastors with the tools to effectively use sermon illustrations to help them communicate the Bible's teachings To reach the hearts and minds of their congregations preachers must do more than explain the truth they must demonstrate how the truth relates to real life Every sermon should be theologically rich and thoroughly biblical but a good illustration can take what might be an abstract concept and turn it into a concrete reality for the listener In Illustrating Well preachers will discover what makes for a compelling illustration as well as the benefits and potential pitfalls of particular types of illustrations

The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson,2010-09-01 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two

Martin Luther King in the African American Preaching Tradition Valentino Lassiter,2010-06-01 Valentino Lassiter has cast spiritual breads upon the waters with this compelling comparison of the historic tradition of African American preaching and the overwhelming spiritual preaching of Martin Luther King Jr Martin Luther King in the African American Preaching Tradition details preaching by slave preachers to present day preachers More importantly it shows how King s sermon content was cut from the same loaf as those preachers who preached justice and God s assurance in the 1600s Lassiter has written a book that will be an important resource for pastors seminarians and those who are interested in the never ending fascination with dynamic African American preaching

The Four Codes of Preaching John S. McClure,2003-01-01 The Four Codes of Preaching John McClure s first book length treatment of homiletical theory is a sophisticated and at times controversial contribution to the field of homiletics

Fulfilled in Our Hearing Guerric DeBona,2005 What can today s preacher learn from past practices What needs to be adapted so that the preacher can be an authentic prophetic voice for today Father Guerric DeBona mines the treasures of the Christian homiletic tradition and confronts the challenges of modern technology multiculturalism and feminism to open a discussion about how the preacher can effectively reach the assembly in today s postmodern media saturated culture Fulfilled in Our Hearing is certain to become the standard text in homiletics courses for ordained and lay preachers alike

BOOK JACKET

Stadelmann Christoph Stenschke Stephen Travis Paul Weston and Stephen Wright Homiletical Handbook Donald L. Hamilton, 1992-10-01 Homiletical Handbook is a primer for those who are called to preach It is intentionally simple in its explanation of the homiletical task and straightforward in getting to the point It is solid in its theology and biblical in its approach

Arts and Preaching Sunggu A. Yang, 2021-09-03 In our highly sensory and interactive age how might drawing upon various arts music film architecture dramatic performance painting fashion and more expand the aesthetic experience and mode of preaching This book presents a critical practical answer to the question As our society becomes more visually oriented art seeking and body positive the practice of preaching is likewise challenged to demonstrate the mind body word visual and artistic proclamation of the Sacred after all isn't the writing of the Bible itself highly art full and aesthetic In this book Sunggu A Yang a seasoned preacher and experienced teacher of preaching encourages preachers to utilize their unique artistic talents as critical sources of theological and homiletical imagination and as hermeneutical perspectival tools to aid their rigorous exegetical process of interpreting Scripture eventually toward artistic holistic sermon composition and delivery A sample syllabus included in the appendix will greatly assist any preaching instructor who wants to offer a creative course on arts and preaching

Preaching and the Human Condition Prof O. Wesley Allen JR., 2016-10-18 In the wake of Enlightenment emphasis on the individual and confidence in human progress ability sermons often suffer from a lack of adequate analysis and presentation of the human condition The result is that preachers either 1 intentionally or unintentionally offer self help type messages or 2 fail to help hearers experience the breadth of the good news of Jesus Christ because the bad news of the world is not presented with weight In this work the author proposes to use the pericope in which Jesus is asked about the greatest commandment Mk 12 28 31 as a lens for preachers exploring the human condition cumulatively from three different perspectives across the course of their preaching week in and week out Love God suggests a perspective in which the human condition is seen in relation to a broken relationship between humanity and God vertical Love neighbor suggests a perspective in which the broken relationship is between humans and others horizontal And as yourself suggests a brokenness in relationship to one's self inner While different theological schools have emphasized these perspectives differently as the starting points for their anthropology views of sin etc all schools include all three perspectives In individual chapters the author will unpack these three perspectives theologically move to suggest practical homiletical approaches to preaching in relation to each perspective and provide a sample sermon dealing with that perspective

Remembering Why We Preach Karla J. Bellinger, Michael E. Connors CSC, 2022-11-25 If your heart is on fire with God's love your preaching will help listeners encounter Christ and deepen their spiritual lives And that should be the ultimate goal of a homily Remembering Why We Preach is a retreat that will help you revive your creative energy and spiritual focus Karla Bellinger executive director of the Institute for Homiletics at the University of Dallas and Fr Michael Connors CSC director of the John S Marten Program in Homiletics and Liturgics at the University of Notre Dame lead you through an eight part process of spiritual renewal and skill development that will nourish and enrich you and your preaching for years to come. Whether you are recently ordained or have been preaching for decades, you will explore the spiritual, pastoral, and communal aspects of preaching which lies at the heart of the Church's work of making disciples.
