Strommen, Karen Jones, Dave Rahn, 2011-05-03 A first of its kind study of Protestant youth ministers reveals the hopes frustrations and effectiveness of today's youth workers Of the 7 000 youth workers assembled in 1996 under Atlanta's Georgia Dome a sample of 2 130 full time youth ministers from dozens of Protestant denominations and parachurch organizations answered a battery of exhaustive deliberate questions covering What they liked best about youth ministry What particularly pleased them in their work with youth What they found most encouraging or discouraging Their biggest obstacle to an effective youth ministry Their biggest concern in youth ministry Their answers revealed a dedicated group of professionals concerned about the students in their ministries but troubled with a variety of perplexing issues And their answers form the backbone of Youth Ministry That Transforms a comprehensive analysis of this groundbreaking study funded by the Lilly Endowment focusing on the hopes frustrations and effectiveness of today's youth workers Spearheaded by Merton Strommen one of America's most exemplary and influential thinkers and authors in youth and family ministry the research writing team is joined by Karen E Jones and Dave Rahn of Huntington Indiana College's Link Institute for Faithful and Effective Youth Ministry and acknowledged leader in the task of undergirding youth ministry with a research base These three deliver thorough analysis and sound interpretation regarding the state of youth ministry at the dawn of the 21st century Youth Ministry That Transforms belongs on the desks and in the classrooms of all who are concerned with this developing profession including denominational and parachurch leadership professors youth ministry students and thoughtful youth workers themselves It is also an insightful resource for any who want to understand youth ministers and their profession senior pastors executive pastors and other individuals and committees charged with hiring and supervising youth workers      Youth Ministry 3.0 Mark Oestreicher, 2008-11-04 Over the past several decades there have been three significant shifts in youth culture each new shift brought with it different values and priorities in the lives of teens Youth ministries adapted and responded to the first two shifts but we're missing the boat on the third The result Youth ministry isn't addressing the realities and needs of today's youth culture After nearly three decades in youth ministry Mark Oestreicher has lived through a lot of those shifts himself In recent years he's found himself wondering what needs to change especially since so much of what we're doing in youth ministry today is not working In Youth Ministry 3.0 youth workers will explore along with Marko and the voices of other youth workers why we need change in youth ministry from a ministry moving away from a dependence on programs to one that is focused on communion and mission They'll get a quick history of youth ministry over the last fifty years And they'll
