Galassi,2017-07-05 Despite calls for a more preventive and developmental mode of functioning school counseling has tended to be driven by a reactive and sometimes crisis orientation Like social workers and school counseling and clinical psychologists school counselors typically function to alleviate deficits often in a small percentage of the students they serve Although this orientation has served school counselors well in many instances it is not empowering it does not serve all students and it does not replace those deficits with the type of positive characteristics and abilities that schools are attempting to develop This is the first book to provide a comprehensive look at the theory research and intervention strategies that comprise a strengths based developmental approach to school counseling In keeping with ASCA recommendations the Strengths Based School Counseling SBSC framework discusses academic personal social and career development outcomes for all students at the elementary middle and secondary school levels Other key features include integrative framework SBSC builds upon contemporary research from a variety of areas school counseling developmental psychology school psychology education positive psychology resiliency and social work evidence based interventions detailed examples of successful evidence based interventions and environments are presented at the elementary middle and high school levels for each major developmental area academic personal social and career identified in ASCA s National Model readability and pedagogy beautifully written the text includes lists of key points tables of student strengths illustrative examples and student exercises ERS Spectrum ,2001

High Stakes Education Pauline Lipman,2004 What are the implications of education accountability reforms particularly in urban schools in a political economic and cultural context of intensifying globalization and increasing social inequality and marginalization along lines of race and class High Stakes Education provides a cogent and critical examination of such questions investigating concretely the political economy of neoliberal education reforms and the cultural politics of race Using Chicago a standard bearer for high stakes testing and centralized regulation of schools as a case study noted scholar Pauline Lipman argues there is a strategic relationship between these policies and processes of economic restructuring racialized social control and globalization

Assessment in Special and Remedial Education John Salvia,James E. Ysseldyke,1978

Education as Enforcement Kenneth Saltman,David A. Gabbard,2010-09-13 The first volume to focus on the intersections of militarization corporations and education Education as Enforcement exposed the many ways schooling has become the means through which the expansion of global corporate power are enforced Since publication of the first edition these trends have increased to disturbing levels as a result of the extensive militarization of civil society the implosion of the neoconservative movement and the financial meltdown that radically called into question the basic assumptions undergirding neoliberal ideology An understanding of the enforcement of these corporate economic imperatives remains imperative to a critical discussion of related militarized trends in schools whether through accountability and standards school security or other discipline based reforms Education as Enforcement elaborates upon the central arguments of the first edition and updates readers on how recent events have reinforced their continued original relevance In addition to substantive updates to several original chapters this second edition includes a new foreword by Henry Giroux a new introduction and four new chapters that reveal the most contemporary expressions of the militarization and corporatization of education New topics covered in this collection include zero tolerance foreign and second language instruction in the post 9 11 context the rise of single sex classrooms and the intersection of the militarization and corporatization of schools under the Obama administration Application for grant formula grants to local educational agencies-- Indian education programs. , Fundamentals of Gifted Education Carolyn M. Callahan,Holly L. Hertberg-Davis,2013 The field of gifted education is characterized by a confusing array of perspectives concerning such fundamental issues as definition philosophy curriculum social and emotional development and underserved populations The mission of this book is to provide a coherent framework that instructors and service providers can use in planning effective programs providing appropriate counseling services and evaluating programs for the gifted Most sections are organized around fundamental issues confronting the field and follow a common structure an introductory chapter that provides historical and theoretical background and organizing questions followed by several point of view chapters written by experts that provide varied perspectives on the topic at hand Distinguishing Features Comprehensive Coverage The book s forty five manageable length chapters cover the full range of topics that must be considered in planning programs and services for gifted students both within and outside of school Coherent Structure Section introductions provide background information and organizing questions to guide chapter authors who provide varying views of the issue at hand The emphasis is not on the right way or the wrong way except when clearly documented bad practice is discussed but on how best practice stems from well informed and logical decision making Decision Making Focus The book s introductory chapter addresses the need for a clearly developed and consistently applied set of values to guide decision making Likewise each section introduction includes a decision making framework regarding some aspect of educating counseling or parenting gifted students This book is appropriate for introductory level courses in gifted education or courses in program development and planning It is also suitable for school personnel responsible for making program planning decisions in the area of gifted education and for academic libraries with holdings in this area
