political biographies I have ever read Dominic Sandbrook Sunday Times Not For Turning is the first volume of Charles Moore's authorized biography of Margaret Thatcher the longest serving Prime Minister of the twentieth century and one of the most influential political figures of the postwar era Charles Moore's biography of Margaret Thatcher published after her death on 8 April 2013 immediately supercedes all earlier books written about her At the moment when she becomes a historical figure this book also makes her into a three dimensional one for the first time It gives unparalleled insight into her early life and formation especially through her extensive correspondence with her sister which Moore is the first author to draw on It recreates brilliantly the atmosphere of British politics as she was making her way and takes her up to what was arguably the zenith of her power victory in the Falklands This volume ends with the Falklands Dinner in Downing Street in November 1982 Moore is clearly an admirer of his subject but he does not shy away from criticising her or identifying weaknesses and mistakes where he feels it is justified Based on unrestricted access to all Lady Thatcher's papers unpublished interviews with her and all her major colleagues this is the indispensable fully rounded portrait of a towering figure of our times From the Battlefield to the Big Screen Melody Foreman, 2022-11-04 Look closely behind the lives of the stars who appeared in a host of legendary war films and discover how memories of their real life experiences in the armed forces were haunted with heartbreak and yet filled with extraordinary heroism Just what did America's most decorated soldier Audie Murphy go through in battle which led him to star as himself in the classic war film To Hell and Back When the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor in December 1941 Murphy joined the US Army aged just 17 He went on to fight at Anzio the Colmar Pocket and Nuremberg And for single handedly holding off an enemy attack he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor But Murphy's military and celebrity stardom did little to extinguish the pain of his private battle to fit in to a new post war world he perceived as disappointing shallow and unfulfilling Tormented by PTSD Murphy was a man unable to escape from his past Only the great director and decorated wartime documentary maker John Huston gained Murphy's true respect When war broke out on 3 September 1939 a number of British stars including Laurence Olivier his future wife Vivien Leigh and David Niven were in the United States under contract to the Hollywood Studios Keen not to shirk their duties at home and against advice from the British Consul they made their way back to Blighty Olivier joined the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm as a pilot Then with Churchill's approval he directed and starred in powerful propaganda films including Shakespeare's Henry V In 1943 the beautiful Vivien Leigh ruined her health by enduring the brutalities of the North African climate to entertain the troops in the desert Meantime Dirk Bogarde was a British Army intelligence officer seconded to the pioneering RAF Medmenham where he studied aerial photographs and pinpointed enemy targets for Bomber Command As Lieutenant van den Bogaerde he was posted to France just after D Day He went on to star in many leading war films such as Appointment in London 1953 and King and Country 1964 Years later in 1991 Sir Dirk Bogarde was interviewed by the author of this book He had witnessed the horrors of Belsen in April 1945 and said it changed his attitude to life forever In this book the author

Why America Lost the War on Poverty--And How to Win It Frank Stricker,2011-02-01 In a provocative assessment of American poverty and policy from 1950 to the present Frank Stricker examines an era that has seen serious discussion about the causes of poverty and unemployment Analyzing the War on Poverty theories of the culture of poverty and the underclass the effects of Reaganomics and the 1996 welfare reform Stricker demonstrates that most antipoverty approaches are futile without the presence or creation of good jobs Stricker notes that since the 1970s U S poverty levels have remained at or above 11% despite training programs and periods of economic growth The creation of jobs has continued to lag behind the need for them Stricker argues that a serious public debate is needed about the job situation social programs must be redesigned a national health care program must be developed and economic inequality must be addressed He urges all sides to be honest if we don't want to eliminate poverty then we should say so But if we do want to reduce poverty significantly he says we must expand decent jobs and government income programs redirecting national resources away from the rich and toward those with low incomes

Why America Lost the War on Poverty And How to Win It is sure to prompt much needed debate on how to move forward
