Designing User Interfaces for Hypermedia

Wolfgang Schuler,Jörg Hannemann,Norbert Streitz,2013-11-11 One can observe that a wide range of human activities involves various forms of design Especially if the goal implies the creation of an artifact design is at the very center of these activities It is the general understanding in the public to place design especially in the context of for example fashion furniture household items cars and architecture or in a more general way at the intersection of art and engineering Of course in the field of information technology developers of software and hardware are called system designers Design can be identified and considered in the context of many activities related to publishing creating a product ad in a magazine designing the layout of a newspaper authoring a book Summarizing these examples as creating documents these are activities where two challenges with respect to design have to be met Designing the content its structure and its relationship to the existing knowledge of potential readers is one while the other refers to the rhetorical aspects including designing the presentation of the material in order to communicate the content Publishing is communicating knowledge Hiram B.

Field of Fire Jeff Connor, 2012-05-03 In 1987 a British based team competed in the Tour de France for the first time in almost two decades The ANC Halfords squad were decimated by the punishing pace the manager walked out during one of the Alpine stages five of the nine riders and some of the staff never made it to Paris and most of the personnel went unpaid ANC were the definitive innocents abroad and it became one of the great sporting misadventures of all time If that wasn't bad enough for ANC a tabloid journalist travelled with them for the full three weeks Jeff Connor's account of the Tour Wide Eyed and Legless became a classic and was later voted number one in Cycle Sport's list of the best cycling books of all time Now 25 years on Connor revisits the scene of the crime tracks down the participants and discovers exactly how their fortunes were changed some irrevocably by the 87 Tour Field of Fire tells a moving tale of sporting disillusionment heartbreak anger and humour

The Man From Casta PAOLO DORSA, 2011-11-17 Salim is the only son of a family of Moroccan immigrants living on the French island of Corsica His desire to stand up and rebel against the poverty and ignorance of his peers leads him to strive for excellence in every aspect of his life He lives in Casta a small village in the north of the island where everybody's life is constantly under scrutiny His problems with the locals start during his school days when he has to defend himself against bullying and false accusations It is also the time when he finds love for his best friend Maria the beautiful daughter of a supporter of the Corsican independence movement When Bernard Salim's friend mentor and employer dies in a road incident too easily dismissed as an accident by the racist Head of the local police his life changes drastically He doesn't believe in the accidental death of his friend and starts his own personal investigation When the feelings Bernard had for Salim are reflected in his will he has to face not only prejudice racism and envy but most of all a parallel world of crime drugs and violence present on the island His new status also makes him question the strength of his love for Maria and to reconsider his feelings for Sylvie Bernard's lover This is a story about intrigue crime and passion set against the stunning background of the Island of Corsica

Fleet Owner, 1990-07 To Dakar and Back Lawrence Hacking, 2008-04-01 In this adventure motorsports memoir the first Canadian motorcycle racer to complete the infamous Paris Dakar Rally recounts his incredible journey The Paris Dakar Rally is without question the most arduous and notorious off road motorsports event on the planet Since its inception in 1979 it has attracted more than three thousand adventurers from all walks of life The men and women who have taken up the Dakar challenge have at least one thing in common a desire to measure themselves against the desolate sands of the Sahara In 2001 Canadian adventure racer Lawrence Hacking entered what would be the last rally on the iconic route from Paris to Dakar In To Dakar and Back Hacking in collaboration with motorsport journalist Wil De Clercq recounts the three weeks of blood sweat and tears that took him on that ten thousand kilometer journey in the heat of competition from the glitzy streets of the French capital through the hinterland of North Western Africa and the triumph of self realization

Surrender Nicholas Comfort, 2012-02-23 British industry at the start of the New Elizabethan Age was a world leader The first British jet airliner was taking to the skies the first nuclear power station was under construction at Calder Hall and British firms were pioneering the computer Our shipyards reigned almost supreme and from Britain's factories came cars lorries buses heavy machinery aircraft and locomotives exported all over the world Sixty years on many of these industries and millions of jobs have disappeared while competitors have flourished Much of what remains is under foreign ownership Britain has lost many export markets and essential goods have to be imported How did all this happen Britain's loss of competitiveness has traditionally been blamed on outdated working practices failure to invest and modernise poor management bloody minded unions the loss of Empire and the ability of post war Germany and Japan to rebuild from scratch All this is true but the picture is far more complex The role of Whitehall and successive governments Britain's relationship with Europe corporate greed misjudgement and even suicide and sheer bad luck all play a part In Surrender Nicholas Comfort revisits the past six decades and identifies some of the factors behind the greatest mass extinction since the dinosaurs
