passionate pursuit of self education hoping to achieve a place among the literary elite His principal motivation is his love for Ruth Morse Because Eden is a rough uneducated sailor from a working class background 4 and the Morses are a bourgeois family a union between them would be impossible unless and until he reached their level of wealth and refinement Over a period of two years Eden promises Ruth that success will come but just before it does Ruth loses her patience and rejects him in a letter saying if only you had settled down and attempted to make something of yourself By the time Eden attains the favour of the publishers and the bourgeoisie who had shunned him he has already developed a grudge against them and become jaded by toil and unrequited love Instead of enjoying his success he retreats into a quiet indifference interrupted only to rail mentally against the genteelness of bourgeois society or to donate his new wealth to working class friends and family He felt that people did not value him for himself or for his work but only for his fame Martin Eden Jack
