At Home with the Holocaust Lucas F. W. Wilson, 2025-03-11 At Home with the Holocaust examines the relationship between intergenerational trauma and domestic space focusing on how Holocaust survivors homes became extensions of their traumatized psyches that their children inhabited Analyzing second and third generation Holocaust literature such as Art Spiegelman's Maus Jonathan Safran Foer's Everything Is Illuminated Sonia Pircer's The Holocaust Kid and Elizabeth Rosner's The Speed of Light as well as oral histories of children of survivors Lucas F W Wilson's study reveals how the material conditions of survivor family homes along with household practices and belongings rendered these homes as spaces of traumatic transference As survivors traumas became imbued in the very space of the domestic their homes functioned as material archives of their Holocaust pasts creating environments that not uncommonly second handedly wounded their children As survivor family homes were imaginatively transformed by survivors children into the sites of their parents traumas like concentration camps and ghettos their homes catalyzed the transmission of these traumas

The Girls Who Stepped Out of Line Maj. Gen. Mari K. Army Major General Mari K Eder provides a fresh perspective on the integral roles that women played during WWII Liane B Russell fled Austria with nothing and later became a renowned U S scientist whose research on the effects of radiation on embryos made a difference to thousands of lives Gena Turgel was a prisoner who worked in the hospital at Bergen Belsen and cared for the young Anne Frank who was dying of typhus Gena survived and went on to write a memoir and spent her life educating children about the Holocaust Ida and Louise Cook were British sisters who repeatedly smuggled out jewelry and furs and served as sponsors for refugees and they also established temporary housing for immigrant families in London Whether you re a history enthusiast a lover of powerful women s stories or an avid reader of WWII nonfiction The Girls Who Stepped Out of Line is a must read and a poignant testament to the forgotten women who stepped up when the world needed them most

Stealth Altruism Arthur B. Shostak, 2017-07-12 Though it has been nearly seventy years since the Holocaust the human capacity for evil displayed by its perpetrators is still shocking and haunting But the story of the Nazi attempt to annihilate European Jewry is not all we should remember Stealth Altruism tells of secret non militant high risk efforts by Carers those victims who tried to reduce suffering and improve everyone s chances of survival Their empowering acts of altruism remind us of our inherent longing to do good even in situations of extraordinary brutality Arthur B Shostak explores forbidden acts of kindness such as sharing scarce clothing and food rations holding up weakened fellow prisoners during roll call secretly replacing an ailing friend in an exhausting work detail and much more He explores the motivation behind this dangerous behavior how it differed when in or out of sight who provided or undermined forbidden care the differing experiences of men and women how and why gentiles provided aid and most importantly how might the costly obscurity of stealth altruism soon be corrected To date memorialization has emphasized what was done to victims and sidelined what victims tried to do for one another Carers provide an inspiring model and their perilous efforts should be recognized and taught alongside the horrors of the Holocaust Humanity needs such inspiration

Performance: Media and technology Philip Auslander, 2003 This collection reflects not only the multidisciplinary nature of current thinking about performance but also the complex and contested nature of the concept itself

Masters of Death Richard Rhodes, 2007-12-18 In Masters of Death Pulitzer Prize winning author Rhodes gives full weight for the first time to the Einsatzgruppen s role in the Holocaust These special task forces organized by Heinrich Himmler to follow the German army as it advanced into eastern Poland and Russia were the agents of the first phase of the Final Solution They murdered more than 1.5 million men women and children between 1941 and 1943 often by shooting them into killing pits as at Babi Yar These massive crimes have been generally overlooked or underestimated by Holocaust historians who have focused on the gas chambers In this painstaking account Pulitzer Prize winning author Richard Rhodes profiles the eastern campaign s architects as well as its ordinary soldiers and policemen and helps us understand how such men were conditioned to carry out mass murder Marshaling a vast array of documents and the testimony of perpetrators and survivors this book is an essential contribution to our understanding of the Holocaust and World War II Divided Lives Cynthia A. Crane, 2003-03-05 This book brings together the horrifying real life stories of women who woke up one day and were not who they thought they were The government changed and they suddenly no longer had the right kind of blood the right name the right family background the right physical features to be considered a member of society city or state These stories are from German women who were a part of a Jewish Christian mixed marriage and were subsequently persecuted under the Nuremberg laws Hitler called them mischling half breeds however they have often been passed over in studies of the Holocaust perhaps because they are often not considered real Jews But these women are still struggling with the nightmares of the Third Reich and the Holocaust the loss of family in concentration camps and with their own identity divided between their Jewish and Christian roots Often their Jewish background was revealed to them only after Hitler's laws were passed These are the narratives of eight women who remained in Germany struggling to reclaim their German heritage and their cultural and religious identity The narratives are compelling and sensitively written addressing questions of cultural and ethnic identity Bending Genre Margot Singer, Nicole Walker, 2022-12-15 Ever since the term creative nonfiction first came into widespread use memoirists and journalists essayists and fiction writers have faced off over where the border between fact and fiction lies An early and influential book on questions of form in creative nonfiction Bending Genre asks not where the boundaries between the genres should be drawn but what happens when you push the line The expanded second edition doubles the first edition with 23 new essays that broaden the exploration of hybridity structure unconventionality and resistance in creative nonfiction pushing the conversation forward in diverse and exciting ways Written for writers and students of creative writing this collection brings together perspectives from leading writers of creative nonfiction including Michael Martone Brenda Miller Ander Monson David Shields Kazim Ali and in the new edition Catina Bacote Ira Sukrungruang Ingrid Horrocks Elena Passarello and Aviya Kushner Each writer's innovative essay probes our notions of genre and investigates how creative nonfiction is shaped modeling the forms of writing being discussed Like creative nonfiction itself Bending Genre is an exciting hybrid that breaks new ground Features in the second edition Updated introduction to the new edition Expanded sections on Hybrids Structures and Unconventions A new section on Resistances 50 essays in all Jewish Resistance During the Holocaust J. Glass, 2004-07-06 It is a common belief that Jews did nothing to resist their own fate in the Holocaust However the realities of disintegrating physical and psychological conditions and the efforts of ghetto undergrounds to counter collaborationist judenrat policies and the despair could not but lead to a breakdown in spiritual life Lost Classics Michael Ondaatje, Michael Redhill, Esta Spalding, Linda Spalding, 2011-03-30 An Anchor Books Original Seventy four distinguished writers tell personal tales of books loved and lost great books overlooked under read out of print stolen scorned extinct or otherwise out of commission Compiled by the editors of Brick A Literary Magazine Lost Classics is a reader's delight an intriguing and entertaining collection of eulogies for lost books As the editors have written in a joint introduction to the book being lovers of books we've pulled a scent of these absences behind us our whole reading lives telling people about books that exist only on our own shelves or even just in our own memory Anyone who has ever been changed by a book will find kindred spirits in the pages of Lost Classics Each of the editors has contributed a lost book essay to this collection including Michael Ondaatje on Sri Lankan filmmaker Tissa Abeysekara's Bringing Tony Home a novella about a mutual era of childhood Also included are Margaret Atwood on sex and death in the scandalous Doctor Glas first published in Sweden in 1905 Russell Banks on the off beat travelogue Too Late to Turn Back by Barbara Greene the slightly ditzy cousin of Graham Bill Richardson on a children's book for adults by Russell Hoban Ronald Wright on William Golding's Pincher Martin Caryl Phillips on Michael Mac Liammoir's account of his experiences on the set of Orson Welles's Othello and much much more

The Graywolf Silver Anthology, 1999-04-01 This anthology an eclectic and entertaining mix of poetry and prose showcases some of the extraordinary writers who have helped shape a literary quarter century Their work provides clear evidence of the critical role Graywolf and other independent presses play in the otherwise increasingly homogenous publishing universe a realization made all the more remarkable when contrasted against the simple charm of Graywolf's earliest days as a letterpress publisher as described in an introductory historical essay by founder Scott Walker
