Masters Of Rome Vespasian:

Masters of Rome Robert Fabbri, 2015-03-01 Britannia 45 AD In the shadow of Stonehenge Vespasian's brother Sabinus is captured by druids. The druids want to offer a potent sacrifice to their gods not just one Roman Legate but two. They know that Vespasian will come after his brother and they plan to sacrifice the siblings on a summer's day. But to whom will they be making this sacrifice? What were the gods of this land before the Celts came? Only the druids still hold the secret and it is one of pure evil. Vespasian must strive to save his brother whilst completing the conquest of the haunted isle before he is drawn inexorably back to Rome and the heart of Imperial politics. Claudius' three freedmen remain at the locus of power. As Messalina's time as Empress comes to a bloody end the three freedmen each back a different mistress. But which woman will be victorious? And at what price for Vespasian?

Rome's Fallen Eagle Robert Fabbri, 2014-10-01 Vespasian's fourth adventure can he escape his own Emperor's wrath? Caligula has been assassinated and the Praetorian Guard have proclaimed Claudius Emperor but his position is precarious. His three freedmen Narcissus, Pallas and Callistus must find a way to manufacture a quick victory for Claudius but how? Pallas has the answer: retrieve the Eagle of the Seventeenth lost in Germania nearly 40 years before. Who but Vespasian could lead a dangerous mission into the gloomy forests of Germania? Accompanied by a small band of cavalry Vespasian and his brother try to pick up the trail of the Eagle but they are tailed by hunters who pick off men each night and leave the corpses in their path. Someone is determined to sabotage Vespasian's mission. In search of the Eagle and the truth pursued by barbarians Vespasian will battle his way to the shores of Britannia.

Aspects of Roman History 31 BC-AD 117 Richard Alston, 2013-11-07 This new edition of Aspects of Roman History 31 BC AD 117 provides an easily accessible guide to the history of the early Roman Empire. Taking the reader through the major political events of the crucial first 150 years of Roman imperial history from the Empire's foundation under Augustus to the height of its power under Trajan, the book examines the emperors and key events that shaped Rome's institutions and political form. Blending social and economic history with political history, Richard Alston's revised edition leads students through important issues, introducing sources, exploring techniques by which those sources might be read, and encouraging students to develop their historical judgement. The book includes chapters on each of the emperors in this period, exploring the successes and failures of each reign and how these shaped the empire, sections on social and economic history including the core issues of slavery, social mobility, economic development and change, gender relations, the rise of new religions, and cultural change in the Empire, an expanded timeframe providing more information on the foundation of the imperial system under Augustus and the issues relating to Augustan Rome, a glossary and further reading section broken down by chapter. This expanded and revised edition of Aspects of Roman History covering an additional 45 years of history from Actium to the death of Augustus provides an invaluable introduction to Roman Imperial history, surveying the way in which the Roman Empire changed the world and offering critical perspectives on how we might understand that transformation. It is an important resource for any student of this crucial and formative period in Roman history Rome's Lost Son Robert Fabbri, 2015-06-01 The sixth installment in Robert Fabbri's epic Vespaian series Rome AD 51 Vespaian brings Rome's greatest enemy before the Emperor After eight years of resistance the British warrior Caratacus has been caught But even Vespaian's victory cannot remove the newly made consul from Roman politics Agrippina Emperor Claudius's wife pardons Caratacus Claudius is a drunken fool and Narcissus and Pallas his freedmen are battling for control of his throne Separately they decide to send Vespaian East to Armenia to defend Rome's interests But there is more at stake than protecting a client kingdom Rumors abound that Agrippina is involved in a plot to destabilise the East Vespaian must find a way to serve two masters Narcissus is determined to ruin Agrippina Pallas to save her Meanwhile the East is in turmoil A new Jewish cult is flourishing and its adherents refuse to swear loyalty to the Emperor In Armenia Vespaian is captured Immured in the oldest city on earth how can he escape And is a Rome ruled by a woman who despises Vespaian any safer than a prison cell

Rome's Executioner Robert Fabbri, 2014-05-01 A hero is forged in battle and a legend is born in this second installment in the Vespaian series Thracia AD30 Even after four years of military service at the edge of the Roman world Vespaian cannot escape the tumultuous politics of an Empire on the brink of disintegration His patrons in Rome have charged him with the clandestine extraction of an old enemy from a fortress on the banks of the Danube before it falls to the Roman legion besieging it Vespaian's mission is the key move in a deadly struggle for the right to rule the Roman Empire The man he has been ordered to seize could be the witness that will destroy Sejanus commander of the Praetorian Guard and ruler of the Empire in all but name Before he completes his mission Vespaian will face ambush in snowbound mountains pirates on the high seas and Sejanus's spies all around him But by far the greatest danger lies at the rotten heart of the Empire at the nightmarish court of Tiberius Emperor of Rome and debauched paranoid madman A Short History of the Roman Empire to the Death of Marcus Aurelius Joseph Wells, Reginald Haynes Barrow, 1931 Under the Eagle Simon
