snapshot of the research ideas that in many cases have been deeply influenced by Professor Wirsing's work. The book consists of six sections. The first section contains personal remembrances and expressions of gratitude from friends of Professor Wirsing. The remaining five sections consist of groups of scientific papers written by colleagues and collaborators of Professor Wirsing which have been grouped and ordered according to his scientific evolution. More specifically, the papers are concerned with logical and algebraic foundations, algebraic specifications, institutions, and rewriting foundations of software engineering, service-oriented systems, and adaptive and autonomic systems.

Landscape Architecture and Digital Technologies Jillian Walliss, Heike Rahmann, 2016-02-12. Landscape Architecture and Digital Technologies explores how digital technologies are reshaping design and making in landscape architecture. While the potentials of digital technologies are well documented within landscape planning and visualisation, their application within design practice is far less understood. This book highlights the role of the digital model in encouraging a new design logic that moves from the privileging of the visual to a focus on processes of formation bridging the interface of the conceptual and material, the virtual and the physical. Drawing on interviews and projects from a range of international designers including Snøhetta, Arup, Gustafson Porter ASPECT Studios, Grant Associates, Catherine Mosbach, Philippe Rahm, PARKKIM, LAAC, and PEG office of landscape architecture, among others, the authors explore the influence of parametric modelling, scripting, real-time data simulation, prototyping, fabrication, and Building Information Modelling on the design and construction of contemporary landscapes. This engagement with practice is expanded through critical reflection from academics involved in landscape architecture programs around the world that are reshaping their research and pedagogy to reflect an expanded digital realm. Crossing critical theory, technology, and contemporary design, the book constructs a picture of an emerging twenty-first century practice of landscape architecture premised on complexity and performance. It also highlights the disciplinary demands and challenges in engaging with a rapidly evolving digital context within practice and education. The book is of immense value to professionals and researchers and is a key publication for digital landscape courses at all levels.

Introduction to Abelian Model Structures and Gorenstein Homological Dimensions Marco A. P. Bullones, 2016-08-19. Introduction to Abelian Model Structures and Gorenstein Homological Dimensions provides a starting point to study the relationship between homological and homotopical algebra, a very active branch of mathematics. The book shows how to obtain new model structures in homological algebra by constructing a pair of compatible complete cotorsion pairs related to a specific homological dimension and then applying the Hovey Correspondence to generate an abelian model structure. The first part of the book introduces the definitions and notations of the universal constructions most often used in category theory The next part presents a proof of the Eklof and Trlifaj theorem in Grothendieck categories and covers M Hovey s work that connects the theories of cotorsion pairs and model categories The final two parts study the relationship between model structures and classical and Gorenstein homological dimensions and explore special types of Grothendieck categories known as Gorenstein categories As self contained as possible this book presents new results in relative homological algebra and model category theory The author also re proves some established results using different arguments or from a pedagogical point of view In addition he proves folklore results that are difficult to locate in the literature

The UK Regional-National Economic Problem Philip McCann,2016-03-10 In recent years the United Kingdom has become a more and more divided society with inequality between the regions as marked as it has ever been In a landmark analysis of the current state of Britain s regional development Philip McCann utilises current statistics examines historical trends and makes pertinent international comparisons to assess the state of the nation The UK Regional National Economic Problem brings attention to the highly centralised top down governance structure that the UK deploys and demonstrates that it is less than ideally placed to rectify these inequalities The North South divide in the UK has never been greater and the rising inequalities are evident in almost all aspects of the economy including productivity incomes employment status and wealth Whilst the traditional economic dominance of London and its hinterland has continued along with relative resilience in the South West of England and Scotland in contrast the Midlands the North of England Northern Ireland and Wales lag behind by most measures of prosperity This inequality is greatly limiting national economic performance and the fact that Britain has a below average standard of living by European and OECD terms has been ignored The UK s economic and governance inequality is unlikely to be fundamentally rebalanced by the current governance and connectivity trends although this definitive study suggests that some areas of improvement are possible if they are well implemented This pivotal analysis is essential reading for postgraduate students in economics and urban studies as well as researchers and policy makers in local and central government
