national recognition three novels set in a small rural Iowa town The first was Gilead which took up the major American themes of race the legacy of the Civil War and the tensions between secular and religious lives Two more Gilead novels followed Home and Lila both of which display Robinson s gift for capturing the mysterious dynamics of sin and grace In Understanding Marilynne Robinson Engebretson also reviews her substantial body of non fiction which demonstrates a dazzling intellectual range from the contemporary science religion debates to Shakespeare to the fate of liberal democracy Throughout this study Engebretson makes the argument for Marilynne Robinson as an essential deeply unfashionable visionary presence within today s literary scene
