Good Uzo Aduba,2024-09-24 A powerful timely memoir of Black immigrant identity the story of an unforgettable matriarch and a unique coming of age story by Nigerian American actress Uzo Aduba The actress Uzo Aduba came of age grappling with a master juggling act as one of few Black families in their white Massachusetts suburb she and her siblings were the unexpected presence in whatever school room or sports team they joined But Aduba was also rooted by a fierce and nonnegotiable sense of belonging and extraordinary worth that stemmed from her mother's powerful vision for her children and their connection to generations of family in Nigeria The alchemy of being out of place yet driven by fearless conviction powered Aduba to success The Road Is Good is more than the journey of a young woman determined to survive young adulthood and to create a workable identity for herself It is the story of an incredible mother and a testament to matriarchal power When Aduba's mother falls ill the origin of her own power crystallizes and Aduba leaps into a caretaker role uniquely prepared by the history and tools her mother passed along to become steward of her ancestral legacy Deeply mining her family history gripping anecdotes her mother aunts and uncles shared in passing at family celebrations and her own discoveries through countless auditions in New York and her travels to Nigeria Aduba pieces together a life story imbued with guiding lessons that are both personal and profoundly universal Overcoming Rejection Tasha Brown,2013-12-18

In order to determine where the source of negative behavior comes from in our lives we must locate the root In many lives at the root of negative behavior you'll find rejection Rejection in its simplest form is defined as non acceptance This creates problems For human beings we have a strong need to belong We desire acceptance When we don't experience it it can drive us to deep extremes For example a school aged child may lack attention at home and as a result may rebel to gain attention at school An adult who may have never received healthy attention growing up as a result over achieves in areas of their lives in an attempt to gain attention One way to overcoming rejection is to know your identity There are 2 types of identity to discover the world's identity or your God given identity For me it wasn't enough to know my identity in this world because I found I was still lacking something The more I relied on myself to fix myself I found I still came up empty needing that void filled It wasn't until God saved me and I began to learn more about Him and His love for me that I began to discover my identity in Christ His purpose for my life His purpose for my existence Prayerfully as I am transparent with my life and how rejection had me blind to my true identity displaying negative and unwanted behavior it will also bring illumination into your own life exposing unwanted behavior and locating the root of the behavior which in often cases is rejection It's O.K.
