Faith Through Reason Janne Haaland Matlary, 2006 What led a young Norwegian woman who grew up with a deep love for the rugged and majestic scenery of her native land and was educated in its secular post Protestant culture to become a Catholic This book recounts the various stages of that adventurous journey Janne Haaland Matlary s love for the unspoiled scenery of her homeland was matched by her passion for research and her joy in exploring areas of knowledge which take us by surprise forcing us to ask ourselves ever bigger questions For Janne the many and various questions which presented themselves in the course of her journey converge in a single fundamental question is it possible to know the truth Or is everything relative Eventually the moment came at Easter 1982 when Janne took the step of converting to the Catholic Church She was then 25 The knowledge that she had discovered the truth or rather that it had discovered her the sense of being taken by surprise was itself overwhelming Becoming one with revealed truth was like being touched by and filled with a long sought after love Truth was revealed in the form of love The whole structure of the faith and of Catholic life are present in the various stages of Janne s journey towards conversion and through her book we can so to speak learn afresh what it means to be a Catholic Thanks to this book it is possible to return to the state of first love to experience once again the greatness and daring of the yes of Catholicism its vastness its light and the joy that strengthens us on the precarious path of faith and keeps intact the intensity of that first love which alone can show us the way to the summit That is why I hope this book will have the widest possible distribution
