

Graduation Ceremony 4
Graduand's Speech
Thursday 21 November 2013 at 1630hrs
JESUITS' CHURCH – VALLETTA

Ms Rosalind Vella
Representative of the students

Chancellor, Rector, Esteemed Guests, Members of the Academic Board, Members of Administration, proud parents, spouses and loved one, and above all, graduates:

When I was asked to do this speech just three days ago, my nerves got the best of me, my mind went into autopilot and I did what I have been doing these last two and a half years - I researched the topic. I Googled 'graduation speeches', watched a few celebrity speeches on YouTube and even read up articles on how best to structure a graduation speech. I even wondered if I should include a list of references! While researching I came upon some really great material - stories which pull at one's heart strings and examples of impressive adventures. Yet even with all this information at my fingertips, I was still staring at an empty Word document a few hours later. I realised that no article was going to represent my experience throughout this Masters degree and no inspirational speech by a celebrity was going to portray my journey. So I followed the advice of a friend who told me to speak from the heart.

So this evening, I stand here extremely honoured and humbled to speak to you from the heart about learning, about life and about love.

Learning

During my recent trip to Thailand, I got chatting to Max, the young tour guide who was giving us a tour of the elephant temples. Max told me that he had recently graduated in tourism studies and that his parents and siblings had worked for years saving for him to go to university to get a degree in the hopes that he would make a better life for himself and maybe also for his family. He asked about me and I told him that I was on a well-deserved holiday after studying for two and a half years. Max then told me that while a small portion of his salary would go towards his living expenses, the bulk of it would be sent home to his family in the rice fields and that no matter how much he worked and saved, he would never have enough money to buy a plane ticket to travel outside of Thailand.

How fortunate are we, including Max, to be part of the 6.7% of the world population that has a university degree and that as of today we form part of an even smaller percentage of the world population that has a Masters degree? How fortunate are we, unlike Max, that we live in a democratic country with equal opportunities to learn and study up to a tertiary level of education for free? Had our college and undergraduate education been at a cost, some of us, like Max, would never have considered pursuing further education due to other commitments and obligations. I need not highlight the importance and value of learning - we sit in this hall today because of our desire to foster our learning, because of our curiosity to understand further and because of our need to continue to grow. What I do wish to emphasise today is to Never Stop Learning. Everywhere you go and everything you do is an opportunity to learn something new – go for it. Material things come and go, but what you learn is yours and no one can take that away from you. Therefore, I wish for you that your thirst for knowledge is never quenched and that you never stop learning.

And although we are here because of our desire to continue learning, we only sit here today because of the hard work and dedication of our educators, some of whom sit among us. Most of us today graduate in Masters degrees that did not exist within the University of Malta up until some years ago. Had it not been for some of our professors and lecturers who had passionately lobbied-for and promoted the significance of these courses,

Headmaster Graduation Speeches:

The Principal's Graduation Joseph Jao Yiu Sung, 2019-01-15 Putting admirable rationales of university education into practice is never easy While it is popular to emphasize market values and competitive rankings moral values and ideals sound way too lofty nowadays Under tensions on campus and in society the head of a university takes the role of striking a balance as skilfully as possible Professor Joseph Sung is no exception to all these challenges He has been enjoying university life with teachers and students going through ups and downs with them This book a collection of 57 blog articles by Professor Sung during his tenure as the seventh Vice-Chancellor of The Chinese University of Hong Kong tells us the stories He talks about higher education and social responsibility pathways and choices our youths make the visions he had and the challenges he faced and life values which he wishes his students could take seriously Though generations come and go he still cares that they live a simple noble and humble life He hopes we care too Community Volunteers in Japan Lynne Y. Nakano, 2005 Based on extensive original research this book explores the reality of volunteering in an urban residential Japanese neighbourhood The Third Reich's Elite Schools Helen Roche, 2021 The Third Reich's Elite Schools tells the story of the Napolas Nazi Germany's most prominent training academies for the future elite This deeply researched study gives an in depth account of everyday life at the schools while also shedding fresh light on the political social and cultural history of the Nazi dictatorship The Skyfarer's Chronicles - The Beginning Mathieu Doods, 2021-03-21 A boy unable to wield magic A genius one legged girl A world about to change for better or for worse Epic fantasy Magic Friendship Love As the world is about to enter an age of turmoil between good and evil its fate lies in the hands of Henry a brave and adventurous boy seemingly unable to wield magic and Alice a whimsical one legged genius girl for whom family means everything Together with their friends they must learn all they can before setting out on their journey should they wish to have any kind of hope in defeating the dark forces lurking in the shadows But who are Henry and Alice exactly And will they lead the world towards its salvation or its destruction Telling Lies in Modern American Autobiography Timothy Dow Adams, 2017-10-10 All autobiographers are unreliable narrators Yet what a writer chooses to misrepresent is as telling perhaps even more so as what really happened Timothy Adams believes that autobiography is an attempt to reconcile one's life with one's self and he argues in this book that autobiography should not be taken as historically accurate but as metaphorically authentic Adams focuses on five modern American writers whose autobiographies are particularly complex because of apparent lies that permeate them In examining their stories Adams shows that lying in autobiography especially literary autobiography is not simply inevitable Rather it is often a deliberate highly strategic decision on the author's part Throughout his analysis Adams's standard is not literal accuracy but personal authenticity He attempts to resolve some of the paradoxes of recent autobiographical theory by looking at the classic question of design and truth in autobiography from the underside with a focus on lying rather than truth Originally published in 1990 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions dollars and cents at age ten among others The author documents taboo subject questions such as Where do babies come from She touches on the very subtle racism that lurks amongst a few people the days of migration to England her first encounter with Rock and her first peek into American racism The book gives insight into the author s makeup and foundation literally It shows her enthusiasm for learning and her curiosity about humanity It also reveals how much corporal punishment was used in home and school This autobiography is testament to a determination to persevere and rise above all odds in spite of obstacles Youth s honest na vet innocence and beauty shine through this thoughtfully written informative and valuable work

The Arch of Avooblis Charles Streams,2015-02-08 Can a rogue be a hero Dagdron was raised as a rogue his dagger his only companion and pickpocketing his favorite pastime But when his father forces him to attend the Adventurers Academy where warriors enchanters and rogues learn how to fulfill quests to become heroes Dagdron must face a whole new life When Dagdron is accused of stealing the Arch of Avooblis he and his ever honorable roommate Earl embark on a quest to recover the magical crystal Along the way they must deal with the mysterious Headmaster Gwauldron a snobby princess enchantress and the fact that their involvement with the Arch of Avooblis may very well cost them their lives Book 1 in the Adventurers Academy Series

The Ice Soldier Paul Watkins,2006-12-12 One man s quiet life is shattered when he s forced to confront terrifying secrets he d thought buried high in the Italian Alps The New York Times has called his work daring and remarkably assured The Washington Post has dubbed it shamelessly entertaining and the Los Angeles Times claims it renders the raw elegance of the human experience itself Now Paul Watkins returns with his most engaging and atmospheric novel yet The ice soldier of the title is one William Bromley Following a disastrous turn in the Alps during the Second World War William has constructed for himself a quiet and lonely life as a history teacher at a London boarding school For different reasons he and his best friend Stanley have given up the world of mountaineering for a more peaceful existence Peaceful that is until a soldier from William s mountain regiment reappears tragedy occurs and a terrible bargain is made Slowly the horrifying events of the war come back to William and he realizes what he must do He is to confront his worst fears and memories by returning to the glaciers and peaks of northern Italy The little known role of the army s mountaineer corps comes brilliantly to life in this story of men pushed to the limits of endurance and survival and haunted by the ghosts of war Paul Watkins is without question one of the most gifted writers of his generation Tobias Wolff

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1975 Victoria College : A history revealed Sahar Hamouda,Colin Clement,2002 This book is at once the history of a remarkable and fascinating phenomenon a British style public school rooted in Egyptian soil boasting such alumni as King Hussein of Jordan Omar Sharif and Edward Said and a reflection of the spirit of Alexandria during the first half of the twentieth century Its publication in October 2002 is timed to coincide with the school s centenary Victoria College Alexandria founded in October 1902 was named after the British queen Victoria who had died the year before It was the brainchild of a group of British businessmen who formed the nucleus of Alexandria s small

British community Deliberately fashioned as an independent secular school open to anyone who could afford its fees it attracted the children both of the elite royalty diplomats magnates politicians landowners and of very ordinary people Its pupils came not only from all over Egypt but from the entire Middle East and beyond This immensely readable history is in the first place a book about and for the Old Victorians In a series of colorful sketches backed by plentiful quotation from documents in the school archives a series of engaging and distinguished characters come to life not least Victoria s first two headmasters C R Lias and his successor R W G Reed the two men whose enlightened vision and skillful leadership made the school what it was Yet at the same time this is a book whose appeal extends far beyond its immediate subject matter In the process of putting together the story of a school the authors have uncovered a wealth of material that will interest Middle East and postcolonial scholars as well as educationists social historians and students of human nature
