Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood Maryann Barone-Chapman, 2019-11-28 Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood explores the topic of delayed motherhood from a Jungian psychoanalytic perspective using both quantitative and qualitative research methods including interview transcripts diaries dreams and Jung s world renowned Word Association Experiment It provides a unique contribution to our understanding of the pressures faced by women today on the topic of delayed motherhood We may consider an affect to be in place when a woman allows her relationship to her body and its procreative capacity to slip away from consciousness only to awaken at a point when redeeming her past choices becomes a hunger This book delves into personal cultural and collective spheres of influence that have been split off waiting for the right moment to reintegrate Working with Interpretive Phenomenological Analysis and Jung s Word Association Experiment the author identifies aspects of the psyche arousing late procreative desire and considers the differing accounts of maternal and paternal parents within affective experience of growing up female beside a male sibling The book examines women s procreative identity in midlife identifies complexes of a personal cultural and collective nature and considers how the role of mother is psychosocially performed taking in feminist psychoanalytical thinking as well as Queer theory to explore new meanings for late motherhood This book will be of great interest to clinicians researchers academics postgraduate students of Jungian psychoanalysis gender theory psychosocial studies and those travelling alongside a woman s journey into later motherhood

My Buddha Wears Bifocals Kathleen Mary Sands,2012-10-17 what we know is that it is not the outcome that determines how or why we come to love our story We do so not because of the blessings and joys we have known nor in spite of the misfortune and hardships we have endured We come to love our story if we are lucky precisely because it is our own form My Buddha Wears Bifocals

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004

Red Madonna Dianne Joyce,2008 The poems in this collection are about questing plumbing the depths of one s own soul and finding out what clicks what works what the future might be if all the elements fall into place As Joyce says The thing about quests is that you never go on one alone There are those you meet along your life s journey who help you move toward your destination In this collection unlikely people and situations appear and offer their own stories which help move the quest along Joyce develops these poems into a unique connection with the Goddess that exists within the female psyche I know now that my emerging relationship with the sacred or divine feminine was what gave me the energy I needed to go forward with my quest
