Injustice And The Care Of Souls Taking Oppression Seriously In Pastoral Care:

Injustice and the Care of Souls Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, Karen Brown Montagno, 2009 Pastoral care is often focused on individual problems but much of what harms and impedes us stems from the larger social maladies at work in our lives This unprecedented gathering of two dozen essays discusses the realities of racism sexism heterosexism ageism ableism and classism prevalent within the church and society in an effort to broaden and inform pastoral caregivers with the knowledge and the skills needed to respond effectively to oppressed and marginalized persons The volumes also help pastors to reflect on the ways their own social location has an impact on their ministries and to gain familiarity with resources available to support pastoral caregivers in a variety of contexts

Injustice and the Care of Souls, Second Edition

Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, Karen B. Montagno, 2023 Injustice and the Care of Souls Second Edition explores injustices in church and society and their impact on pastoral caregiving The book offers pastoral and spiritual caregivers broader contexts knowledge and skills to respond effectively to marginalized people and to reflect on how their own social locations affect their work

Injustice and the Care of Souls, 2009

Pastoral Theology and Care Nancy J. Ramsay, 2018-03-19 Leading pastoral theologians explore a wide variety of themes related to pastoral practice Pastoral Theology and Care Critical Trajectories in Theory and Practice offers a collection of essays by leading pastoral theologians that represent emerging trajectories in the fields of pastoral theology and care The topics explored include qualitative research and ethnography advances in neuroscience care across pluralities and intersections in religion and spirituality the influence of neoliberal economics in socio economic vulnerabilities postcolonial theory and its implications the intersections of race and religion in caring for black women and the usefulness of intersectionality for pastoral practice Each of the essays offers a richly illustrated review of a practice of pastoral care relationally and in the public domain The contributions to this volume engage seven critical directions emerging in the literature of pastoral theology in the United States and internationally among pastoral and practical theologians While coverage of these topics does not exhaust important points of activity in the field it does represent especially promising resources for theory and practice This important work Offers unique coverage of new directions in the field Includes contributions from an exceptional group of experts who are noted leaders in their areas of study Introduces the newest perspectives on pastoral care and offers constructive proposals Filled with case illustrations that make chapters pedagogically useful Pastoral Theology and Care is essential reading for faculty seminarians and students in advanced degree programs and pastors

Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy: Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons, communities, and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair. Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures: Heidi Neumark, Henri Nouwen, Gregory Boyle, Pauli Murray, and Paul Farmer, gleaned for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion, connection, justice, and freedom. Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness, beauty, and love. This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy, full approaches to transformational care. This work is a scholarly, engaging, and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology. Heather Walton, University of Glasgow, President of the International Academy of Practical Theology, July 2016. Based on biographies, interviews, and life stories, Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter-cultural emotion, as a spiritual path, and as a fruit of the Spirit. In her research, joy and reason are not ultimately opposed. Jeanne Stevenson Moessner, Professor of Pastoral Care, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, July 2016. This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation, especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling. I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy, grief, death, and dying, and vocational courses. Carrie Doehring, Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling, Iliff School of Theology, Denver, August 2016. Mary Moschella has given us a rare text, one that is theologically rich, intellectually sophisticated, drenched in pastoral wisdom, and beautifully written. She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who live constantly in interface with suffering. There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care. Willie James Jennings, Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies, Yale University, August 2016.

Misunderstanding Stories Melinda McGarrah Sharp, 2013-01-24 How can we work toward mutual understanding in our increasingly diverse and interconnected world? Pastoral theologian Melinda McGarrah Sharp approaches this multifaceted interdisciplinary question by beginning with moments of intercultural misunderstanding. Using misunderstanding stories from her experience working with the Peace Corps in Suriname, Dr. McGarrah Sharp argues that we must recognize the limits of our own cultural perspectives in order to have meaningful intercultural encounters that are more mutually empowering and hopeful. Bringing together resources from pastoral theology, ethnography, and postcolonial studies, she provides a valuable resource for investigating the complexity of providing care and fostering communities of belonging across cultural differences. McGarrah Sharp illustrates a process of moving from disconnection to regard for diverse others as neighbors who share a common yearning for hopeful and meaningful connection. Leaders in faith communities, practitioners of care, and scholars will all be able to use this resource to better understand the conflicts, tensions, and uncertainties of our postcolonial twenty-first century world. discussion guide facilitates classroom study small group discussion and personal reflection Under the Oak Tree Ronald J. Allen, John S. McClure, O. Wesley Allen, 2013-11-06 Two trends in the early twenty first century intersect to give this volume immediate relevance 1 The emerging postmodern ethos in North America is calling into question many things we have taken for granted including the purposes of the church and 2 our time is increasingly fractious as groups with distinct worldviews become polarized and often antagonistic Eleven noted contributors join a growing current that sees conversation as an image to refresh our thinking about the nature and purpose of the church and as a process in which individuals and communities with different perspectives come together for real understanding Under the Oak Tree employs the image of Sarah and Abraham greeting three visitors under the Oaks of Mamre as an image for the church as a community of conversation a community that opens itself to the otherness of the Bible voices in history and tradition others in the contemporary social and ecological worlds Furthermore the book shows how conversation can lead the church to action The book takes a practical approach by exploring how conversation can shape key parts of the church's life Topics include preaching worship formation evangelism pastoral care mission and ecumenism social witness and the relationship of Christianity to other religions Foundational chapters consider God as conversational the church as community of conversation and the minister as conversation leader Practicing Care in Rural Congregations and Communities Jeanne Hoeft, L. Shannon Jung, Joretta Marshall, 2013-07-01 Pastoral care in rural communities is different from care in other locales Despite these differences rural churches and communities also hold a particular wisdom from which the rest of the church might benefit Small towns and rural areas have particular challenges and in seeking to live out the Christian life in the midst of those local churches have unique and useful insights into what it means to care for one another Indigenous Australia and the Unfinished Business of Theology J. Havea, 2014-06-05 This book engages a complex subject that mainline theologies avoid Indigenous Australia The heritages wisdoms and dreams of Indigenous Australians are tormented by the discriminating mindsets and colonialist practices of non Indigenous peoples This book gives special attention to the torments due to the arrival and development of the church Can You Hear My Pain Now? Michael G. Maness, Kevaghnn Mattis, 2022-05-05 Pastoral care and its theology get a gentle boost from some of the best in the business of caring for the soul When a person hurts they often look to God Several pathfinders give new light from their specialties each one speaking powerfully uniquely and artfully from decades of experience Dr Amos Yong's article on disability forwards the amazingly helpful term temporarily able bodied Greek Orthodox Dr Vasileios Thermos and Roman Catholic Dr Robert Fastiggi enlighten next to the powerful testaments of Professor Godfrey Harold on South Africa and Dr Samuel Yonas Deressa on Ethiopia Each weathered author contributes universal insights into the grace of our great God and challenges pastors throughout the Christian world to kindly consider the heart of the afflicted These finely hewn stones can be used by anyone in the ministry to sharpen their serve Mattis and Maness offer this third collection from Testamentum Imperium with a prayer that these will open new avenues of sensitivity to the hearts and souls of those in travail and aid those who are called by God to serve those in pain The End of Hope--the Beginning Pamela R. McCarroll, 2014 Pamela R McCarroll's central metaphor waiting at the foot of the cross jumps off the page and comes to life that is exactly what chaplains supervisors and ministers do when they engage in care with sufferers Her theological case studies represent one of the best examples in print of an inductive method the one that chaplains supervisors students and parish ministers actually use in practice While we have many good books which demonstrate the theory of pastoral care and use examples and vignettes in an illustrative manner we have few that so directly demonstrate pastoral theological method while teaching students method and content of theology that will serve them in their pastoral care oriented work Jacket Spiritual Resiliency and Aging Janet Ramsey, Rosemary Blieszner, 2016-12-05 First Published in 2017 In this new book Ramsey and Blieszner invite readers to renew their acquaintance with the eight women of the previous book and to meet eight men who like the women were nominated by their pastors as being people the pastors would want to speak with in times of spiritual crisis Postcolonial Practice of Ministry Stephen Burns, Kwok Pui-lan, 2016-07-13 Postcolonial studies has challenged the Eurocentric frameworks and methodologies in the fields of biblical studies and theology Postcolonial Practice of Ministry is a groundbreaking anthology that enables a new engagement between postcolonial and practical theologies focused on three key areas of the practice of ministry pastoral leadership liturgical celebration and interfaith engagement Postcolonial Practice of Ministry will make an impact in at least two areas of theological reflection first among postcolonial scholars it will stretch postcolonial theology into an area where it has been neglected second it will provide a comprehensive resource for rethinking the practice of ministry Contributors to this volume are well known scholars from different racial national and denominational backgrounds bringing with them experiences of hybrid identities and multicultural churches Many of them are pioneers in introducing postcolonial discourse to their fields

Pastoral Theology for Public Ministry Stephen Burns, 2015-10-10 What does it mean to be engaged in Christian ministry in a shifting spiritual and religious landscape Stephen Burns invites readers to think anew about the distinctiveness of public practices of pastoral presence Rather than narrowly defining pastoral care and pastoral theology pastoral counseling preaching youth groups visits to elders etc and theological academic categories history pastoral theology liturgy ethics and contemporary sociology he argues for a new imagination and practice of pastoral presence a presence that is representative public integrated and expansive Study guide included Justice Matters Kyungsig Samuel Lee, Danjuma G. Gibson, 2022-09-29 The nine chapters in this book along with a critical introduction address complex theological issues relating to structural inequalities of our society exacerbated by the experience of the COVID 19 pandemic Pastoral theology as an academic discipline is not a value free enterprise This book strives to speak against all forms of injustice and to advocate for those who suffer under existing structural inequalities because such a liberative and social transformative task constitutes the fundamental work of pastoral theology Each chapter in this book analyses how private problems of individuals are occurring within the immediate world of experience with public issues historically socially and politically As a whole this book addresses racial injustice ableism foster family care and issues faced by Christian churches during the COVID 19 pandemic The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Pastoral Theology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life
