unique introduction to the philosophy of science with special emphasis on the life sciences Part I presents elementary but fundamental concepts and problems in epistemology and their relation to questions of scientific methodology Part II deals with case studies from the history of biology which illustrate particular philosophical points while Part III progresses to more complex ideas as on the nature and methodology of science Part IV discusses the limitations of scientific enquiry and its relations to other systems of knowledge and interpretation Inleiding tot de biologie Victor Jacob Koningsberger, 1946

Fløistad, 2012-12-06 The present publication is a continuation of two earlier series of chronicles Philosophy in the Mid Century Firenze 1958 59 and Contemporary Philosophy Firenze 1968 edited by Raymond Klibansky As with the earlier series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophi cal discussion The time space covered by the present series is approximately 1966 1978 The need for such surveys has I believe increased rather than decreased over the last years The philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before The continuing process of specialization in most branches the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and the philosophy of language the convergence of interest though not necessarily of opinion of different traditions upon certain prob lems and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributory factors Surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity and may as such be of assistance in renewing the understanding of one s own philosophical problems The surveys it is to be hoped may also help to strengthen the Socratic element of modern philosophy the dialogue or Being Human in the Ultimate N. Georgopoulos, Michael Heim, 1995 For John M Anderson philosophy as the love of wisdom is a concern for what is ultimate The essays in this volume take to heart this understanding of philosophy and are therefore responses to the ultimate The first four essays by Kaelin Schrag Baillif and Johnstone deal with Anderson s own account of ultimacy as it is presented in his reflections on the aesthetic occasion the experience of the sublime on freedom and on insight The concern for what is ultimate is formulated differently by each of the other eight essays Desmond articulates ways of our encounter with the ultimate by means of what he calls essential perplexity Gendlin reflects on Aristotle's characterization of thinking as an activity that is ultimate Biemel and Lingis present death as an aspect of the ultimate Hersch sees our loss of meaning and value as the result of our refusal of finitude and thus of our denial of the ultimate which reveals itself in this finitude Ginsberg initiates us into the ultimacy of the human encounter that is dialogue Verene speaks of the ultimate through his account of the fool For Kockelmans philosophy unlike science deals with what is as it manifests itself in our encounter with our lived world which is a source of meaning and in that sense an ultimate Finally John M Anderson writes of the awareness of our becoming more than we are and does so by bespeaking the origin of the dialogue we are
