The Memoirs of Jin Luxian Luxian Jin, 2012-11-01 Jin Luxian is considered by many to be one of China's most controversial religious figures Educated by the Jesuits he joined the Society of Jesus and was ordained priest in 1945 before continuing his studies in Europe In 1951 he made the dangerous decision to return to the newly established People's Republic of China He became one of the many thousands of Roman Catholics who suffered persecution Convicted of counter revolutionary activities and treason he was imprisoned for 27 years and only released in 1982 His subsequent decision to accept the government's invitation to resume his prior role as head of the Shanghai Seminary and then assume the title of Bishop of Shanghai without Vatican approval shocked many Catholics Now some thirty years later still serving as Bishop and regarded as one of the leading figures in the Chinese Catholic Church Jin recounts formative experiences that provide essential insight into the faith and morality that sustained him through the turbulent years of the late 20th Century In this volume of memoirs Jin recalls his childhood and education his entry into the Society of Jesus and formation as a priest his return to China and imprisonment and finally his release and return to Shanghai Mary in the Bible and in Our Lives Wilfrid Stinissenn, 2018-01-01 This book offers a clear beautiful exposition of Catholic beliefs about Mary Not a history or a compendium it was written by a Carmelite monk who spent decades praying and pondering the mysteries of the faith concerning the Mother of Jesus Catholic Mariology has matured through centuries of meditation upon both the Bible and the Church's faith in the Incarnation The Marian dogmas of the Church are guarantors of the full meaning of the statement in the Gospel of John that the word became flesh and dwelt among us 1 14 Fr Wilfrid Stinissen shows that Mariology corrects any attempt to minimize the good news that God became man so that man could become like God In writing about Mary he underlines the astonishing truth that God has initiated an intimate communion with mankind In a world that strives to reduce human dignity Mary reveals the very high value of man in God's eyes and God's wondrous love and plan for each one of us

The Hidden Light Jennifer Moorcroft, 2013 Saint Dominic has been described by one of his biographers Guy Bedouelle OP as hidden in the light Unlike most other founders of religious orders he says we have only three brief letters and almost none of his words preserved we know nothing of Dominic's life except what we can see through the eyes of his followers or his friends The fact that our access to St Dominic is so indirect reveals his discretion and in a sense his detachment from himself This detachment in turn is an eloquent statement of the place he wished to hold within the Church Always Believe in Love Elizabeth of the Trinity, 2017-05-05 Since its initial release this book now with ICS Publications has been a valuable resource for those wanting to explore the key works and teachings of St Elizabeth of the Trinity in a convenient format In this concise introduction to and anthology of the works of the young Carmelite from Dijon Marian Murphy mines Elizabeth's writings her diary letters and poetry for the most significant extracts that present the saint's spiritual doctrine then presents them with useful introductions and commentary Always Believe in Love is an excellent primer for those just discovering Elizabeth as well as a handy reference work for those wanting to deepen their familiarity with the saint's key writings The book contains photos and a chronology of St Elizabeth's life The Catholic Historical Review, 2003 The Sunrise of the Soul Gerard Thomas Straub, 2020-07-21 The Sunrise of the Soul is the fruit of the last 24 years of an unexpected new life and a journey of transformation that took Gerry Straub from the glamour of Hollywood to the horror of the worst slums on earth Straub's journey began in an empty church in Rome during a moment of grace in which the hard shell of his ardent atheism was penetrated by a spark of light allowing him to see that God was real and loved him just as he was Eventually Straub felt God telling him to stop filming the poor and to go live among the poor He now lives in a crowded slum in Haiti where he operates a home of hope and healing for 69 abandoned kids 24 of whom are still in diapers Straub says his journey is far from over and will never be finished As Karl Rahner reminded us In the torment of the insufficiency of everything attainable we ultimately learn that here in this life all symphonies must remain unfinished Living in a home with 69 kids in Haiti means that the stillness and silence needed for contemplation are virtually nonexistent After more than four years of intense work in Haiti Gerry began to commit himself to the rejuvenating power of authentic solitude in order to turn his attention to his own inner spiritual poverty In the silent predawn darkness of each Haitian morning he waits reflects and prays This book emerged slowly from those many lonely hours of silence Religion Past & Present, 2007 The Imitation of Mary Quan Tran, 2020-11-19 In The Imitation of Mary Fr Quan Tran shows you how to imitate the twelve essential qualities of Mary in order to unleash a torrent of graces in your life      Introduction to Catholicism for Adults James Socias, Midwest Theological Forum, 2020-06-25
