historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies     Nationalism in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling,2004-08-02 Nationalism in Southeast Asia seeks a definition of nationalism through examining its role in the history of southeast Asia a region rarely included in general books on the topic By developing such a definition and testing it out Tarling hopes at the same time to make a contribution to southeast Asian historiography and to limit its ghettoization Tarling considers the role of nationalism in the nation building of the post colonial phase and its relationship both with the democratic aspirations associated with the winning of independence and with the authoritarianism of the closing decades of the 20th century     Study Guide for World History II Stephanie E.
