Practical Theology Beyond the Empirical Turn Heather Walton, 2025-07-31 Practical Theology Beyond the Empirical Turn offers a sustained critical interrogation of the turn towards social research and methodologies in Practical Theology which has transformed the discipline over the past forty years It places the discipline s current research practices within the context of wider theoretical and methodological developments and the climate disaster The work maintains that current circumstances require a radical reassessment of the goals and processes of practical theological research and that artistic and creative methods must be part of this transformation Heather Walton embodies her understanding of the vocation of the discipline in reflective and creative modes of expression This work is essential reading for all those researching writing or teaching Practical Theology today

Today We're Alive Linden Wilkinson, 2016-04-26 By 1888 after 100 years of colonisation it is estimated that 95% of the Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait islander population had disappeared Along with starvation disease dispossession and grief a further contributing factor to this decline was murder Massacres occurred sequentially as the line of first contact forged its way across a country that had been occupied cared for and loved for over 50 000 years by about 250 separate Aboriginal nations The concomitant brutality subsumed in the colonial narrative of zeal purpose and prosperity meant that massacres were shrouded in silence for generations denied ignored and under reported However one particular massacre remains an anomaly The massacre at Myall Creek occurred on June 10th 1838 in the fading light of a wintry Sunday afternoon It was perpetrated by eleven convicts under the leadership of one free born squatter s son they had hunted blacks together before They tethered twenty eight old men women and children Weraera people of the Kamilaroi nation led them away from their camp and then systematically butchered them all These details are available because this particular massacre went to trial One hundred and sixty two years later a group of Aboriginal and non

Aboriginal people formed a committee and built a memorial to commemorate the only massacre in Australia's colonial history where some but not all of the perpetrators were punished Today We re Alive Generating Performance in a Cross Cultural Context an Australian Experience is a doctoral thesis which examines the multiple narratives embedded in colonial and recent history At the heart of this research is a verbatim play the interweaving of Aboriginal and non Aboriginal testimonies about Myall Creek and the memorial testimonies sourced from descendants of massacre survivors descendants of massacre perpetrators and involved others As a thesis it explores the possibilities offered by performance ethnography as a decolonizing methodology as a play the research seeks to find a reconciliation narrative a story that through performance addresses the past and recognises the possibilities of a shared future potential for his thought to be transformative in the international socio political realm Twenty authors from various disciplines and countries have contributed to Syed Hussein Alatas and Critical Social Theory Decolonizing the Captive Mind in the hopes of bringing his work to the forefront of social and political theory Contributors are Mona Abaza Joseph Alagha Masturah Alatas Sharifah Munirah Alatas Syed Farid Alatas Syed Imad Alatas Hira Amin Dustin J Byrd Zawawi Ibrahim N Jayaram Teo Lee Ken Habibul Haque Khondker Victor T King Jo o Marcelo E Maia Seyed Javad Miri Carimo Mohamed Chandra Muzaffar Norshahril Saat Mostafa Soueid and Esmaeil Zeiny

Critical Ethnography, Language, Race/ism and Education Stephen May, Blanca Caldas, 2022-11-22 This book provides a contemporary overview of work in critical ethnography that focuses on language and race/ism in education as well as cutting edge examples of recent critical ethnographic studies addressing these issues The studies in this book while centred primarily on the North American context have wide international significance and interdisciplinary reach and address a range of educational contexts across K 12 education and less formal educational settings They explore the racialized construction positioning and experiences of bi multilingual students and the implications of this for educational policy pedagogy and practice The chapters draw on a range of critical theoretical perspectives including CRT LatCrit Indigenous epistemologies and bilingual education they also address significant methodological questions that arise when undertaking critical ethnographic work including the key issues of positionality and critical reflexivity

On Indian Ground John W. Tippeconnic, Mary Jo Tippeconnic Fox, 2021-05-01 On Indian Ground The Southwest is one of ten regionally focused texts that explores American Indian Alaska Native Native Hawaiian education in depth The text is designed to be used by educators of native youth and emphasizes best practices found throughout the state Previous texts on American Indian education make wide ranging general assumptions that all American Indians are alike This series promotes specific interventions and relies on native ways of knowing to highlight place based educational practices On Indian Ground The Southwest looks at the history of Indian education within the southwestern states The authors also analyze education policy and tribal education departments to highlight early childhood education gifted and talented educational practice parental involvement language revitalization counseling and research These chapters expose cross cutting themes of sustainability historical bias economic development health and wellness and cultural competence The intended audience for this publication is primarily those educators who have American Indian Alaska Native Native Hawaiian students in their educational institutions The articles range from early childhood and head start practices to higher education including urban rural and reservation schooling practices A secondary audience American Indian education researcher

Storying Pedagogy as Critical Praxis in the Neoliberal University Mark Vicars, Ligia Pelosi, 2023-08-30 This book examines how teaching and learning and teacher and student identities are being reframed in higher education by neoliberal policies and practices It shares how teachers perform teaching and learning duties in relation to prescribed institutional policies and how teachers insert dissonant pedagogies as a critical practice The book explores narrative pedagogy as a disruptive presence and a space for critique It interrogates personal professional experience of educational systems that present educators juggling complexity and meeting competing demands to make learning meaningful for students Each contribution will act as a counterpoint and provide a synoptic method for comparison The book re constructs meaning from the generic narrative of the public face of education which homogenizes and diminishes collective understandings of teachers and teaching This book provides a contemporary account of the social realities experienced within the higher education classroom across the globe Reframing Indigenous Biography Shino Konishi, Malcolm Allbrook, Tom Griffiths, 2024-11-11 This book explores the history practice and possibilities of writing about the lives of First Nations peoples in Australia as well as Aotearoa New Zealand North America and the Pacific This interdisciplinary collection recognises the limitations of Western biographical conventions for writing Indigenous long and short form biographies Through a series of diverse life stories of both historical and contemporary First Nations figures this book investigates innovative ways to ameliorate the challenges we face in recovering the stories of Indigenous people and reimagining their lives in productive new ways Many of the chapters in this collection are deeply reflective aiming not just to relate the life story of an individual but also to reflect on the archival intellectual and emotional journeys that biographers undertake in researching Indigenous biography This volume will be of value to scholars and students interested in Indigenous Studies biography history literature creative writing archaeology and colonial and postcolonial studies

Critical Youth Research in Education Arshad Imtiaz Ali, Teresa L. McCarty, 2020-04-23 Critical studies of youth play an increasingly important role in educational research This volume adds to that ongoing conversation by addressing the methodological lessons learned from key scholars in the field With a focus on the doing of critical youth studies in ways that center praxis and relational care in work with youth and their communities the volume showcases scholars discussing their research and reflecting on the practical strategies they have used to operationalize their conceptions of knowledge in youth centered research projects Each chapter addresses the research features challenges tensions and debates of the project engagement with communities and relationality reciprocity and responsibility to participants The focus throughout is on qualitative approaches that are humanizing anti colonial and transformative The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, Yvonna S. Lincoln, Michael D. Giardina, Gaile S. Cannella, 2023-06-19 This new edition of the SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research represents the sixth generation of the ongoing conversation about the discipline practice and conduct of qualitative inquiry As with earlier editions the Sixth Edition is virtually a new volume with 27 of the 34 chapters representing new topics or approaches not seen in the previous edition To mark the Handbook's 30 year history we are pleased to offer a bonus PART VI in the eBook versions of the Sixth Edition this additional section brings together and reprints ten of the most famous or game changing contributions from the previous five editions Ideological, Social and Cultural Aspects of Events Omar Moufakkir, Tomas Pernecky, 2014-12-10 There is an ever growing importance of events in modern society and until now existing literature on events has been dominated by the economic perspective Social and Cultural Aspects of Events addresses the social and cultural side of events and explores the role they have in fostering change and community development It examines the transformatory function of events in the context of development studies as phenomena that can promote and facilitate human development including social societal and individual change This book provides vital and timely exploration and encourages the study of more diverse themes within event management
