Rocco, M Cecil Smith, Robert C. Mizzi, Lisa R. Merriweather, Joshua D. Hawley, 2023-07-03 Co published with Colleges and universities are increasingly becoming significant sites for adult education scholarship in large part due to demographic shifts With fewer U S high school graduates on the horizon higher education institutions will need to attract non traditional i e older adult learners to remain viable both financially and politically There is a need to develop a better corpus of scholarship on topics as diverse as what learning theories are useful for understanding adult learning How are higher education institutions changing in response to the surge of adult students What academic programs are providing better learning and employment outcomes for adults in college Adult education scholars can offer much to the policy debates taking place in higher education. A main premise of this handbook is that adult and continuing education should not simply respond to rapidly changing social, economic, technological, and political environments across the globe but should lead the way in preparing adults to become informed, globally connected, critical citizens who are knowledgeable, skilled, and open and adaptive to change and uncertainty. The Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education provides rich information on the contemporary issues and trends that are of concern to adult and continuing education, the programs and resources available to adult learners, and of opportunities to challenge and critique the structures embedded in the field that perpetuate inequity and social injustice. Adult education is a discipline that foresees a better tomorrow, and The Handbook is designed to engage and inspire readers to assist the field to seek new paths in uncertain and complex times, ask questions, and to help the field flourish. The Handbook is divided into five sections. The first, Foundations, situates the field by describing the developments, core debates, perspectives, and key principles that form the basis of the field. The second, Understanding Adult Learning, includes chapters on adult learning, adult development, motivation, access, participation, and support of adult learners, and mentoring. Teaching Practices and Administrative Leadership, the third section, offers chapters on organization and administration, program planning, assessment, and evaluation, teaching perspectives, andragogy, and pedagogy, public pedagogy, and digital technologies for teaching and learning. The fourth section is Formal and Informal Learning Contexts. Chapters cover adult basic, GED, and literacy education, English as a Second Language Programs, family literacy, prison education, workforce development, military education, international development, education, health professions education, continuing professional education, higher education, human resource development, and workplace learning, union and labor education, religious and spiritual education, cultural institutions, environmental education, social and political movements, and peace and conflict education. The concluding Contemporary Issues section discusses decolonizing adult and continuing education, adult education and welfare, teaching, social activism, lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, queer, and straight allies, gender and its multiple forms, disability, older adults, and intergenerational identities, race and ethnicity, working class, whiteness, and privilege, and migrants and migrant education. The editors culminate with consideration of next steps for adult and continuing education and priorities for the future.

The Handbook of the Evolving Research of Transformative Learning Kathleen P. King, 2009-05-01 Associate Editor Seamus King. This handbook is a much expanded version of the original Learning Activities Survey published by Dr. Kathleen P. King of Fordham University in 1998. Based on her ground-breaking research in this field, where she used a mixed methodology research approach to study transformative learning, the book will provide a model of research, firsthand perspective of how research design develops, reprints of articles based on the related research, and specific assistance in conducting further research in this area. Over 50 studies around the world have been conducted based on King's original research, and her work has extended across more than 12 studies since the original publication. Moreover, this volume is a vital research companion book to King's popular book.

Bringing Transformative Learning to Life Krieger 2005 Based on our history with the prior edition it is sold out this book will have wide appeal among adult education human resource development psychology and counseling researchers students professors and practitioners and it serve as an excellent textbook or personal introduction studies of foundations of adult learning applied research or transformative learning Professors and students of adult learning counseling human resource development staff development educational administration and leadership psychology and other social sciences use this as a guide for research studies especially in the area of adult learning and or transformative learning Readers will find that this handbook provides an overview of King s transformative learning research dating back to 1997 a manual for use of the research tools a research methodology and an approach to open new vistas of research The first manual published in 1998 is now out of print and this 10th anniversary edition not only fills the gap but also continues where it stopped This handbook delineates the original model and the expanding and evolving research which has developed from 1997 to 2008 More than a manual instead this book uses a variety of formats to accomplish this goal reflection formal discussion instructions technical information personal and learner stories selected research articles and several modified forms of the original Learning Activities Survey LAS instrument
