grandparents the children mature quickly into caring and competent young people as they take on responsibilities at the campground and learn how to care for their environment The children also learn about their totem animals and as they do they meet and create deeper connections with these animal beings As the group grows stronger they transform in mind spirit and body and become their spirit animals This ability makes for an even greater connection to Mother Earth The children their grandparents and Ethan commit to doing whatever they can to protect the earth even if it means fighting against all odds Blending elements of ancient philosophy spirituality and the natural environment The Summer of the Ennead A Tale of Awakening is about what might happen in a world where all life is valued where caring for Mother Earth outweighs giving in to greed and selfishness and where working together makes us stronger than working apart Ultimately it is a story of love kindness and hope

Running from Home Rita B. Ross, 2009-02-15 Running from Home chronicles Rita's flight from the Nazis as it was perceived by a young child The sense of bewilderment loss of home and suffering from hunger and cold create an indelible mark upon her mind and do not leave when she eventually comes to America Raised in different cultures she never feels at home but is always the outsider trying to reconcile her old life and experiences with her new surroundings Her youth and adolescence are assaulted by the demons that have been imprinted on her young brain Furthermore Rita's father suffers from his own demons financial insecurity disenfranchisement and constant poverty serve to reestablish her old fears and sense of loss For Rita the war is not over when the peace treaties have been signed For more information please see www.ritabross.com
